Moorehead, 1966 The Fatal Impact Alan Moorehead, 1966 Canada Patrick C. Fafard, Douglas Mitchell Brown, 1996 Part of an annual series of essays surveying the state of the Canadian federation the 1996 volume of Canada The State of the Federation explores major developments and new trends in Canadian federalism and intergovernmental relations in 1996

Blue Latitudes Tony Horwitz, 2002 Boldly Going Where Captain Cook Has Gone Before Two centuries after James Cook s epic voyages of discovery Tony Horwitz takes readers on a wild ride across hemispheres and centuries to recapture the Captain s adventures and explore his embattled legacy in today s Pacific Horwitz a Pulitzer Prize winner and author of Confederates in the Attic works as a sailor aboard a replica of Cook s ship meets island kings and beauty queens and carouses the South Seas with a hilarious and disgraceful travel companion an Aussie named Roger He also creates a brilliant portrait of Cook an impoverished farmboy who became the greatest navigator in British history and forever changed the lands he touched Poignant probing antic and exhilarating Blue Latitudes brings to life a man who helped create the global village we inhabit today

Gender, Power and Sexual Abuse in the Pacific Emily J. Manktelow, 2018-07-26 In 1843 on the island of Tahiti the evangelical missionary Rev Alexander Simpson was accused of sexually assaulting three of the female students under his care and of taking improper liberties with at least three more The events did not come out in public for at least a decade while Simpson s power in the local community only grew and rumblings relating to his wrong doings were ruthlessly crushed By exploring the case of Rev Simpson Emily Manktelow gives us key insights into the gender power and racial dynamics of a particular case of sexual abuse on the frontiers of European colonialism She explores the social and sexual context of clerical abuse considers the hierarchies of gender and power that determined how the case was handled and investigates the nature of colonialism gender and abuse in the 19th century The uncomfortably timely content of Gender Power and Sexual Abuse in the Pacific allows us to interrogate the way we deal with and represent issues of abuse authority and childhood It aims to give voice to those whom the archive has silenced and to listen to what they have to tell us about gender sexuality and abuse in the modern world Expedition into Empire Martin Thomas, 2014-09-04 Expeditionary journeys have shaped our world but the expedition as a cultural form is rarely scrutinized This book is the first major investigation of the conventions and social practices embedded in team based exploration In probing the politics of expedition making this volume is itself a pioneering journey through the cultures of empire With contributions from established and emerging scholars Expedition into Empire plots the rise and transformation of expeditionary journeys from the eighteenth century until the present Conceived as a series of spotlights on imperial travel and colonial expansion it roves widely from the metropolitan centers to the ends of the earth This collection is both rigorous and accessible containing lively case studies from writers long immersed in exploration travel literature and the dynamics of cross cultural encounter

Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Macey,2018-10-10 Originally published in 1991 A multidisciplinary guide in the form of a bibliography of selected time related books and articles divided into 25 existing academic disciplines and about 100 subdisciplines which have a wide application to time studies      The Eighteenth Century James Sambrook,2014-07-15 This is an impressive and lucid survey of eighteenth century intellectual life providing a real sense of the complexity of the age and of the cultural and intellectual climate in which imaginative literature flourished It reflects on some of the dominant themes of the period arguing against such labels as Augustan Age Age of Enlightenment and Age of Reason which have been attached to the eighteenth century by critics and historians      War Memory and Commemoration Brad West,2016-07-15 In a period characterised by an unprecedented cultural engagement with the past individuals groups and nations are debating and experimenting with commemoration in order to find culturally relevant ways of remembering warfare genocide and terrorism This book examines such remembrances and the political consequences of these rites In particular the volume focuses on the ways in which recent social and technological forces including digital archiving transnational flows of historical knowledge shifts in academic practice changes in commemorative forms and consumerist engagements with history affect the shaping of new collective memories and our understanding of the social world Presenting studies of commemorative practices from Africa Asia Australia Europe and the Middle East War Memory and Commemoration illustrates the power of new commemorative forms to shape the world and highlights the ways in which social actors use them in promoting a range of understandings of the past The volume will appeal to scholars of sociology history cultural studies and journalism with an interest in commemoration heritage and or collective memory      The French Presence in the South Pacific, 1842-1940 Robert Aldrich, 1989-06-18 An examination of France's presence in the South Pacific after the takeover of Tahiti It places the South Pacific in the context of overall French expansion and current theories of colonialism and imperialism and evaluates the French impact on Oceania      The Sea Has No End Victor Suthren, 2004-09-01 Short listed for the 2005 Ottawa Book Award for Non fiction Soldier sailor adventurer and philosopher Louis Antoine de Bougainville was a talented French officer whose remarkable career took him from the boudoirs of Paris to the flintlock battlefields of North America and on to the lush islands of the South Pacific In this lively biography author Victor Suthren follows Bougainville's career in North America during the Seven Years War and the American Revolution and his adventures in the South Seas Written with a historian's eye for detail The Sea Has No End is a fascinating portrait of the most stirring and dramatic events of the eighteenth century      British Travel Writers in Europe 1750-1800 Katherine Turner, 2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2001 Hundreds of European travelogues produced by British travellers between 1750 and 1800 remain out of sight in most libraries and have generally been out of print since the 18th century While many people with a working knowledge of the 18th century are familiar with works including Sterne's A Sentimental Journey and Smollett's Travels through France and Italy those produced by less literary travellers are largely unknown This study aims to recreate the world of 18th century travel writing in order to illuminate its central role in shaping Britain's emerging sense of national identity an identity which proves to be more complex and less homogeneous than some cultural and historical studies would suggest The author finds that the developing discourse of national character is bound up with questions of gender national and authorial virtue are projected in terms of appropriately gendered behaviour for male and female travel writers alike In turn gender intersects with class most obviously in the tendency to denigrate aristocratic travellers as effeminate and celebrate the more manly activities of the middle class traveller These then national identity authorship and gender are the central preoccupations of the study      The Moon Man Elsie May Webster, Webster, Robert, 1984-01-01      The Oxford History of the British Empire: The eighteenth century Peter James Marshall, 1998 Examines the history of British worldwide expansion from the Glorious Revolution of 1689 to the end of the Napoleonic Wars a crucial phase in the creation of the modern British Empire      The British Whaling Trade Gordon Jackson, 2017-10-18 This book provides a comprehensive economic history of the British Whaling Trade divided into two eras of significant technological difference The first part concerns the traditional whaling trades that structured the industry for three centuries from 1604 1914 The second part concerns the modern whaling trade between the years 1904 1963 characterised by technological advance and tremendous international competition Gordon Jackson approaches the enormous subject of British Whaling from the perspectives of both the national economy of Britain and the international whaling industry as a whole The book consults official statistical material to determine the size and performance of various whaling fleets eye witness accounts and state papers for the early history of the trade log books and trade and customs records for the eighteenth century and the documents of the Southern Whaling Company Salvesen and Unilever for insights into the modern whaling period The book concludes with appendices containing statistical data concerning whale oil whale stocks and the price of goods two bibliographies of further reading and a conclusion that free competition and market demand simply exhausted whale stocks beyond any possibility of restoration
