Gostin, 2005-11-16 In this collection of essays Lawrence O Gostin an internationally recognized scholar of AIDS law and policy confronts the most pressing and controversial issues surrounding AIDS in America and around the world He shows how HIV AIDS affects the entire population infected and uninfected by influencing our social norms our economy and our country's role as a world leader Now in the third decade of this pandemic the nation and the world still fail to respond to the needs of persons living with HIV AIDS and continue to tolerate injustice in their treatment Gostin argues AIDS both in the United States and globally deeply affects poor and marginalized populations and many U S policies are based on conservative moral values rather than public health and social justice concerns Gostin tackles the hard social legal political and ethical issues of the HIV AIDS pandemic privacy and discrimination travel and immigration clinical trials and drug pricing exclusion of HIV infected health care workers testing and treatment of pregnant women and infants and needle exchange programs This book provides an inside account of AIDS policy debates together with incisive commentary It is indispensable reading for advocates scholars health professionals lawyers and the concerned public Ethical Issues in Neurology James L. Bernat, 2008 Written by an eminent authority from the American Academy of Neurology's Committee on Ethics Law and Humanities this book is an excellent text for all clinicians interested in ethical decision making The book features outstanding presentations on dying and palliative care physician assisted suicide and voluntary active euthanasia medical futility and the relationship between ethics and the law New chapters in this edition discuss how clinicians resolve ethical dilemmas in practice and explore ethical issues in neuroscience research Other highlights include updated material on palliative sedation advance directives ICU withdrawal of life sustaining therapy gene therapy the very low birth weight premature infant the developmentally disabled patient informed consent organizational ethics brain death controversies and fMRI and PET studies relating to persistent vegetative state AIDS Litigation Project Lawrence O. Gostin, Lane Porter, Hazel Sandomire, 1990 The Moral Psychology of Fear Ami Harbin, 2025-09-18 The Moral Psychology of Fear brings together contemporary philosophers to consider how fear can shape or compromise moral motivation and in particular the ways in which fear might motivate morally and politically troubling actions for individuals and communities While the topics addressed by the chapters vary widely the contributors share a commitment to analyzing the moral significance of fear for motivation action and responsibility in novel and creative ways Edited by Ami Harbin the volume is divided into four parts In Part I authors lay the groundwork for new philosophical analyses of fear by establishing some theoretical considerations about the connection of fear to injustice and the scope of what kinds of experiences count as fear Part II turns to everyday experiences of fear like fear of missing out and fear of one's own death that can have surprising moral implications Part III delves into the way fears have been present in contexts of climate and public health crisis Part IV offers reflections on the complex position of fear in some of the most charged political issues facing communities migration political polarization violence and oppressive ideologies more broadly

Kanki, Richard G. Marlink, Sheila D. Tlou, 2007-05-08 This comprehensive reference book addresses the unique challenges facing many African nations as poor infrastructure and economics continue to obstruct access to advanced treatments and AIDS care training It takes into account the context of settings with limited resources Information on how to best utilize existing resources and prioritize scaling up of infrastructure is a critical aspect of this book for those working in HIV AIDS related fields in Africa Medical and Psychosocial Aspects of Chronic Illness and Disability Donna R. Falvo, 2005 A comprehensive text that provides easy to understand explanations of medical aspects of common chronic illnesses and disabilities ABA Journal, 1998-08 The ABA Journal serves the legal profession Qualified recipients are lawyers and judges law students law librarians and associate members of the American Bar Association 'Ending AIDS' in the Age of Biopharmaceuticals Tony Sandset, 2020-09-02 This book considers the change in rhetoric surrounding the treatment of AIDS from one of crisis to that of ending AIDS Exploring what it means to end AIDS and how responsibility is framed in this new discourse the author considers the tensions generated between the individual and the state in terms of notions such as risk responsibility and prevention Based on analyses public health promotions in the UK and the US HIV prevention science and engaging with the work of Foucault this volume argues that the discourse of ending AIDS implies a tension filled space in which global principles and values may clash with localised needs values and concerns in which evidence based policies strive for hegemony over local tacit and communal regimes of knowledge and in which desires compete with national and international ideas about what is best for the individual in the name of ending AIDS writ large As such it will appeal to scholars of sociology and media studies with interests in the sociology of medicine and health medical communication and health policy Medical Negligence:

