Melvin E. Matthews, Jr., 2009-07-15 This book demonstrates how horror films of the 1930s and 1940s reflected specific events and personalities of the era most notably the Great Depression and World War II Beginning with Dracula and Frankenstein 1931 it relates the many ways that horror films and society intersected Franklin D Roosevelt s skepticism toward conventional wisdom and the public s distrust of experts was mirrored in Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde and Murders in the Rue Morgue the freaks in Tod Browning s 1932 film of the same name revolted against the powerful people of the circus much like the Bonus Army protested the sufferings of the Depression King Kong s rampage on New York personified the anti New York sentiment in the nation at large Lon Chaney Jr s Wolf Man symbolized the experience of his creator Curt Siodmak as a Jewish refugee from Nazi Germany Fear Itself, 2010-01-01 What are fear horror and terror This question central to our endeavour cannot be answered by one unified voice It always cracks falters and fades before it can fully enunciate its proclamation We the authors know this and have planned accordingly This volume presents meditations on this issue springing from the four corners of intellectual inquiry Each author provides a distinctive approach with which to address the issue at hand Literary theory psychoanalysis media studies political science and many more disciplines occupy the same space between the covers of this book We hope that through the cacophony of our diversity we will fill in the inevitable gaps when our voices fall short The Quote Verifier Ralph Keyes, 2007-04-01 Our language is full of hundreds of quotations that are often cited but seldom confirmed Ralph Keyes s The Quote Verifier considers not only classic misquotes such as Nice guys finish last and Play it again Sam but more surprising ones such as Ain t I a woman and Golf is a good walk spoiled as well as the origins of popular sayings such as The opera ain t over till the fat lady sings No one washes a rented car and

Make my day Keyes's in depth research routinely confounds widespread assumptions about who said what where and when Organized in easy to access dictionary form The Quote Verifier also contains special sections highlighting commonly misquoted people and genres such as Yogi Berra and Oscar Wilde famous last words and misremembered movie lines An invaluable resource for not just those with a professional need to quote accurately but anyone at all who is interested in the roots of words and phrases The Quote Verifier is not only a fascinating piece of literary sleuthing but also a great read

Feeling in Theory Rei Terada, 2009-07-01 Because emotion is assumed to depend on subjectivity the death of the subject described in recent years by theorists such as Derrida de Man and Deleuze would also seem to mean the death of feeling This revolutionary work transforms the burgeoning interdisciplinary debate on emotion by suggesting instead a positive relation between the death of the subject and the very existence of emotion Reading the writings of Derrida and de Man theorists often seen as emotionally contradictory and cold Terada finds grounds for construing emotion as nonsubjective This project offers fresh interpretations of deconstruction's most important texts and of Continental and Anglo American philosophers from Descartes to Deleuze and Dennett At the same time it revitalizes poststructuralist theory by deploying its methodologies in a new field the philosophy of emotion to reach a startling conclusion if we really were subjects we would have no emotions at all Engaging debates in philosophy literary criticism psychology and cognitive science from a poststructuralist and deconstructive perspective Terada's work is essential for the renewal of critical thought in our day

How to Overcome Death Glen C. Cutlip, 2000-02-28 The overcoming of death is a serious undertaking because death is a part of the nature one's being and therefore not what it appears to be When Death is reconciled with life it becomes a means of interdimensional travel We realize that it wasn't there in the first place Therefore the overcoming of death is to take place within one's present consciousness for death is the counterpart of life in the first place Therefore the resurrection unto life is from the death that is hidden in life It is the dead that appear to be living that are resurrected unto life Death is something that is a part of ones present consciousness not something off somewhere in the so called afterlife The resurrection of the dead is unto conscious life or immortality or back into the realm of unconscious death for life and death occupy the same space It is a matter of seeing death as it is not just as it appears to be In that death is not what it appears to be the overcoming of death is not what it appears to be Therefore it is a real possibility It can be realized within ones lifetime The Overcoming of Death is the means of bringing the realization of conscious immortality to the awareness of ones present consciousness in this lifetime It reveals why it is that losing life is finding it and how it is that it is the dead that are living that hear the voice of the Son of God and are resurrected from the dead

Our New Human Consciousness Terry Sands,2011-05-12 Every few thousand years our human culture experiences a massive evolutionary transformation In the next few years our consciousness will change very rapidly and move us beyond anything we can presently imagine This change of consciousness is happening naturally to each of us now and it will affect every aspect of how we think how we live and how we love We are a culture in search of its spirit and this change of consciousness is evolutionarily next for humankind on this planet When the awareness opens one may search many avenues and attractions for truth and enlightenment and find the search lacking in result The next step may be the path of Self discovery But the direction on this path will not be given to us by a great teacher who comes down from the mountaintop with answers cast in stone but rather by lots of little great teachers who could be called pathfinders And to move into this new consciousness we will transform the mind and the way it works with new mental skills and mental technology Our success is inevitable The ease or difficulty with which we achieve this success is still in formation We will survive the transition physically The question is whether we will survive psychologically Psychological survival in this transition depends on only one thing Developing the ability and inner discipline to completely instantaneously unquestioningly and continuously adapt to change

Aging for Beginners Ezra Bayda,2018-11-20 We all grow old This book teaches us how to take advantage of a new phase of life a phase of renewal and inner exploration We re all beginners when it comes to aging And although the fact that we are in new territory can certainly contribute to the difficulties in dealing with getting older it can also have a very positive side Aging can be seen as a new phase of our life a phase of renewal Nowhere is this more evident than in our opportunity to devote more time to reflection and inner exploration The result regardless of whatever physical limitations we may be experiencing is the possibility of cultivating and living increasingly from kindness and gratitude two of the essential qualities of a life of satisfaction and equanimity With techniques that are both simple and richly unfolded this book will help readers learn the subtle art of being with pain uncover the fears that amplify suffering tap into the true sources of meaningfulness and joy Winner of the Spirituality Practice Best Book Award in 2019

Love and Saint Augustine Hannah Arendt,1996 During the late 1950s and early 1960s as she was completing or reworking her most influential studies of political life Arendt was simultaneously annotating and revising her dissertation on Augustine amplifying its argument with terms and concepts she was using in her political works of the same period     Militarization and the American Century David Fitzgerald, 2022-01-13 Taking American mobilization in WWII as its departure point this book offers a concise but comprehensive introduction to the history of militarization in the United States since 1940 Exploring the ways in which war and the preparation for war have shaped and affected the United States during The American Century Fitzgerald demonstrates how militarization has moulded relations between the US and the rest of the world Providing a timely synthesis of key scholarship in a rapidly developing field this book shows how national security concerns have affected issues as diverse as the development of the welfare state infrastructure spending gender relations and notions of citizenship It also examines the way in which war is treated in the American imagination how it has been depicted throughout this era why its consequences have been made largely invisible and how Americans have often considered themselves to be reluctant warriors In integrating domestic histories with international and transnational topics such as the American empire of bases and the experience of American service personnel overseas the author outlines the ways in which American militarization had and still has global consequences Of interest to scholars researchers and students of military history war studies US foreign relations and policy this book addresses a burgeoning and dynamic field from which parallels and comparisons can be drawn for the modern day
