Parents And Teachers Carol Vincent, 2013-10-08 This work examines the factors that shape and influence home school relations At its heart is an analysis of parent teacher relationships in an inner city borough drawn from case studies of five primary schools and a parents centre Interviews with parents are revealing windows into parents' views on a range of issues including curriculum discipline and parents' relationships with their children's teachers The author also considers teachers' perspectives on these matters and explores the influence of social class ethnicity and gender on parent teacher interactions While presenting these issues within a consideration of broader themes such as citizenship community power and participation the book discusses the reasons why initiatives designed to improve home school relations appear to result in such limited change

The Conditions of Discretion Joel Handler, 1986-08-20 This timely book is concerned with interactions between ordinary people and large public bureaucracies interactions that typically are characterized by mutual frustration and antagonism In fact as Joel Handler points out the procedural guidelines intended to ensure fairness and due process fail to take account of an initial imbalance of power and tend to create adversarial rather than cooperative relationships When the special education needs of a handicapped child must be determined parents and school administrators often face an especially painful confrontation The Conditions of Discretion focuses on one successful approach to educational decision making developed by the school district of Madison Wisconsin in order to illustrate how such interactions can be restructured and enhanced Madison's creative plan regards parents as part of the solution not the problem and uses lay advocates to turn conflict into an opportunity for communication Arrangements such as these in Handler's analysis exemplify the theoretical conditions under which discretionary decisions can be made fairly and with the informed participation of all concerned The Conditions of Discretion offers not only a detailed case study sympathetically described but also persuasive assessments of major themes in contemporary legal and social policy informed consent bureaucratic change social movement activity the relationship of the individual to the state From these strands Handler weaves a significant new theory of cooperative decision making that integrates the public and the private recognizes the importance of values and preserves autonomy within community A masterful blend of social criticism social sciences and humane constructive thought about the future of the welfare state Duncan Kennedy Harvard Law School

Let the Wind Speak Carol Shloss, 2023-02-21 Carol Loeb Shloss creates a compelling portrait of a complex relationship of a daughter and her literary giant father Ezra Pound and Mary de Rachewiltz Pound's child by his long time mistress the violinist Olga Rudge Brought into the world in secret and hidden in the Italian Alps at birth Mary was raised by German peasant farmers had Italian identity papers a German speaking upbringing Austrian loyalties common to the area and perforce a fascist education For years de Rachewiltz had no idea that Pound and Rudge the benefactors who would sporadically appear were her father and mother Gradually the truth of her parentage was revealed and with it the knowledge that Dorothy Shakespeare and not Olga was Pound's actual wife Dorothy in turn kept her own secrets while Pound signed the birth certificate of her son Omar and claimed legal paternity he was not the boy's biological father. Two lies established at the birth of these children created a dynamic antagonism that lasted for generations. Pound maneuvered through it until he was arrested for treason after World War II and shipped back from Italy to the United States where he was institutionalized rather than imprisoned. As an adult, de Rachewiltz took on the task of claiming a contested heritage and securing her father's literary legacy in the face of a legal system that failed to recognize her legitimacy. Born on different continents separated by nationality, related by natural birth and torn apart by conflict between Italy and America, Mary and Ezra Pound found a way to live out their deep and abiding love for one another. Let the Wind Speak is both a history of modern writers who were forced to negotiate allegiances to one another and to their adopted countries in a time of mortal conflict and the story of Mary de Rachewiltz's navigation through issues of personal identity amid the shifting politics of western nations in peace and war. It is a masterful biography that asks us to consider cultures of secrecy, frayed allegiances and the boundaries that define nations, families and politics.

Handbook for Teachers and Parents Szilvay, Géza, 2018-05-01 THE ALL NEW FULLY REVISED HANDBOOK FOR TEACHERS AND PARENTS The Handbook for Teachers and Parents brings together the entire Colourstrings series for the violin. The Handbook guides the teachers and parents through books A-F and Yellow Pages I-III offering expert advice and methodological support to teaching in the Colourstrings method. The method makes use of colourful teaching materials and supports learning by appealing to many senses. Founded on the principles of Zoltán Kodály, Colourstrings develops the capacity for internal listening so that the child learns to visualize the notes heard and to auralize the notes on the page. The method has been fostered by ESTA, ASTA, AUSTA, ISME, NMPU and IKS. According to Géza Szilvay, the Colourstrings method can make a violin player of almost anyone with motivation. The key to maintaining musical culture lies with the teacher. The Colourstrings is a teaching method developed by Géza and Csaba Szilvay. The method is ideal for preschool beginners and can be used effectively in instrumental teaching throughout the school years. It creates an environment in which singing, playing games and instrument live side by side for the happiness of the child. The Colourstrings approach developed by the Szilvay brothers has gained an international reputation and is now taught all over the world. A number of special Colourstrings institutions, schools, centres and societies have been established in several European countries in order to implement and further this child-centred teaching concept.

Readings in the Cantos Richard Parker, 2022-07-01 The three volumes of Readings in the Cantos bring together in a ground-breaking format a number of critical readings by world-renowned scholars of the central modernist long poem, The Cantos of Ezra Pound. Each contributor approaches either a single Canto or a defined small group of Cantos in isolation, providing a clear, informative and interpretive reading that includes an up-to-date assessment of sources and an idea of recent critical approaches. Together, the contributors offer a remarkably diverse reading of The Cantos that at the same time demonstrates the coherence of Pound's text.

Developing Law Rachel E. Taylor, 2024-02-29 The notion that children constitute an important group of rights holders has gained increasing acceptance both domestically and internationally Nevertheless this rhetorical commitment to children s rights is not necessarily realised in practice Now in its fourth edition Fortin s Children s Rights and the Developing Law explores the extent to which law and policy in England promotes or undermines the rights of children Fully revised and updated this textbook uses current research on child development and welfare to reflect on the extent to which the law fulfils children s rights in a wide range of areas including medical law education and child poverty These developments are measured against the domestic law and the UK s international obligations under for example the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child Our Children: Hints from Practical Experience for Parents and Teachers Paul Carus, 1912
