Fault Line American Lives Series:

American Lives Alicia Christensen, 2010-03-01 In prose as diverse as the stories they tell writers such as Floyd Skloot Ted Kooser Peggy Shumaker and Lee Martin among many others open windows to their own ordinary and extraordinary experiences John Skoyles tells how for his Uncle Fred a particular Hard Luck Suit imparted misfortune Brenda Serotte describes a Turkish grandmother who made her living reading palms interpreting cups and prescribing poultices for the community In Son of Mr Green Jeans Dinty W Moore views fatherhood through the lens of pop culture Janet Sternburg's Phantom Limb muses on the dilemmas of a child caring for a parent Whether evoking moments of death or disease in family or marriage history politics religion or culture these glimpses into singular American lives come together in a richly textured colorful patchwork quilt of American life

When We Were Ghouls Amy E. Wallen, 2018-03 When Amy E Wallen's southern blue collar peripatetic family was transferred from Ely Nevada to Lagos Nigeria she had just turned seven From Nevada to Nigeria and on to Peru Bolivia and Oklahoma the family wandered the world living in a state of constant upheaval When We Were Ghouls follows Wallen's recollections of her family who like ghosts came and went and slipped through her fingers rendering her memories unclear Were they a family of grave robbers as her memory of the pillaging of a pre Incan grave site indicates Are they as the author's mother posits hideous people Or is Wallen's memory out of focus In this quick paced and riveting narrative Wallen exorcizes these haunted memories to clarify the nature of her family and by extension her own character Plumbing the slipperiness of memory and confronting what it means to be a good human When We Were Ghouls links the fear of loss and mortality to childhood ideas of permanence It is a story about family surely but it is also a representation of how a combination of innocence and denial can cause us to neglect our most precious earthly treasures not just our children but the artifacts of humanity and humanity itself

A Certain Loneliness Sandra Gail Lambert, 2018-09-01 After contracting polio as a child Sandra Gail Lambert progressed from braces and crutches to a manual wheelchair to a power wheelchair but loneliness has remained a constant from the wild claustrophobia of a child in body casts to just yesterday trapped at home gasping from pain A Certain Loneliness is a meditative and engaging memoir in essays that explores the intersection of disability queerness and female desire with frankness and humor Lambert presents the adventures of flourishing within a world of uncertain tomorrows kayaking alone through swamps with alligators negotiating planes trains and ski lifts scoring free drugs from dangerous men getting trapped in a too deep snow drift without crutches A Certain Loneliness is literature of the body palpable and present in which Lambert's lifelong struggle with isolation and independence complete with tiresome frustrations slapstick moments and grand triumphs are wound up in the long history of humanity's relationship to the natural world Purchase the audio edition

Such a Life Lee Martin, 2012-03-01 Lee Martin tells us in his memoir I was never meant to come along My parents married late My father was thirty eight my mother forty one When he found out she was pregnant he asked the doctor Can you get rid of it From such an inauspicious beginning Martin began collecting impressions that through the tincture of time and the magic of his narrative gift have become the finely wrought pieces of Such a Life Whether recounting the observations of a solemn child understood only much later or exploring the intricacies of neighborhood politics at middle age Martin offers us a richly detailed highly personal view that effortlessly expands to illuminate our world At a tender age Martin moved to a new level of complexity of negotiating silences and sadness when his father lost both of his hands in a farming accident His stories of youth from a first kiss to a first hangover and his reflections on age as a vegan recalling the farm food of his childhood or as a writer contemplating the manual labor of his father and grandfather bear witness to the observant child he was and the insightful and irresistible storyteller he s become His meditations on family form a highly evocative portrait of the relationships at the heart of our lives

