Barrett Jones,2022-07-04 This book relates in particular to the Javanese inscriptions of the period A D 901 929 a time of special interest because of the transfer of royal government from Central to East Java With the aid of inscriptions from this period as well as before and after it is possible to draw tentative conclusions which seek the explanation for this shift not so much in the area of political but of socio economic history This is the first study to pay attention to the role of socio economic factors in early Javanese history By examining the Old Javanese inscriptions in detail it is possible to produce valuable information on trade merchandise and merchants on the administrative system as it affected the change in the country side the sima and the wat k and on the many officials who were involved in the carrying out the king s orders as the affected the change in tax status of a foundation The book contains full lists of various categories of items from the inscriptions which provide a basis for the renewed study of Old Javanese epigraphic materials Tales from the Caribbean Trish

Cooke,2017-08-03 A collection of favourite tales gathered from the many different islands of the Caribbean one of the world s richest sources of traditional storytelling From the very first Kingfisher to Anansi the Spider Man these lively retellings full of humour and pathos are beautifully retold by Trish Cooke The book includes endnotes with a glossary additional information as well as ideas for activities that children can do to explore the stories further A Feast of Fish Ian McAndrew,1987

The Hypotyposis of the Monastery of the Theotokos Evergetis, Constantinople (11th-12th Centuries) R. H. Jordan,Rosemary Morris,2016-03-03 This book forms part of the Evergetis Project which aims to investigate all surviving texts associated with the Monastery of the Theotokos Evergetis founded in 1049 near Constantinople A book length introduction sets out the historical significance of the house for the development of Byzantine monasticism and discusses its administration liturgy and way of life An English translation of the Hypotyposis the monastery's foundation document is provided accompanied by detailed notes Previous scholarship on the authorship of the Hypotyposis and the evolution of the text is discussed and linguistic analysis used to suggest that traces of the original foundation document by Paul Evergetinos can be identified within it The Hypotyposis was widely used as a model for later Byzantine and Slavonic typika and the precise relationship of these documents one to the other is demonstrated in detail The volume also includes prosopographical material on the known patrons of the monastery a discussion of its library English translations of later Greek and Latin texts referring to the monastery and a suggested reconstruction of Paul Evergetinos original foundation document      Hearings United States. use an asbestos tablecloth at his feasts and Where did the current craze for the elegant Japanese Kaiseki meal begin Fletcher answers these questions and many more while inviting readers to a feasting table that extends all the way from Charlemagne's castle to her own millennium feast in Scotland This is an eclectic collection of food and feasts from the flamboyant to the eccentric the delicious to the disgusting and sometimes just the touchingly ordinary For anyone who has ever sat down at a banquet dining table and wondered Why Nichola Fletcher provides the delicious answer in a book that is a feast all its own

Chinese History and Literature J. Prusek, 2012-12-06 The studies contained in this volume arose over the last thirty years Originally the range of the materials I intended to include in my selection was very much wider Publishing difficulties however have obliged me to curtail them to something less than half the planned content At first I intended to include all the studies I supposed might be of interest to readers and represent contributions still of some significance for research in this domain of Oriental scholarship When the necessity arose to limit the contents I gave preference to the standpoint of thematic completeness rather than to what would be of interest to the general reader Thus in this volume I have confined myself to two thematic fields only Old Chinese literature and studies dealing with mediaeval storytellers' productions hua pen I have excluded the whole complex of historical studies and all studies relating to the new literature I am now preparing on the principal historical theme on which I was engaged already in the period of my studies in Prague under Prof J Bidlo and then in 1928 till 1930 with Prof B Karlgren in Sweden and Prof G Haloun in Halle in Germany a more compendious study in which I hope to sum up the results of my research and I also intend to publish a volume of selected studies dealing with the New Chinese literature at some later date
