Desperate for freedom, I'm like a caged animal gone from one hell to another. Only this time, my captor is also my secret fixation. I can't stop dreaming about him. The New Monthly Magazine and Literary Journal, 1836 Mark at the Threshold Geoff R. Webb, 2008-07-31 The discussion concerning Markan characterisation and Markan genre can be helpfully informed by Bakhtinian categories. This book uses the twin foci of chronotope and carnival to examine specific characters in terms of different levels of dialogue. Various passages in Mark are examined and thresholds are noted between interindividual character zones and between the hearing reader and text voices. Several generic contacts are shown to have shaped the text's genre memory, in particular the Graeco-Roman popular literature of the ancient world. The resultant picture is of an earthy populist Gospel whose voices resonate with the vulgar classes and whose spirituality is refreshingly relevant to everyday concerns. Father's Gold
