A True Story of Friendship, Football and Life Steve Rom, Rod Payne, 2006-10-01 Miracles can happen to anyone. Steve Rom, a sportswriter at the Ann Arbor News, never thought his friendship with a recently retired Super Bowl champion would last. Rod Payne, a member of the 2000 world champion Baltimore Ravens and a former All-America center at the University of Michigan, never thought the camaraderie he shared with his teammates in the NFL could be found with a rookie reporter. But when the two met by chance on Michigan's campus early in the summer of 2001, they discovered they had a lot in common.

Each was an only child raised by a working mother Both felt a loss growing up without a father around Despite pressure from their peers including Rod s former teammates and Steve s fellow writers to end their friendship athletes aren t supposed to get along with reporters after all their bond developed quickly When Steve took a short vacation to his native Los Angeles three days of severe flu like symptoms landed him in the hospital where he received the most devastating news of his life He was told he had leukemia Steve and Rod s friendship was about to change forever Skyhorse Publishing along with our Arcade Good Books Sports Publishing and Yucca imprints is proud to publish a broad range of biographies autobiographies and memoirs Our list includes biographies on well known historical figures like Benjamin Franklin Nelson Mandela and Alexander Graham Bell as well as villains from history such as Heinrich Himmler John Wayne Gacy and O J Simpson We have also published survivor stories of World War II memoirs about overcoming adversity first hand tales of adventure and much more While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller we are committed to books on subjects that are sometimes overlooked and to authors whose work might not otherwise find a home
