Shepherdson, 2004 This major new collection identifies the critical and theoretical concepts which have been most significant in the study of film and presents a historical and intellectual context for the material examined Women and Romance Laurie Langbauer, 2018-03-15 No detailed description available for Women and Romance Paul and Image Philip Erwin, 2020-09-29 In Paul and Image Philip Erwin challenges conventional interpretations of 1 Corinthians that tend to overlook the significance of ancient Roman visual culture in framing and posing exegetical questions He argues that in 1 Corinthians Paul engaged in a long standing philosophical discussion of visual representation with consequential implications for how he and his Corinthian addressees interacted with the imagery around them By situating Paul's letter in the context of the critical discourse on visual representation from Plato to Philo to the Second Sophistic Erwin redefines Paul's critique of human wisdom treatment of idols and resurrection discourse in visual terms Someone Beautiful to God Chu Ilo, Stan, 2020 Someone Beautiful to God conveys the commonality of our human experience and the spiritual bond that holds us together as one family French Political Travel Writing in the Interwar Years Martyn Cornick, Martin Hurcombe, Angela Kershaw, 2017-02-10 This book studies travel writing produced by French authors between the two World Wars following visits to authoritarian regimes in Europe and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics USSR It sheds new light on the phenomenon of French political travel in this period by considering the well documented appeal of Soviet communism for French intellectuals alongside their interest in other radical regimes which have been much less studied fascist Italy the Iberian dictatorships and Nazi Germany Through analyses of the travel writing produced as a result of such visits the book gauges the appeal of these forms of authoritarianism for inter war French intellectuals from a broad political spectrum It examines not only those whose political sympathies with the extreme right or extreme left were already publicly known but also non aligned intellectuals who were interested in political models that offered an apparently radical alternative to the French Third Republic This study shows how travel writing provided a space for reflection on the lessons France might learn from the radical political experiments of the inter war years It argues that such writing can usefully be read as a form of utopian thinking distinguishing this from colloquial understandings of utopia as an ideal location Utopianism is understood neither as a fantasy ungrounded in the real nor as a dangerously totalitarian ideal but in line with Karl Mannheim Paul Ricœur and Ruth Levitas as a form of non congruence with the real that it seeks to transcend The utopianism of French political travel writing is seen to lie not in the attempt to portray the destination visited as utopia but rather in the pursuit of a dialogue with radical political alterity Drones and the Annihilation-Image in Contemporary Warfare Gabriel F. Caetano, 2024-10-26 This book analyses the entanglement between Washington and Hollywood to shed light on the violence inherent in the image as a semiotic material agent in contemporary warfare In the 21st century the weaponized military drone an image centered machine has spearheaded the geopolitical curatorship of the USA in the context of the war on terror Drone violence shares the same characteristics as cinema image and movement

However a drone s image is not purely a reflection of the nature of war it is more than representational it is performative Building upon the concept of annihilation image this book argues that the image wields a destructive agency as it transitions from reflection to diffraction Rather than mirroring reality the annihilation image creates a brutal pattern of difference in the world It is a destructive ontology in which seeing and annihilating are in a state of superposition Therefore everything that is framed is potentially dead That is to say by framing bodies and objects in the terrain a state of superpositional violence is created in which one is alive but virtually dead
