Gonzo Republic William Stephenson, 2011-11-17 Gonzo Republic looks at Hunter S. Thompson's complex relationship with America Thompson was a patriot but also a stubborn individualist Stephenson examines the whole range of Thompson's work from his early reporting from the South American client states of the USA in the 1960s to his twenty first century internet columns on sport politics and 9/11 Stephenson argues that Thompson inhabited but was to some extent reacting against the tradition of American individualism begun by the Founding Fathers and continued by Emerson and Thoreau Thompson sought out the edge the threshold of chaos and insanity in order to define himself His characters enact the same quest travelling through the surreal landscape of his literary America the Gonzo Republic

Achieving Consilience Margherita Dore, 2016-04-26 At Master's level students in Translation Studies may choose to complete their course by compiling a dissertation by commentary Such projects involve detailed discussions of the strategies and procedures that students opt for when translating a source text of their choice be it literary audiovisual or technical However the vast majority of these dissertations by commentary usually remain stored in university libraries Achieving Consilience Translation Theories and Practice brings to the fore the theoretical and practical potential of these dissertations by commentary It demonstrates how theories in Translation Studies can be fruitfully consciously and systematically applied during the translation practice thus helping to transcend the received wisdom according to which theorists and practitioners share little common ground Additionally the contributors to this volume evince their ability to apply a research driven approach to their analysis by comparing their work with official translations or other field related texts As such this essay collection will contribute to a better understanding of the translator's decision making process and will offer future students valuable guidelines regarding the procedure normally followed in completing a dissertation by commentary
