Faultlines Race Work And The Politics Of Changing Australia:

Fault Lines George Megalogenis, 2003 No Marketing Blurb Multiculturalism, Whiteness and Otherness in Australia Jon Stratton, 2020-07-17 This book examines the experience of race and ethnicity in Australia after the withering away of official multiculturalism The first chapter looks at the formation of the Australian state the role that multiculturalism has played and the impact of neoliberal ideas The second chapter takes nightclubbing in the city of Perth during the 1980s the peak period for official multiculturalism to exemplify how diversity and exclusion functioned in everyday life The third chapter considers the imbrication of Christianity in the Australian socio cultural order and its impact on the limits of multiculturalism with particular concentration on Islam and the Australian Muslim experience Subsequent chapters discuss the exclusionary experience of various groups identified as non white through the lens of films popular music and television programs

Australian Soul Gary Bouma, 2007-03-15 Australian Soul challenges the idea that religious and spiritual life in Australia is in decline This fascinating book describes the character of religious and spiritual life in Australia today and argues that far from petering out religion and spirituality are thriving Gary Bouma the leading expert on the state of religious life in Australia provides the most up to date facts and figures and compares the tone of Australian religious practices with those of other countries Australians might be less vocal and more reticent about their religion than Americans are but their religious and spiritual beliefs are no less potent Australian Soul describes and analyses our religious and spiritual life in detail as well as providing a series of case studies that illustrate the range of practices and beliefs in Australia today Australian Soul predicts a vital future for religion and spirituality

War Over Work Don Edgar, 2016-05-13 Many workers are caught in a spiral of longer hours growing job insecurity work stress and family conflict Many want to spend more time with their family but fear being labelled uncommitted The War Over Work is a bold and authoritative account of work patterns and the labour market in Australia As Edgar sees it the future workplace is a battleground with struggles between corporate need and private greed unions and employers men and women old and young The re election of the Howard Government promises to make these battles even more contested In this accessible and engaging book Edgar argues that we cannot continue to focus narrowly on the work family balance as though it can be achieved through simple programs within individual Australian workplaces The War Over Work provides a blueprint for how we can win the war to get a life that works Dr Don Edgar is a sociologist and influential public commentator He was foundation Director for 14 years of the Australian Institute of Family Studies Since then he has directed the innovative New Links Workplace Project and acted as consultant to governments and business on work family policies and programs His publications include Men Mateship Marriage and The Patchwork Nation Rethinking Government Rebuilding Community

Errington, 2008 A portrait of one of Australia's longest serving prime ministers this biography goes behind the public image to find neither the strong willed man of principle his supporters like to imagine nor the cunning opportunist painted by his foes The discussion covers Howard's suburban middle class upbringing and his success at implementing his policies concluding that although the image of the ordinary bloke has helped his enduring popularity he andmdash like George Bush andmdash possesses a number of uncommon strengths that have made him one of the most formidable leaders in Australian political history

The Shrinking Nation Graeme Turner, 2023-08-01 Over the past two decades Australia has been experiencing a sustained period of accelerated socio cultural change accompanied by existential threats from natural disasters and the Covid pandemic and punctuated by repeated cycles of political upheaval The divisive and hyper partisan version of party politics that has accompanied these events has hamstrung the nation's capacity to respond to the challenges of the day from dealing with climate change to advancing gender equity or to renovating the buckling structures of social welfare At the same time we have seen the quality of our democracy compromised In The Shrinking Nation leading cultural historian Graeme Turner examines a wide range of social and cultural change including the role played by a media environment swamped by misinformation the social consequences of neoliberal economic policy and the divisive legacy of the culture wars before considering how we might strengthen the bonds of community and belonging that tie our nation together

The Times Will Suit Them Geoff Boucher, 2020-07-23 John Howard said The times will suit me and they did For over a decade John Howard took advantage of international crises and local anxieties to not only stay in government but to radically reshape Australian public life The Times Will Suit Them digs behind the headlines to explain the success of Howard's radical new conservatism It shows how the Howard government and its small legion of culture warriors responded to deep changes engendered by two decades of economic reform by importing moral agendas from the US The result was a brand of deeply postmodern conservatism which undermined much that traditional conservatives hold dear From Hansonism to children overboard to the Intervention in the Northern Territory and beyond The Times Will Suit Them offers a fresh and provocative analysis from two Young Turks It is compelling reading for anyone seeking to understand the drivers in contemporary Australian politics