The Solace of Stones Julie Riddle,2016-04 Everything changes when Julie Riddle s parents stumble across the wilderness survival guide How to Live in the Woods on Pennies a Day In 1977 when Riddle is seven years old she and her family fed up with the challenges of city life move to the foot of the Cabinet Mountains Wilderness in northwestern Montana For three years they live in the primitive basement of the log house they are building by hand in the harsh remote Montana woods Meanwhile haunted by the repressed memory of childhood sexual abuse Riddle struggles to come to terms with the dark shadows that plague her amid entrenched cultural and gender mores enforced by enduring myths of the West As Riddle grapples with her own painful secrets she discovers the world around her and its impact on people the demands of living in a rural mountain community dependent on boom and bust mining and logging industries the health and environmental crises of the W R Grace asbestos contamination and EPA cleanup and the healing beauty of the Montana wild More than simply a memoir about family and place The Solace of Stones explores Riddle s coming of age and the complexities of memory loss and identity borne by a family homesteading in the modern West

Moral Problems in American Life Karen Halttunen,Lewis Perry,1998 This volume surveys the moral landscape of the American past from slavery to the Vietnam War The 14 contributing historians illuminate this critical dimension of American history showing how historical study contributes to present day debates about values and the moral life

Your Money Or Your Life Luke Messac,2023-10-12 A powerful history of how medical debt destabilized the American healthcare system and how we can build back relationships in medicine that benefit everyone

Pain Woman Takes Your Keys, and Other Essays from a Nervous System Sonya Huber,2017 Rate your pain on a scale of one to ten What about on a scale of spicy to citrus Is it more like a lava lamp or a mosaic Pain though a universal element of human experience is dimly understood and sometimes barely managed Pain Woman Takes Your Keys and Other Essays from a Nervous System is a collection of literary and experimental essays about living with chronic pain Sonya Huber moves away from a linear narrative to step through the doorway into pain itself into that strange unbounded reality Although the essays are personal in nature this collection is not a record of the author s specific condition but an exploration that transcends pain s airless and constraining world and focuses on its edges from wild and widely ranging angles Huber addresses the nature and experience of invisible disability including the challenges of gender bias in our health care system the search for effective treatment options and the difficulty of articulating chronic pain She makes pain a lens of inquiry and lyricism finds its humor and complexity describes its irascible character and explores its temperature taste and even its beauty      The Days Are Gods Liz Stephens,2013-03-01 I called the bishop of the local ward and he put the date of your move into the church bulletin and these gentlemen came to help Brady the real estate agent says Welcome to Wellsville Utah Good bye L A Liz Stephens has come from Los Angeles to Utah for graduate school and her brief stint working on a Taco Bell commercial is not much in the way of preparation for taking on the real West In The Days Are Gods Stephens chronicles a move that is far more than a shift in geographical coordinates With husband and dogs in tow she searches for an authentic connection to this new community all the while knowing that as an outsider she will never really belong And yet precisely as an outsider Stephens has a unique perspective on belonging one that colors her accounts of attending her first small town rodeo living in the thick of a thriving Latter Day Saints religious community raising goats in her laundry room and observing the town s racialized Founder s Day battle reenactments In her frank and particular way Stephens shows how the culture of memory as our inheritance offers a balance to our brief attention spans and our brief lives      Meander Belt M. Randal O'Wain,2019-10-01 In Meander Belt M Randal O Wain offers a reflection on how a working class boy from Memphis Tennessee came to fall in love with language reading writing and the larger world outside of the American South This memoir examines what it means for the son of a carpenter to value mental rather than physical labor and what this does to his relationship with his family whose livelihood and sensibility are decidedly blue collar Straining the father son bond further O Wain leaves home to find a life outside Memphis roaming from place to place finding odd jobs and touring with his band From memory and observation O Wain assembles a subtle and spare portrait of his roots family and ultimately discovers that his working class upbringing is not so antithetical to the man he has become

Island in the City Micah McCrary,2018-09-01 What forges the unique human personality In Island in the City Micah McCrary taking his genetic inheritance as immutable considers the role geography has played in shaping who he is Place often leaves indelible marks the badges of self discovery the scars from adversity and hardship the gilded stamps from personal triumphs the tattoos of memory and the new appendages friendships experiences and baggage we carry with us Each place with its own personality has the power to form or revise our personhood in surprising and fascinating ways McCrary considers three places he has called home Normal Illinois Chicago and Prague and reflects on how these surroundings have shaped him His sharp eyed charming memoir in essays contemplates how aspects of his identity such as being black male middle class queer and American have developed and been influenced by where he hangs his hat

