reconstruction of aspects of the philosophy of Adorno and Heidegger This title reconstructs the philosophy of Adorno and Heidegger in the light of the importance that these thinkers attach to two proper names Auschwitz and Germanien In Adorno's dialectical thinking Auschwitz is the name of an incommensurable historical event that seems to put a provisional end to history as a negative totality In Heidegger's thinking of Being Germanien is a name inscribed in an historical mission on which the fate of Western civilization seems to depend it thus becomes the name of a positive totality of history

Heidegger Christopher Fynsk, 1993 Christopher Fynsk offers a sustained critical reading of works written by Martin Heidegger in the period 1927-1947 His guiding concerns are Heidegger's notions of human finitude and difference which Fynsk first addresses through an analysis of the role played by Mitsein in Being and Time This analysis in turn affords a critical perspective on Heidegger's own interpretive encounters with Nietzsche and Holderlin For the paperback Fynsk has added a new chapter on the recent controversy surrounding Heidegger's politics Polemical in style it seeks to define what is at stake in the Heidegger affair and points to some of the questions for philosophy and politics raised by the new legibility of Heidegger's political engagements

Unmasking the African Ghost Cyril Orji, 2022-04-26 The story of Africa is a ghost story with two plots One is foreign or imported and the other indigenous or local The foreign plot has its origin in colonial history The indigenous plot is African in origin But both plots end in the same place African trauma and culture complex These narratives create in modern Africa a splintered consciousness and the political and economic conditions that lead to physical and psychological violence Unmasking the African Ghost is both a theological exploration of the reasons the political and economic systems in African countries have failed and a proposal for the paths toward recovery anchored in the belief that Africa is a continent continuously trying to redefine its identity in the face of Eurocentrism For the church in Africa to be a church at the service of its people theology in Africa must take misery and oppression as the context for its reflections and its reconstruction of the social order An African solution to African problems must be able to meet the needs of the time It must look to the African past to draw from its riches particularly the African sociopolitical ethic of ubuntu It must also look ahead and draw from the best available sociopolitical system of modern states liberal democracy A hybrid of these two yields ubuntuocracy Ubuntuocracy removes the ghosts of both Africa and its Western colonizers and begins a new story that can help Africa survive its double bind