Howard Factor Nick Cater, 2015-05-01 John Howard's federal election victory over Paul Keating in 1996 was the start of a quiet revolution that changed Australia forever His critics told us he was a white picket fence conservative Little Johnnie Lazarus with a triple bypass Instead Howard has driven a decade of reform reinventing conservative politics and redefining the national debate In this long overdue assessment of the Howard years some of The Australian's leading commentators chart the seismic shift in politics society workplaces culture the economy trade and foreign affairs They describe how Howard has redrawn the political map turning the conservatives into reformers and forcing the progressives to defend the status quo Contributors to the book include Paul Kelly Steve Lewis Glenn Milne George Megalogenis Christopher Pearson Matt Price Dennis Shanahan Greg Sheridan Mike Steketee Alan Wood and cartoonist Bill

Leak Editor Nick Cater is a senior editorial executive at The Australian Reclaiming Patriotism Tim Soutphommasane, 2009-08-27 Affronted by the xenophobic nationalists who stalked the land during the Howard years many progressive Australians have rejected a love of country forgetting that there is a patriotism of the liberal left that at different times has advanced liberty egalitarianism and democratic citizenship Tim Soutphommasane a first generation Australian and political philosopher who has journeyed from Sydney s western suburbs to Oxford University re imagines patriotism as a generous sentiment of democratic renewal and national belonging In accessible prose he explains why our political leaders will need to draw upon the better angels of patriotism if they hope to inspire citizens for nation building and indeed persuade them to make sacrifices in the hard times ahead As we debate the twenty first century challenges of reconciliation and a republic citizenship and climate change Reclaiming Patriotism proposes a narrative we have to have Catch and Kill Joel Deane, 2015-07-01 Power is the only measure of a politician that matters how they win power how they use power how they lose power Catch and Kill is an inside account of the beguiling and nomadic nature of the unholy trinity of politics the winning the using the losing Joel Deane s gripping study of the politics of power takes us into the inner sanctum of state and national politics in Australia investigating how four friends Steve Bracks John Brumby John Thwaites and Rob Hulls beat the factions won office in Victoria then tried to hijack Canberra It delivers a slice of political gothic exploring the heart of the contemporary Labor Party in search of the nature of power Doing the Rights Thing Damien Spry, 2008-01-01 This book is about the current state of human rights and the advocacy campaigns to end various abuses to these rights It challenges views that give authority exclusively to the 1948 Universal Declaration of Human Rights and reductionist views that take the subsequently framed body of international human rights law as sacrosanct suggesting this this is an incomplete and therefore insufficient view of human rights that the struggle for human rights exists in historical political and cultural contexts that may variously challenge or lend support to perspectives on human rights The author presents three accounts to argue the case a brief historical overview of human rights a close reading of a key human rights organisation and accounts from a recent human rights campaign in Australia These examples suggest that smaller nimbler campaign organisations focused on concrete human rights outcomes can strategically and successfully employ discourses that are designed to fit with the local political and cultural settings Divided Nation? Murray Goot, Tim Rowse, 2007 An account of Australian public opinion about Aborigines and the political uses of public opinion research The authors portray the changes and continuities in Australians public opinion about indigenous Australians including their claims for recognition and for social justice