Weeds Evelyn I. Funda,2020-04-15 In Thomas Jefferson s day 90 percent of the population worked on family farms Today in a world dominated by agribusiness less than 1 percent of Americans claim farm related occupations What was lost along the way is something that Evelyn I Funda experienced firsthand when in 2001 her parents sold the last parcel of the farm they had worked since they married in 1957 Against that landscape of loss Funda explores her family's three generation farming experience in southern Idaho where her Czech immigrant family spent their lives turning a patch of sagebrush into crop land The story of Funda's family unfolds within the larger context of our country's rich immigrant history western culture and farming as a science and an art Situated at the crossroads of American farming Weeds A Farm Daughter's Lament offers a clear view of the nature the cost and the transformation of the American West Part cultural history part memoir and part elegy the book reminds us that in losing our attachment to the land we also lose some of our humanity and something at the very heart of our identity as a nation

How to Survive Death and Other Inconveniences Sue William Silverman, 2020-03-01 Many are haunted and obsessed by their own eventual deaths but perhaps no one as much as Sue William Silverman This thematically linked collection of essays charts Silverman's attempt to confront her fears of that ultimate unknown Her dread was fomented in part by a sexual assault hidden for years that led to an awareness that death and sex are in some ways inextricable an everyday reality many women know too well Through gallows humor vivid realism and fantastical speculation How to Survive Death and Other Inconveniences explores this fear of death and the author's desire to survive it From cruising New Jersey's industry blighted landscape in a gold Plymouth to visiting the emergency room for maladies both real and imagined to suffering the stifling strictness of an intractable piano teacher Silverman guards her memories for the same reason she resurrects archaic words to use as talismans to ward off the inevitable Ultimately Silverman knows there is no way to survive death physically Still through language commemoration and metaphor she searches for a sliver of transcendent immortality

Shadow Migration Suzanne Ohlmann, 2022-03 With her feet firmly rooted on the plains of Nebraska Suzanne Ohlmann launches the reader into flight over miles and decades of migration from an apple pie childhood in America's Fourth of July City to the dirt floors of a cowshed in rural India we zigzag across time and geography to see the world through Ohlmann's eyes and to discover with her the pain she'd been avoiding through her boomerang travels away from her native home Through incarnations as a musician arts manager and registered nurse Ohlmann finally lands in Texas buys a house and gets a dog But her house is haunted and so is she In the dark solitude of Ohlmann's basement the vision of a dead child presents her with a harrowing choice she can go home to Nebraska and seek the truth of her biological past or like the boy surrender to the depths of her own darkness With honesty compassion and a sense of humor Ohlmann recounts her tenacious search into the shadows of her life

