Father Louie Ralph Eugene Meatyard, Guy Davenport, 1991 Correspondence between Thomas Merton and Ralph Eugene Meatyard p 65 75 The Letters of Thomas Merton and Victor and Carolyn Hammer F. Douglas Scutchfield, Paul Evans Holbrook Jr., 2014-12-25 Poet social justice advocate and theologian Thomas Merton 1915 1968 is arguably the most influential American Catholic author of the twentieth century In his short lifetime he penned over seventy books and maintained a brisk correspondence with colleagues around the globe However many Merton scholars and fans remain unaware of the significant body of letters that were exchanged between the Trappist monk and Victor and Carolyn Hammer Unable to leave his home at the Abbey of Gethsemani except on special occasions Merton developed a unique friendship with this couple from nearby Lexington Kentucky Carolyn who supplied Merton with many of the books he required for his writing and teaching was a founder of the King Library Press at the University of Kentucky Victor was an accomplished painter sculptor printer and architect The friendship and collaborations between Merton and the Hammers reveal their shared interest in the convergence of art literature and spirituality In this volume editors F Douglas Scutchfield and Paul Evans Holbrook Jr have collected the trio s complete correspondence for the first time Their letters arranged chronologically vividly demonstrate a blossoming intellectual camaraderie and provide a unique opportunity to understand Merton s evolving philosophies At times humorous often profound the letters in this volume shed light on a rare friendship and offer new insights into the creative intellect of Thomas Merton Heretic Blood Michael W. Higgins, 2016-10-31 Thirty years after his death we are finally catching up to Thomas Merton as one of the greatest spiritual figures of the twentieth century The genius and spirituality of this unusual man could not be contained in his life as a monk but spilled over richly into his life and work as a poet critic rebel sage and even artist and photographer Merton was aware that he had heretic blood within him and it soon became apparent to the world The balding French English intellectual living as a Trappist monk at Our Lady of Gethsemani Abbey in Kentucky took a vow of silence yet corresponded with and befriended such luminaries as Joan Baez Jacques Maritain John Howard Griffin Martin Luther King Jr Erich Fromm and Boris Pasternak His famous autobiography The Seven Storey Mountain captured the imagination of a generation selling more than six hundred thousand copies in its first year Merton also took a vow of obedience yet feuded constantly with his second abbot As a monk he promised to remain celibate yet he found himself passionately in love with a nurse he met while in hospital in Louisville Kentucky And at the end of his life Merton a monk within the western Roman Catholic tradition was moving closer and closer to Eastern spirituality This brilliant new book is the first to use recently released diary entries and correspondence by Merton and includes new insights about the recently published diary of his episode of the heart Higgins compares Merton with William Blake the monk s intellectual and spiritual hero and comes to startling conclusions about the emotional and intellectual passions that drove Thomas Merton a man and thinker for all seasons Behind the Photographic Lens of Sergio Larraín Jean Paul

The Short Story and Photography, 1880's-1980's Jane Marjorie Rabb,1998 For over a hundred years stories about photographs and photography have reflected the profound uncertainties and inconclusive endings of the modern world For many writers photography supposedly the most realistic of the arts turns out to be the most ambiguous As Jane Rabb observes in her introduction a number of the stories in this collection involve mysteries perhaps because photography has a capacity for both documentary reality and moral and psychological ambiguity Many nineteenth century writers represented here including Thomas Hardy and Sir Arthur Conan Doyle helped make short fiction as respectable as the novel Some of them were even serious photographers themselves The twentieth century is arguably a golden age for both the short story and photography This collection includes examples from a worldly group of writer Eug ne Ionesco Julio Cort zar Michel Tournier and Italo Calvino as well as the Chinese writer Bing Xin and John Updike Cynthia Ozick and Raymond Carver In this wide range of stories varying from sentimental to obsessive to sinister to tragic and even fatal the reader will find provocative examples of the confluence of the short story and photography both once considered the bastard stepchildren of literature and art
