Thomas Inge, Charles Reagan Wilson, 2014-02-01 Offering a comprehensive view of the South's literary landscape past and present this volume of The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture celebrates the region's ever flourishing literary culture and recognizes the ongoing evolution of the southern literary canon. As new writers draw upon and reshape previous traditions, southern literature has broadened and deepened its connections not just to the American literary mainstream but also to world literatures, a development thoughtfully explored in the essays here. Greatly expanding the content of the literature section in the original Encyclopedia, this volume includes 31 thematic essays addressing major genres of literature, theoretical categories such as regionalism, the southern gothic, and agrarianism, and themes in southern writing such as food, religion, and sexuality. Most striking is the fivefold increase in the number of biographical entries, which introduce southern novelists, playwrights, poets, and critics. Special attention is given to contemporary writers and other individuals who have not been widely covered in previous scholarship.

After Midnight In Savannah B. Forrest Spink, 2005. Convicted of murdering his mother in Savannah, Georgia, in 1991, Jim Martin still maintains that it was his female impersonator drug supplier who actually killed her. Martin's aunt claims that the Nazarene minister, mother, and rebellious homosexual son were doomed to a showdown.

Growing Up Gay in the South James Sears, 2014-03-18. This groundbreaking new book weaves personal portraits of lesbian and gay Southerners with interdisciplinary commentary about the impact of culture, race, and gender on the development of sexual identity. Growing Up Gay in the South is an important book that focuses on the distinct features of Southern life. It will enrich your understanding of the unique pressures faced by gay men and lesbians in this region: the pervasiveness of fundamental religious beliefs, the acceptance of racial, gender, and class community boundaries, the importance of family name and family honor, the unbending view of appropriate childhood behaviors, and the intensity of adolescent culture. You will learn what it is like to grow up gay in the South as these Southern lesbians and gay men candidly share their attitudes and feelings about themselves, their families, their schooling, and their search for a sexual identity. These insightful biographies illustrate the diversity of persons who identify themselves as gay or lesbian and depict the range of prejudice and problems they have encountered as sexual rebels. Not just a simple compilation of coming out stories, this landmark volume is a human testament to the process of social questioning in the search for psychological wholeness, examining the personal and social significance of acquiring a lesbian or gay identity within the Southern culture. Growing Up Gay in the South combines intriguing personal biographies with the extensive use of scholarship from lesbian and gay studies, Southern history, and literature, and educational thought and practice. These features, together with an extensive bibliography and appendices of data, make this essential reading for educators and other professionals working with gay and lesbian youth.

Time's Wallet Steve Katz, 2010. Literary Nonfiction Memoir. Time's Wallet is a memoir written in discrete pieces, memoir-rhoids. The 54 short bits cover the variety and extent of a life from 1935 to the present, from Manhattan by various routes to Denver, Colorado. The work presents itself not as a narrative arc but as memory itself, occurring in brief stories rising more or less at random in the mind. Each remembered narrative is allowed to resolve itself through its own form, and that variety creates a different overall texture Each of the stories is transparent in itself but they add up to a fertile opacity that is the ineluctable vitality of a life and the impenetrable presence the here it is of art Desire and the Divine Kathaleen E. Amende, 2013-06-10 Explores the works and lives of late 20th century southern women writers Rosemary Daniell Connie May Fowler Lee Smith Sheri Reynolds Dorothy Allison and Valerie Martin to show how conservative Christian ideals of femininity shaped notions of religion sexuality and power and how they and their characters grappled with opposing cultural expectations The One Voice of James Dickey James Dickey, 2005 The second volume of the letters and life of James Dickey This volume chronicles Dickey's career from the publication of Deliverance through his poetic experimentation in The Eye Beaters Blood Victory Madness Buckhead and Mercy and Puella Includes correspondence with Saul Bellow Arthur Schlesinger and Robert Penn Warren Provided by publisher Black and Catholic in Savannah, Georgia Gary W. McDonogh, 1993 In this unique ethnography of urban southern Catholicism one of the few substantial studies of modern African American Catholics since the 1920s Gary W. McDonogh employs a decade of anthropological and historical research to explore the contradictions and survival of black and Catholic parishes in Savannah Given the disfranchisement of African Americans in the South as well as nativist responses to Catholics among both blacks and whites those who are black and Catholic in Savannah constitute a double minority whose lives McDonogh explores by examining the interaction of community church and individual A city divided for two centuries by conflicts over culture class and race Savannah is permeated by ambiguous identities that often end up before the altar Religion thus serves as a cultural language through which urban life can be observed as well as a system of belief and identity shared by blacks and Catholics This multidisciplinary study links ethnography to wider debates on symbolism gender class and cultural power The vivid voices memories ritual and social acts and observations of Savannah provide the basis for comparative insights and theoretical generalizations on communities within the United States and on a broad range of urban and religious issues