If This Were Fiction Jill Christman, 2022-09 2023 Heartland Booksellers Award finalist Foreword INDIES Silver Winner in Autobiography and Memoir Winner of a 2023 Book of the Year Award from Chicago Writers Association If This Were Fiction is a love story for Jill Christman's long ago fiancé who died young in a car accident for her children for her husband Mark and ultimately for herself In this collection Christman takes on the wide range of situations and landscapes she encountered on her journey from wild child through wounded teen to mother teacher writer and wife In these pages there are fatal accidents and miraculous births a grief pilgrimage that takes Christman to jungles volcanoes and caves in Central America and meditations on everything from sexual trauma and the more benign accidents of childhood to gun violence indoor cycling unlikely romance and even a ghost or two Playing like a lively mixtape in both subject and style If This Were Fiction focuses an open hearted frequently funny clear eyed feminist lens on Christman s first fifty years and sends out a message of love power and hope     Single by Chance, Mothers by Choice: How Women are Choosing Parenthood without Marriage and Creating the New American Family Rosanna Hertz,2006-10-01 A remarkable number of women today are taking the daunting step of having children outside of marriage In Single By Chance Mothers By Choice Rosanna Hertz offers the first full scale account of this fast growing phenomenon revealing why these middle class women took this unorthodox path and how they have managed to make single parenthood work for them Hertz interviewed 65 women ranging from physicians and financial analysts to social workers teachers and secretaries women who speak candidly about how they manage their lives and families as single mothers What Hertz discovers are not ideologues but reluctant revolutionaries women who whether straight or gay struggle to conform to the conventional definitions of mother child and family Having tossed out the rulebook in order to become mothers they nonetheless adhere to time honored rules about child rearing As they tell their stories they shed light on their paths to motherhood describing how they summoned up the courage to pursue their dream how they broke the news to parents siblings friends and co workers how they went about buying sperm from fertility banks or adopting children of different races They recount how their personal and social histories intersected to enable them to pursue their dream of motherhood and how they navigate daily life What does it mean to be single in terms of romance and parenting How do women juggle earning a paycheck with parenting What creative ways have women devised to shore up these families How do they incorporate men into their child centered families This book provides concrete informative answers to all these questions A unique window on the future of the family this book offers a gold mine of insight and reassurance for any woman contemplating this rewarding if unconventional step     The Virgin of Prince Street Sonja Livingston,2019-09-01 With organized religion becoming increasingly divisive and politicized and Americans abandoning their pews in droves it s easy to question aspects of traditional spirituality and devotion In response to this shifting landscape Sonja Livingston undertakes a variety of expeditions from a mobile confessional in Cajun Country to a eucharistic procession in Galway Ireland to the Death and Marigolds Parade in Albuquerque New Mexico and Mass in a county jail on Thanksgiving Day to better understand devotion in her own life The Virgin of Prince Street chronicles her quest offering an intimate and unusually candid view into Livingston s relationship with the swiftly changing Catholic Church and into her own changing heart Ultimately Livingston s meditations on quirky rituals and fading traditions thoughtfully and dynamically interrogate traditional elements of sacramental devotion especially as they relate to concepts of religion relationships and the sacred     My American Life

Price Cobbs, 2006-07-11 From the coauthor of Black Rage one of the 20th century's most profound examinations of race in America comes a memoir of struggle and triumph a moving portrait of the black experience Under My Bed and Other Essays Jody Keisner, 2022-09 Jody Keisner was raised in rural Nebraska towns by a volatile father and kind but passive mother As a young adult living alone for the first time she began a nighttime ritual of checking under her bed each night not sure who she was afraid of finding An intruder A monster Her father Keisner's fears mature as she becomes a wife and mother and the boogeyman under the bed shape shifts though its shapes are no less frightening a young aunt's drowning the chest chomp in the classic horror movie The Thing a diagnosis of a chronic autoimmune disease the murder of a young college student an eccentric grandmother's belief in reincarnation and her dying advice Don't be afraid In Under My Bed and Other Essays Jody Keisner searches for the roots of the violence and fear that afflict women starting with the working class midwestern family she was adopted into and ending with her own experience of mothering daughters In essays both literary and experimental Keisner illustrates the tension between the illusion of safety our desire for control and our struggle to keep the things we fear from reaching out and pulling us under This Jade World Ira Sukrungruang, 2021-10 2022 Book of the Year Award from the Chicago Writers Association 2022 Eric Hoffer Book Awards Finalist in Memoir 2021 Foreword Indies Finalist This Jade World centers on a Thai American who has gone through a series of life changes Ira Sukrungruang married young to an older poet On their twelfth anniversary he received a letter asking for a divorce sending him into a despairing spiral How would he define himself when he was suddenly without the person who shaped and helped mold him into the person he is After all these years he asked himself what he wanted and found no answer He did not even know what wanting meant And so in the year between his annual visits to Thailand to see his family he gave in to urges both physical and emotional found comfort in the body many bodies fought off the impulse to disappear to vanish until he arrived at some modicum of understanding During this time he sought to obliterate the stereotype of the sexless Asian man and began to imagine a new life with new possibilities Through ancient temples and the lush greenery of Thailand to the confines of a stranger's bed and a devouring couch This Jade World chronicles a year of mishap exploration and experimentation self discovery and eventually healing It questions the very nature of love and heartbreak uncovering the vulnerability of being human
