regret different from other backward looking emotions In The Moral Psychology of Regret scholars from several disciplines including philosophy gender studies disability studies law and neuroscience come together to address these and other questions related to this ubiquitous emotion that so many of us seem to dread And while regret has been somewhat under theorized as a subject worthy of serious and careful attention this volume is offered with the intent of expanding the discourse on regret as an emotion of great moral significance that underwrites how we understand ourselves and each other

Do I Look Fat In This? Rhonda Britten, 2007-03-06 The author of Change Your Life in 30 Days and Fearless Living confronts that nagging question from the inside out As a Life Coach on the Emmy Award winning daytime reality show Starting Over Rhonda Britten has helped countless women befriend their bodies first by encouraging them to face and accept what they see in the mirror and then by empowering them to make healthier decisions about their weight In Do I Look Fat in This Rhonda shares her personal story of body confidence and the stories of many of the women who have reached out to her With Rhonda's encouragement and advice people can find the courage and inspiration they need to move from disliking their bodies to celebrating them from seeing them as objects of shame to considering them their own best friends The World's Fearlessness Teachings R. Michael Fisher, 2010 The World's Fearlessness Teachings addresses the human fear problem in a truly unique and insightful way summarizing the teaching on fearlessness from around the world and throughout history The author then utilizes critical integral theory a la Wilber as an approach to categorize the developmental and evolutionary spectrum of fear management systems known thus far The author has spent twenty years researching the timely topic of fear and how to best manage and transform it From this experience he offers an educational healing vision to address the challenges of a dangerous 21st century Fear's empire has taken rule It is time to resist it using the best intelligence from both sacred and secular traditions as well as the transformational theories humanity has to offer R Michael Fisher maps out ten fear management systems that will benefit future positive leaders everywhere Book jacket Philosophy of Fearism

Desh Subba, R. Michael Fisher, 2016-01-15 This book is about a new philosophy that takes a specific focus on see the critical historical and everyday importance of the nature and role of fear in human existence We seem to be at a time when fear has taken the lead and we are not yet able to understand it and manage it well enough It is causing major problems from wars to terrorism to deterioration of our institutions which are operating in a culture of fear Our health is deteriorating under the excess of fear in the world today No other philosophy not rationalism existentialism or pragmatism etc has given this focus to fear as does the philosophy of fearism It is an original synthesis of an Eastern philosophy of fearism developed by Desh Subba from Nepal and a Western philosophy of fearlessness developed by R Michael Fisher The book brings forth their unified vision of a Fearless Age that awaits humanity if we better learn how to manage fear and teach about it with a new lens Subba calls this a fearist lens and Fisher calls it a fearlessness lens Together working independently for the past 20 years they each have recently met to collaborate on this global project and movement as one philosophy of fearism This is an essential text for leaders students parents professionals and diverse people Although it is not a self help book it goes deeper into helping our entire societies transform their relationship to fear and fearlessness A must read for those who love philosophy and thinking critically about the 21st century      Shaping the Future William P.
