Feasting In The Forest:

Food and Feast in Premodern Outlaw Tales Melissa Ridley Elmes, Kristin Bovaird-Abbo, 2021-04-07 In Food and Feast in Premodern Outlaw Tales editors Melissa Ridley Elmes and Kristin Bovaird Abbo gather eleven original studies examining scenes of food and feasting in premodern outlaw texts ranging from the tenth through the seventeenth centuries and forward to their cinematic adaptations Along with fresh insights into the popular Robin Hood legend these essays investigate the intersections of outlawry food studies and feasting in Old English Middle English and French outlaw narratives Anglo Scottish border ballads early modern ballads and dramatic works and cinematic medievalism The range of critical and disciplinary approaches employed including history literary studies cultural studies food studies gender studies and film studies highlights the inherently interdisciplinary nature of outlaw narratives The overall volume offers an example of the ways in which examining a subject through interdisciplinary cross geographic and cross temporal lenses can yield fresh insights places canonic and well known works in conversation with lesser known texts to showcase the dynamic nature and cultural influence and impact of premodern outlaw tales and presents an introductory foray into the intersection of literary and food studies in premodern contexts which will be of value and interest to specialists and a general audience alike

The Maasai of Matapato Paul Spencer, 2004-03 This study pioneered the relation of the dynamics of the Maasai age organization to tensions within the family Together these provide the twin strands of a man's career opposed ritually and reflecting a fundamental ambivalence in Maasai thought This analysis is illustrated with case material from the Matapato a typical Maasai group

Raiding, Trading, and Feasting Laura L. Junker, 1999-09-01 As early as the first millennium A D the Philippine archipelago formed the easternmost edge of a vast network of Chinese Southeast Asian Indian and Arab traders Items procured through maritime trade became key symbols of social prestige and political power for the Philippine chiefly elite Raiding Trading and Feasting presents the first comprehensive analysis of how participation in this trade related to broader changes in the political economy of these Philippine island societies By combining archaeological evidence with historical sources Laura Junker is able to offer a more nuanced examination of the nature and evolution of Philippine maritime trading chiefdoms Most importantly she demonstrates that it is the dynamic interplay between investment in the maritime luxury goods trade and other evolving aspects of local political economies rather than foreign contacts that led to the cyclical coalescence of larger and more complex chiefdoms at various times in Philippine history A broad spectrum of historical and ethnographic sources ranging from tenth century Chinese tributary trade records to turn of the century accounts of chiefly feasts of merit highlights both the diversity and commonality in evolving chiefly economic strategies within the larger political landscape of the archipelago The political ascendance of individual polities the emergence of more complex forms of social ranking and long term changes in chiefly economies are materially documented through a synthesis of archaeological research at sites dating from the Metal Age late first millennium B C to the colonial period The author draws on her archaeological fieldwork in the Tanjay River basin to investigate the long term dynamics of chiefly political economy in a single region Reaching beyond the Philippine archipelago this study contributes to the larger anthropological debate concerning ecological and cultural factors that shape political economy in chiefdoms and early states It attempts to address the question of why Philippine polities like early historic kingdoms elsewhere in Southeast Asia have a segmentary political structure in which political leaders are dependent on prestige goods exchanges personal charisma and ritual pageantry to maintain highly personalized power bases Raiding Trading and Feasting is a volume of impressive scholarship and substantial scope unmatched in the anthropological and historical literature It will be welcomed by Pacific and Asian historians and anthropologists and those interested in the theoretical issues of chiefdoms Between Feast and Famine

John Nott, 2025-03-18 Ghana's twentieth century was one of dramatic political economic and environmental change Sparked initially by the impositions of colonial rule these transformations had significant if rarely uniform repercussions for the determinants of good and bad nutrition All across this new and uneven polity food production domestic reproduction gender relations and food cultures underwent radical and rapid change This volatile national history was matched only by the scientific instability of nutritional medicine during these same years Moving between the dry Northern savannah the mineral rich and food secure Southern rainforest and the youthful ever expanding cities Between Feast and Famine is a comparative history of nutrition in Ghana since the end of the nineteenth century At the heart of this story is an analysis of how an uneven capitalist transformation variously affected the lives of women and children It traces the change from sporadic periods of hunger in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries through epidemics of childhood malnutrition during the twentieth century and into emergent epidemics of diet related non communicable disease in the twenty first century Employing a novel critical approach to historical epidemiology John Nott argues that detailing the co production of science and its subjects in the past is essential for understanding and improving health in the present Praise for Between Feast and Famine This is a tour de force Ghana was an important site for the development of nutritional science in the colonial period as well as a site for its application It is therefore central to the history of a global nutritional science Not only has John Nott pieced together a complex history of that changing science and its application in Ghana in the twentieth century he has also provided a carefully constructed analysis of what was actually happening in terms of food supply health and nutrition in Ghana in this period Few other works manage to do both these things Megan Vaughan Professor of African History and Health Institute of Advanced Studies UCL Feast, Famine or Fighting? Richard J. Feast of the Mother Miranda Honfleur, Nicolette Andrews, 2019-07-27 Perfect for fans of The Bear and the Nightingale and Uprooted this beautifully dark folk fantasy follows a young witch as she answers the call of her ancestors beneath the looming threat of witch hunts in a mythic world of magic mystery and romance A witch A tryst A curse Beneath the murky waters of the lake an ancient being slumbers and Brygida is its servant Kept sheltered in the woods by her mothers from the nearby village Brygida has never had so much as a friend until the day she meets a charming stranger painting by the lake He invites her to the village s harvest feast but her taste of the forbidden ends with a murder Called into service for the first time Brygida must take up her ancestral duty as Reaper of Death and solve the murder within three days If she brings the murderer to the lake on the third day the being she serves will be sated If she fails Brygida herself will be drawn beneath the murky waters and the village massacred There s only one problem the main suspect is her charming painter Kaspian As Brygida investigates the dangers are many and answers few The village and her family stand against her and with time running short the lake demands a price Brygida believes Kaspian is innocent but can she stake her life on it when failure means condemning the rest of the village and being dragged into the deep Find out what lurks beneath the lake in FEAST OF THE MOTHER the first volume of a trilogy inspired by Polish folklore and Slavic mythology perfect for fantasy fans who enjoy a detailed dark fantasy world tales of powerful women ancient gods and demons and a slow burn sweet romance Pick up Feast of the Mother to begin the beautifully haunting adventure today

The Primal Feast Susan Allport, 2016-06-28 Food makes the world go around according to this absorbing account of how the search for food has shaped human nature It is more important than love or sex for the simple reason that food is harder to find than a mate Think of it this way says Allport who draws on the research of anthropologists and biologists in presenting her fascinating and provocative theories Mates are often willing accomplices in the act of mating food is never a willing accomplice in the act of eating

MEDITATIONS After the Bear Feast N. Scott Momaday, Yuri Vaella, 2016-06-15 This important engaging book records the first acquaintance of poets from American Indian and Native Siberian cultures as they come to recognize their similar cultures life ways and reverence for the natural world The poetic dialogues contain a mutual recognition of kinsmen across centuries of mutual isolation Perhaps their chief value is the declaration of fundamental human values expressing the authors deepest aspirations as spokesmen for traditional cultures As Alexander Vashchenko concludes in his commentary This poetic calling forth offers an important lesson to all of us who live from day to day with confused priorities without a thought to eternity who forsake our original nature our distant ancient kinsman the Bear that mighty spirit of Mother Nature and powerful symbol of our enormous universal nation The Foreword Afterword supplementary notes and Editor s Note limn the historical and
