Ian S. McIntosh,Dane Munro,Alison T. Smith,Susan Dunn-Hensley,2024-07-09 Pilgrimage in the Twenty First Century A Kaleidoscopic Inquiry showcases the rich diversity of religious and secular pilgrimage on the world stage Scholars from the Global North and South working in diverse fields in the humanities and social sciences share their research on the nature of pilgrimage otherwise known as travel for transformation providing insight into why it is one of the fastest growing segments of the worldwide tourism industry Topics under scrutiny include the ancient history of pilgrimage pilgrimage in literature the development of new trails and the refurbishment of others pilgrimage as an avenue for justice and peacebuilding as an example of intangible cultural heritage and as a unique driver of domestic economies Each chapter in this survey covering more than fifteen countries makes a significant contribution to our understanding of this age old and multi faceted phenomenon that is central to our understanding of what it means to be human The Oxford History of the Irish Book, Volume V Clare Hutton,Patrick Walsh,2011-06-23 Part of a series providing an authoritative history of the book in Ireland this volume comprehensively outlines the history of 20th century Irish book culture This book embraces all the written and printed traditions and heritages of Ireland and places them in the global context of a worldwide interest in book histories

A History of Irish Autobiography Liam Harte,2018-03-01 A History of Irish Autobiography is the first ever critical survey of autobiographical self representation in Ireland from its recoverable beginnings to the twenty first century The book draws on a wealth of original scholarship by leading experts to provide an authoritative examination of autobiographical writing in the English and Irish languages Beginning with a comprehensive overview of autobiography theory and criticism in Ireland the History guides the reader through seventeen centuries of Irish achievement in autobiography a category that incorporates diverse literary forms from religious tracts and travelogues to letters diaries and online journals This ambitious book is rich in insight Chapters are structured around key subgenres themes texts and practitioners each featuring a guide to recommended further reading The volume s extensive coverage is complemented by a detailed chronology of Irish autobiography from the fifth century to the contemporary era the first of its kind to be published Occasions of Faith Lawrence J. Taylor,1995-04 Devotional occasions or experiences by Irish Catholics form the crux of this powerful first book length anthropological study of Irish Catholicism Questions central to the study of religion inform Occasions of Faith What is religion and how do official and popular religion differ What is the relation between power and meaning What are the roles of religious and political regimes in the social construction of religion In exploring these questions the book draws on two major theoretical traditions in the anthropological study of religion the tradition of Geertz Douglas and Turner and that of Marx Foucault and Asad Even the powerful religious regime Taylor finds in Irish Catholicism must leave creative space for what he calls a religious imagination Basic fears and needs propel the people of southwest Donegal and all of us Taylor argues to respond creatively to strong personal religious experiences and to invent forms to express them British Books in Print ,1985 The Best of Decades Fergal Tobin,1984 Dictionary of Ulster Biography Kate Newmann,Ulster History Circle (Society),1993 A New Dictionary of Irish History from 1800 D.
