First World War A Photographic History:

Photographic History of the Great War, 1914      The First World War, 1933      First World War Plays Mark Rawlinson, 2014-06-19 The First World War 1914-1918 marked a turning point in modern history and culture and its literary legacy is vast poetry fiction and memoirs abound But the drama of the period is rarely recognised with only a handful of plays commonly associated with the war First World War Plays draws together canonical and lesser known plays from the First World War to the end of the twentieth century tracing the ways in which dramatists have engaged with and resisted World War I in their works Spanning almost a century of conflict this anthology explores the changing cultural attitudes to warfare including the significance of the war over time interwar pacifism and historical revisionism The collection includes writing by combatants as well as playwrights addressing historical events and national memory by both men and women and by writers from Great Britain and the United States Plays from the period like Night Watches by Allan Monkhouse 1916 Mine Eyes Have Seen by Alice Dunbar Nelson 1918 and Tunnel Trench by Hubert Griffith 1924 are joined with reflections on the war in Post Mortem by Noël Coward 1930 performed 1944 and Oh What A Lovely War by Joan Littlewood's Theatre Workshop 1963 as well as later works The Accrington Pals by Peter Whelan 1982 and Sea and Land and Sky by Abigail Docherty 2010

Accompanied by a general introduction by editor Dr Mark Rawlinson      The First World War. A Photographic History. Edited, with Captions, by Laurence Stallings Laurence STALLINGS, 1933      The First World War Antonello Biagini, 2015-09-04 This volume is the result of an international conference held at Sapienza University of Rome in June 2014 which brought together scholars from different countries to re-analyse and re-interpret the events of the First World War one hundred years after a young Bosnian Serb student from the Mlada Bosna Gavrilo Princip lit the fuse and ignited the conflict which was to forever change the world The Great War initially on a European and then on a world scale demonstrated the fragility of the international system of the European balance of powers and determined the dissolution of the great multinational empires and the need to redraw the map of Europe according to the principles of national sovereignty This book provides new insights into theories of this conflict and is characterized by internationality interdisciplinarity and a combination of different research methods The contributions based on archival documents from various different countries international and local historiography and on the analysis of newspaper articles postcards propaganda material memorials and school books examine ideological and historiographical debates the memory of the war and its most important contemporary and popular narratives and the use of propaganda for the mobilization of public opinion in addition to military social political economic and psychological aspects of the conflict      The First World War. A Photographic History. Ed. with Captions by Laurence Stallings Laurence Stallings, 1934      Museums and the First World War Gaynor

Kavanagh, 2014-05-15 The book is concerned with how during four demanding dislocating and world changing years that most Victorian institutions the museum was forced or prompted to meet the extraordinary test of war on the home front

Museums were no more immune from the pressures of war than any other institution and the changes in museums during this period some long term others transitory do much to explain the nature and character of museums in Britain today Their history reveals and reflects the broader history of the home front and the willing stumbling confused efforts to do the right thing at the right time They were far away from the fighting the despair and degradation of the battlefields But they were in some measure not only close to but part of a society carrying both its fears and expectations for those operating in a war which disassembled all their lives The discussion covers the progress of museums from just before the advent of war in August 1914 to the immediate post war period 1920 although this is set in the context of museum developments before and after this span of time Museums are considered in relation to the tensions and prevalent conditions of this period Further the nature and effect of the experience of them and the public services they provide in both the long and short term are examined

A Photographic History of London's Ceremonial Regiments Ben Skipper, 2024-10-30 This richly illustrated volume tells the story of the seven regiments of the Household Division along with the supporting personalities and units of London District A subject as fascinating as it is multifarious From the key personalities responsible for the razor sharp execution of state ceremonial and public duties to the historical figures who helped establish and shape a military dynasty Travel through the history of the Household Division from its birth in 1660 with the restoration of Charles II to its role in establishing Britain's Special Forces It is a journey of political intrigue cementing empire and fighting terrorism From the founding fathers such as George Monck who laid the foundations for a professional British Army to adventurers like David Stirling and Sir Frederick Boy Browning the history of the Household Division is one of almost continuous action and innovation Supported by the honorable Artillery Company and the King's Troop The Royal Horse Artillery London's Ceremonial Regiments put the pomp in circumstance the distinction in battle and the sobriety in the sombre notes of The Last Post