Trivial Pursuit George Megalogenis, 2010-11-01 In Trivial Pursuit George Megalogenis considers Australia s political dead zone The Hawke Keating and early Howard years were ones of bold reform recently we have seen an era of power without purpose But why Is it down to powerful lobbies or the media or a failure of leadership or all of the above And whatever the case how will hard decisions be taken for the future In Trivial Pursuit Megalogenis dissects the cycle of polls focus groups and presidential politics and what it has done to the prospect of serious difficult reform He argues that politics as usual has become a self defeating game and mounts a persuasive case for a different style of leadership From now on he argues it is the key divisions between young and old and north and south that will shape the nation s future But can a hung parliament and a pragmatic Labor leader rise to the challenge Rudd Gillard and Abbott sought power in 2010 on the same dangerous premise that no sacrifice is required to secure our future Government on this basis is never worth it because the promise of painless change can never be kept The voters knew it which is why they spared them selves the inevitable let down by hanging the parliament George Megalogenis Trivial Pursuit One of Australia s most incisive political analysts The Australian This issue also contains correspondence discussing Quarterly Essay 39 Power Shift from Gareth Evans Bruce Grant Michael Wesley Lyric Hughes Hale Robert D Kaplan Harry Gelber David Uren Hugh White Flag and Nation Elizabeth Kwan,2006-05-01 Ambiguity has marked the use of national flags in Australia since Federation The gaps in the documented history of the transition from Union Jack to Australian national flag has left Australians dependent on the views of groups arguing for and against flag change Flag and Nation explains Australians changing relationship to their national flags since 1901 and the perceptions of national identity they represent Quarterly Essay 41 The Happy Life David Malouf,2011-03-01 In The Happy Life David Malouf returns to one of the most fundamental questions and gives it a modern twist what makes for a happy life With grace and profundity Malouf discusses new and old ways to talk about contentment and the self In considering the happy life what it is and what makes it possible he returns to the highest wisdom of the classics looks at how thanks to Thomas Jefferson s way with words happiness became a right and examines joy in the flesh as depicted by Rubens and Rembrandt In a world become ever larger and impersonal he finds happiness in an unlikely place This is an essay to savour and reflect upon by one of Australia s greatest novelists How is it when the chief sources of human unhappiness of misery and wretchedness have largely been removed from our lives that happiness still eludes so many of us What is it in us or in the world we have created that continues to hold us back David Malouf The Happy Life Bread and Roses Dee Michell,Jacqueline Z. Wilson,Verity Archer,2015-06-26 Bread and Roses is an Australian first a collection of stories from academics who identify as coming from working class backgrounds At once inspiring and challenging the collection demonstrates how individual narratives are both personal and structural in that they illustrate the ways in which social forces shape individual lives Central themes in the book are generational changes in university education provision in Australia the complexities of coming from a working class background and being female or coming from a working class background and being female and a recent migrant and the particular challenges facing students and staff from rural and regional areas An essential read for anyone interested in widening participation programs in higher education including administrators academics past and present students Bread and Roses is both a map for those who want to undertake a similar journey and a community for those who want to join What Women Want Next Susan Maushart,2008-12-17 With all the choices available to today's women why don't they more feel fulfilled What Women Want Next is Susan Maushart's meditation by turns profound and laugh out loud funny on that central dilemma of postfeminist life At one point she had it all so why wasn't she happy With What Women Want Next Maushart combines research with personal history in a dynamic attempt to answer this question Feminism may have led women to life's banquet table but the meal they make of it is up to them How to balance life and work sex and sleep child care and self care And why has women's guilt that glass ceiling of the soul become the biggest barrier they face What Women Want Next is the first book to look at the spectrum of a woman's life and attempt to demonstrate how she can shape her own destiny throughout all its stages The Time of Their Lives Julie Kimber, Peter Love, Lyn Beaton, Margo Beasley, Drew Cottle, Angela Keys, Helen Masterman-Smith, Charles Fahey, John Lack, Patricia Grimshaw, Nell Musgrove, Shurlee Swain, Claire Higgins, Rob Hitchcock, Val Noone, Ben Maddison, Bobbie Oliver, Mikael Ottosson, Calle Rosengren, Kerry Taylor, Jeff Rich, Barbara Webster, 2007-07-01 On 21 April 1856 Melbourne building workers won an industry wide agreement to establish the Eight Hour Day In the 150 years since then the slogan Eight Hours Labour Eight Hours Recreation Eight Hours Rest has symbolised workers efforts to take control over the time of their lives and in doing so strike a civilised balance between work rest and play It was an assertion that they were not simply operatives in a labour market but also family members and citizens in what they hoped could become a civilised community This book offers historical perspectives on that continuing campaign to give readers a long term context for our current debates over the work life balance and power in the workplace Bring 'Em On Lee Artz, Yahya R. Kamalipour, 2004-12-10 How were the American people prepared for the war on Iraq How have political agents and media gatekeepers sought to develop public support for the first preventive war of the modern age Bring Em On highlights the complex links between media and politics analyzing how communication practices are modified in times of crisis to protect political interests or implement political goals International contributors in mass communication political science and sociology address how U S institutional media practices government policy and culture can influence public mobilization for war
