Only five days after moving to the city, Sky attends her cousin's prestigious by invitation only fashion show during New York City's Fashion Week. Though she's more country bumpkin than fashionista, she's excited to attend. Not for the clothes but to discover what happens behind the scenes. She has it all planned out. Step one: stop apologizing so much. Step two: continue her research on the fashion world by talking to the seductive yet sinister COO of the clothing designer her cousin models for. Step three: write a best-selling tell-all exposing the dark underbelly of the fashion industry and the disturbing trend of New York City's top models disappearing. What she hadn't planned on: Tracking down her cousin's killer. Had her cousin been in the wrong place at the wrong time? Or had she been the target of someone's evil game? Chris Harcourt is dying. At just fifty, one cancer is claiming his life, but not before his wife Jess delivers a final devastating blow. Now the once tight foursome is fractured beyond repair, and someone is making sure it stays that way. One by one, the men begin to die. A slashed throat on a golf course. A stabbing in a school car park. A hit and run gone horribly wrong. Detectives Will Stewart and Claire Landon race to find the killer, following a trail that leads them to Chris's former carer, Elsa Manvers. But in a twist no one sees coming, the real killers are still out there, hiding in plain sight. And they've only just begun.
