

Examples of Fable In Literature

EnglishLeaflet.com

Example 1.

"The Tortoise and the Hare" (Aesop Fable)

"A Hare was making fun of the Tortoise one day for being so slow. "Do you ever get anywhere?" he asked with a mocking laugh. "Yes," replied the Tortoise, "and I get there sooner than you think. I'll run you a race and prove it." The Hare thought this was a good joke, but he agreed to the race. The Hare marked off the distance and started them off. The Hare raced down the road for a while and then paused to rest. He looked back at the Tortoise and cried out, "How do you expect to win this race when you are walking along at your slow, slow pace?" And the Tortoise replied, "I'll win because I keep going steadily forward."

Example 2.

"The Ant and the Grasshopper" (La Fontaine Fable)

"In the winter a hungry grasshopper begs for food from ants who spent all summer collecting it. Though the idle grasshopper deserves to starve, one compassionate ant asks, "What were you doing all summer instead of storing food?" The grasshopper replies, "I was busy making beautiful music and enjoying life." So the ants ask, "Well then, why not entertain us with some of that beautiful music through the winter?"

Example 3.

"The Merchant of Venice" by Shakespeare

"All that glitters is not gold; Often have you heard that told: Many a man his life hath sold But my outside to behold: Gilded tombs do worms enfold."
