The Golden Thread Ewan Clayton,2015-01-20 From the simple representative shapes used to record transactions of goods and services in ancient Mesopotamia to the sophisticated typographical resources available to the twenty first century users of desktop computers the story of writing is the story of human civilization itself Calligraphy expert Ewan Clayton traces the history of an invention which ever since our ancestors made the transition from a nomadic to an agrarian way of life in the eighth century BC has been the method of codification and dissemination of ideas in every field of human endeavour and a motor of cultural scientific and political progress He explores the social and cultural impact of among other stages the invention of the alphabet the replacement of the papyrus scroll with the codex in the late Roman period the perfecting of printing using moveable type in the fifteenth century and the ensuing spread of literacy the industrialization of printing during the Industrial Revolution the impact of artistic Modernism on the written word in the early twentieth century and of the digital switchover at the century's close. ENGLISH LITERATURE IN TRANSITION 1880-1920 The canzone villanesca alla napoletana Donna G. Cardamone, 2023-05-31

The printed debut of the canzone villanesca alla napoletana occurred on 24 October 1537 in Naples. Fifteen anonymous rustic songs were published by Johannes de Colonia in a pocket-sized anthology with a cover featuring three women with hoes tilling the soil. The adjective villanesca from villano or peasant in the strict sense of the word means rustic or crude, but in this new context it also intimates that Neapolitan poet-musicians had been affected by the instinctive lyrical traditions of everyday people. The articles in this volume trace the Neapolitan origins of this song form and its subsequent development as it spread quickly throughout Italy in a succession of editions published in Venice and Rome, providing a diverse repertory of lively songs to amuse the privileged that held and attended academies. Several studies focus on key figures in this process, notably Ferrante Sanseverino, Prince of Salerno, and Orlando di Lasso. At the same time, the author relates these developments to the contemporary political context, notably the rivalry of Spain and France for control of the Kingdom of Naples.

A Bibliography on Writing and Written Language Konrad Ehlich, Florian Coulmas, Gabriele Graefen, 2011-06-01
The bibliography offers information on research about writing and written language over the past 50 years. No comprehensive bibliography on this subject has been published since Sattler's 1935 handbook. With a selection of some 27,500 titles, it covers the most important literature in all scientific fields relating to writing. Emphasis has been placed on the interdisciplinary organization of the bibliography, creating many points of common interest for literacy experts, educationalists, psychologists, sociologists, linguists, cultural anthropologists, and historians. The bibliography is organized in such a way as to provide the specialist as well as the researcher in neighboring disciplines with access to the relevant literature on writing in a given field. While necessarily selective, it also offers information on more specialized bibliographies. In addition, an overview of norms and standards concerning script and writing will prove very useful for non-professional readers. It is therefore also of interest to the generally interested public as a reference work for the humanities.