Non-Patient and Third Party Claims Rachael Mulheron, 2016-04-29 Healthcare professionals face an increasing threat of litigation from parties whom they have never met in their daily medical practice and who look nothing like the traditional patient The so called non patient may take many forms for example a person who is injured or killed by a mentally ill physically disabled or diseased patient a wrongfully accused parent in a child neglect abuse case or a local authority which is put to the expense of caring for a negligently treated patient This book explores the legal principles and conundrums which arise when determining a healthcare professional's liability in negligence towards a wide variety of non patients The topic is assuming increasing legal importance and relevance given the potential for many non patient claims to give rise to class actions litigation and in light of the legislative and human rights interventions and the frequent appellate judicial consideration which non patient claims have attracted in recent times The aim of the book is to have utility for both legal and medical professionals for academics and students of comparative medical negligence and tort law and for law reformers who may be interested in adopting certain features of statutory models elsewhere which pertain to some non patient claims such as those based upon Good Samaritan conduct Important parallels or counterpoints from other common law jurisdictions in which courts and commentators have grappled with the legal complexities of non patient claims are also discussed and critically analyzed Scaling Up Treatment for the Global AIDS Pandemic Institute of Medicine, Board on Global Health, Committee on Examining the Probable Consequences of Alternative Patterns of Widespread Antiretroviral Drug Use in Resource-Constrained Settings, 2004-11-24 An estimated forty million people carry the human immunodeficiency virus HIV and five million more become newly infected annually In recent years many HIV infected patients in wealthy nations have enjoyed significantly longer good quality lives as a result of antiretroviral therapy ART However most infected individuals live in the poorest regions of the world where ART is virtually nonexistent The consequent death toll in these regions especially sub Saharan Africa is begetting economic and social collapse To inform the multiple efforts underway to deploy antiretroviral drugs in resource poor settings the Institute of Medicine committee was asked to conduct an independent review and assessment of rapid scale up ART programs It was also asked to identify the components of effective implementation programs At the heart of the committee's report lie five imperatives Immediately introduce and scale up ART programs in resource poor settings Devise strategies to ensure high levels of patient adherence to complicated treatment regimens Rapidly address human resource shortages to avoid the failure of program implementation Continuously monitor and evaluate the programs to form the most effective guidelines and treatment regimens for each population Prepare to sustain ART for decades Counselling for Maternal and Newborn Health Care World Health Organization, 2010 The main aim of this practical Handbook is to strengthen counselling and communication skills of skilled attendants SAs and other health providers helping them to effectively discuss with women families and communities the key issues surrounding pregnancy childbirth postpartum postnatal and post abortion care Counselling for Maternal and Newborn Health Care is divided into three main sections Part 1 is an introduction which describes the aims and objectives and the general layout of the Handbook Part 2 describes the counselling process and outlines the six key steps to effective counselling It explores the counselling context and factors that influence this context including the socio economic gender and cultural environment A series of guiding principles is introduced and specific counselling skills are outlined Part 3 focuses on different maternal and newborn health topics including general care in the home during pregnancy birth and emergency planning danger signs in pregnancy post abortion care support during labor postnatal care of the mother and newborn family planning counselling breastfeeding women with HIV AIDS death and bereavement women and violence linking with the community Each Session contains specific aims and objectives clearly outlining the skills that will be developed and corresponding learning outcomes Practical activities have been designed to encourage reflection provoke discussions build skills and ensure the local relevance of information There is a review at the end of each session to ensure the SAs have understood the key points before they progress to subsequent sessions
