composition instructor the book is upbeat wise but friendly casual but knowledgeable like the voice that may have introduced you to certain other firsts With an experiential focus rather than a theoretical one First Time Up will be a strong addition to the newcomer's professional library and a great candidate for the TA practicum reading list Dethier author of The Composition Instructor's Survival Guide and From Dylan to Donne directly addresses the common headaches nightmares and epiphanies of composition teaching especially the ones that face the new teacher And since legions of new college composition teachers are either graduate instructors TAs or adjuncts without a formal background in composition studies he assumes these folks as his primary audience Dethier's voice is casual but it conveys concern humor experience and reassurance to the first timer He addresses all major areas that graduate instructors or new adjuncts in a writing program are sure to face from career anxiety to thoughts on grading and keeping good classroom records Dethier's own eclecticism is well represented here but he reviews with considerable deftness the value of contemporary scholarship to first time writing instructors many of whom will be impatient with high theory Throughout the work he affirms a humane confident approach to teaching along with a true affection for college students and for teachers just learning to deal with them Creative Composition Danita Berg, Lori A. May, 2015 This book brings together contemporary authors and well respected creative writing instructors and theorists to explore ways creativity in composition may be encouraged in student writers The question in this anthology is not Can writing be taught but How can we inspire students to embrace the creative process no matter what they write Marginalia in Modern Learning Contexts Reid, Alan J., 2018-11-09 Although reading can be regarded as an isolated and private endeavor the white space in the margins of a printed book or the comments section at the end of an online article can provide a welcomed space for interaction Annotation and marginalia share similar meanings a reader's contribution to a text which might consist of alphabetic image and video content While it has always been more common to think of this strategy in the context of a student and a textbook it is being more widely used through online communications such as commenting on liking and sharing social media posts The behaviors of readers as they engage with a text says a lot about their involvement interest and intentions Marginalia in Modern Learning Contexts is a collection of innovative research on the methods and applications of interaction between readers and texts through digital means such as commenting or physical annotation such as writing in the margins of a book and how these strategies can be applied in educational settings While highlighting topics including social annotation teacher education and technological expertise this book is ideally designed for educators administrators academicians researchers and students seeking current research on digital and physical annotation methods and strategies and their applications in educational environments Standing at the Threshold William J. Macauley, Leslie R. Anglesey, Brady Edwards, Kathryn M. Lambrecht, Phillip Lovas, 2021-07-01 Standing at the Threshold articulates identity and role dissonances experienced by composition and rhetoric teaching assistants and reimagines the TAs hip within a larger professional development process Current researchers and scholars have not fully explored the liminality of the profession's traditional path to credentialing. This collection reconsiders these positions and their contributions to academic careers. These authors enrich the TA experience by supporting agency and self-efficacy, encouraging TAs to take active roles in understanding their positions and making the most of that experience. Many chapters are written by current or former TAs who are writing as a means of preparing, informing, and guiding new rhetoricians, encouraging them to make choices about how they want to think through and participate in their teaching work. The first work on the market to delve deeply into the TAship itself and what it means for the larger discipline, Standing at the Threshold provides a rich new theorizing based in the real experiences and liminalities of teaching assistants in composition and rhetoric, approached from a productive array of perspectives. Johnson, Ronda Leathers, Dively Faith, Matzker, Jessica Restaino, Elizabeth Saur, Megan Schoettler, Kylee Thacker, Maurer.

Twenty-One Genres and How to Write Them Brock Dethier, 2013-04-15. In this classroom-tested approach to writing, Brock Dethier teaches readers how to analyze and write twenty-one genres that students are likely to encounter in college and beyond. This practical, student-friendly, task-oriented text confidently guides writers through step-by-step processes, reducing the anxiety commonly associated with writing tasks. In the first section, Dethier efficiently presents each genre, providing models, a description of the genre's purpose, context, and discourse, and suggestions for writing activities or moves that writers can use to get words on the page and accomplish their writing tasks. The second section explains these moves over two hundred of them in chapters ranging from Solve Your Process Problems and Discover to Revise and Present. Applicable to any writing task or genre, these moves help students overcome writing blocks and develop a piece of writing from the first glimmers of an idea to its presentation. This approach to managing the complexity and challenge of writing in college strives to be useful, flexible, eclectic, and brief—a valuable resource for students learning to negotiate unfamiliar writing situations.
