Human Enhancement

Drugs Katinka van de Ven, Kyle Mulrooney, Jim McVeigh, 2019-06-12 Despite increasing interest in the use of human enhancement drugs HEDs our understanding of this phenomenon and the regulatory framework used to address it has lagged behind Encompassing public health epidemiology neuroethics sport science criminology and sociology this book brings together a broad spectrum of scholarly insights and research expertise from leading authorities to examine key international issues in the field of HEDs As traditional and other new drug markets have occupied much of the academic attention there has been a lack of scholarly focus on human enhancement drugs This book provides readers with a much needed understanding of the illicit drug market of HEDs The authors from a variety of cultural contexts disciplines and perspectives include both academics and practitioners Topics explored in this collection amongst others include The anti doping industry and performance and image enhancing drugs Steroids and gender The use of cognitive enhancing drugs in academia The use of sunless synthetic tanning products The online trade of HEDs Regulations of the enhancement drugs market This collection will serve as a reference for students academics practitioners law enforcement and others working in this area to reflect on the current state of research and consider future priorities This detailed exploration will provide a valuable knowledge base for those interested in human enhancement drugs while also promoting critical discussion

Dynamic Psychotherapy with Adult Survivors Lori Bennett, 2012-04-26 Dynamic Psychotherapy with Adult Survivors Living Past Neglect by Lori Bennett examines the aftereffects of emotional neglect in order to help clinicians to better serve survivors Bennett makes an important contribution by expanding upon the definition of neglect to include emotional neglect while fostering a more profound understanding of the impact of childhood neglect upon adult survivors The book compiles former clients stories of recovery in order to illustrate and explore effective therapy and treatment techniques that will aid in the training of the clinicians who serve survivors of neglect How do young adults climb out of their histories of neglect How can they hope to feel loved if they never experienced the love they needed in their families of origin How do they combat the damage to trust How do they learn to stop the self blame over circumstances to move beyond the past and to embrace a new future These questions are answered in Dynamic Psychotherapy with Adult Survivors

Whitaker's Cumulative Book

List, 1985    Medical Entanglements Kristina Gupta, 2019-10-25 Medical Entanglements uses intersectional feminist queer and crip theory to move beyond for or against approaches to medical intervention Using a series of case studies sex confirmation surgery pharmaceutical treatments for sexual dissatisfaction and weight loss interventions the book argues that because of systemic inequality most mainstream medical interventions will simultaneously reinforce social inequality and alleviate some individual suffering The book demonstrates that there is no way to think ourselves out of this conundrum as the contradictions are a product of unjust systems Thus Gupta argues that feminist activists and theorists should allow individuals to choose whether to use a particular intervention while directing their social justice efforts at dismantling systems of oppression and at ensuring that all people regardless of race gender sexuality class or ability have access to the basic resources required to flourish

Obesity Discourse and Fat Politics Lee Monaghan,Rachel Colls,Bethan Evans,2015-12-22 There is considerable rhetoric and concern about weight and obesity across an increasing range of national contexts Alarmist claims about an obesity time bomb are continually recycled in policy reports reviews and white papers each of which begin with the assumption that fatness is fundamentally unhealthy and damaging to national economies With contributions from the UK Canada the USA and Australia this book offers alternative critical perspectives on this alleged public health crisis which were in part developed through an Economic and Social Research Council seminar series on Fat Studies and Health at Every Size HAES Written by scholars from a range of disciplines and the health professions themes include an interrogation of statistical procedures used to construct the obesity epidemic overweight and obesity as cultural signifiers for Type 2 diabetes understandings of healthy eating and healthy weight in a problem population gendered expectations on men and women to lose weight the visual representation of obesity tensions when researching anti fatness critical dietitians engagement with HAES alternative ways of promoting physical activity and representations of obesity in the media This book was originally published as a special issue of Critical Public Health

Medical Books and Serials in Print ,1984 Becoming Women Carla Rice,2014-02-24 In a culture where beauty is currency women s bodies are often perceived as measures of value and worth The search for visibility and self acceptance can be daunting especially for those on the cultural margins of beauty Becoming Women offers a thoughtful examination of the search for identity in an image oriented world That search is told through the experiences of a group of women who came of age in the wake of second and third wave feminism featuring voices from marginalized and misrepresented groups Carla Rice pairs popular imagery with personal narratives to expose the culture of contradiction where increases in individual body acceptance have been matched by even more restrictive feminine image ideals and norms With insider insights from the Dove Campaign for Real Beauty Rice exposes the beauty industry s colonization of women s bodies and examines why the beauty myth has yet to be resolved

Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index ,1975 Fat in Four Cultures Cindi SturtzSreetharan,Alexandra Brewis,Jessica Hardin,Sarah Trainer,Amber Wutich,2021-06-22 Traits that signal belonging dictate our daily routines including how we eat move and connect to others In recent years fat has emerged as a shared anchor in defining who belongs and is valued versus who does not and is not The stigma surrounding weight transcends many social cultural political and economic divides The concern over body image shapes not only how we see ourselves but also how we talk interact and fit into our social networks communities and broader society Fat in Four Cultures is a co authored comparative ethnography that reveals the shared struggles and local distinctions of how people across the globe are coping with a bombardment of anti fat messages Highlighting important differences in how people experience being fat the cases in this book are based on fieldwork by five anthropologists working together simultaneously in four different sites across the globe Japan the United States Paraguay and Samoa Through these cases Fat in Four Cultures considers what insights can be gained through systematic cross cultural comparison Written in an eye opening and narrative driven style with clearly defined and consistently used key terms this book effectively explores a series of fundamental questions about the present and future of fat and obesity

Psychology, Mental Health and Distress

John Cromby,David Harper,Paula Reavey,2017-09-16 Is depression simply the result of chemical imbalances or Schizophrenia a wholly biological disorder What role do the broader circumstances of an individual's social cultural and heuristic world play in the wider scheme of their psychological wellbeing In this ground breaking and highly innovative text Cromby et al deliver an introduction to the biopsychosocial paradigm for understanding and treating psychological distress taking into consideration the wider contexts that engender the onset of mental illness and critiquing the limitations in the sole use of the biomedical model in psychological practice Rather than biologically determined or clinically measurable readers are encouraged to consider mental illness as a subjective experience that is expressed according to the individual experiences of the sufferer rather than the rigidity of diagnostic categories Similarly approaches to recovery expand beyond psychiatric medication to consider the fundamental function of methods such as psychotherapy community psychology and service user movements in the recovery process Offering a holistic account of the experience of psychological distress this text draws upon not only statistical evidence but places an integral emphasis on the service user experience anecdotal accounts of which feature throughout in order to provide readers with the perspective of the mental health sufferer Taking an integrative approach to the psychology of mental health the authors draw from a wealth of experience examples and approaches to present this student friendly and engaging text This is core reading for anyone serious about understanding mental health issues and is suitable for undergraduate students taking introductory courses in psychology and abnormal psychology

Food and Nutrition

Paul Fieldhouse, Neal Andrew W. Neal,2019-03-21 Andrew W Neal argues that while security was once an anti political exception in liberal democracies a black box of secret intelligence and military decision making at the dark heart of the state it has now become normalised in professional political life This represents a direct challenge to critical security studies debates and their core assumption that security is a kind of illiberal and undemocratic anti politics Using archival research and interviews with politicians Neal investigates security politics from the 1980s to the present day to show how its meaning and practice have changed over time In doing so he develops an original reassessment of the security politics relationship    The Publishers Weekly ,1917
