Fates Kite Poems 1992 1995:

Fate's Kite Dave Smith, 1995 In this stunningly wrought collection Dave Smith presents a galaxy of souls searching for something through the dusty lens of a lost faith If religion is the arena in which we engage ultimate meaning then these are religious poems indeed prayers and meditations of the cosmically disenfranchised looking for a sign among the detritus of a broken world Lord admit us we lived here almost happy almost yours But where really are we And how and why did we get here Pulsing carefully orchestrated these thirteen line poems are tightly wound miracles of compression alive with texture and color sharp with the raw flavors of sex blood and seawrack ready to explode off the page Ranging from youth all moonlight and speed and violent ecstasy through the fierce disillusionment of middle age to the final decline snagged on memory's hook from the sun shot desolation of the contemporary American South to the faded marmoreal glory of Europe Smith forges a craggy metaphysics that stops just this side of despair finding Delphic moments of affirmation of our kinship with the physical world

International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004-08-02 The 13th edition of the International Who's Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today Containing biographies of more than 4 000 contemporary poets world wide this essential reference work provides truly international coverage In addition to the well known poets talented up and coming writers are also profiled Contents Each entry provides full career history and publication details An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners organizations magazines and publishers A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate Oxford University professors of poetry poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry and of the King's Queen's Gold medal and other poetry prizes

Southern Writers Joseph M. Flora, Amber Vogel, 2006-06-21 This new edition of Southern Writers assumes its distinguished predecessor's place as the essential reference on literary artists of the American South Broadly expanded and thoroughly revised it boasts 604 entries nearly double the earlier edition's written by 264 scholars For every figure major and minor from the venerable and canonical to the fresh and innovative a biographical sketch and chronological list of published works provide comprehensive concise up to date information Here in one convenient source are the South's novelists and short story writers poets and dramatists memoirists and essayists journalists scholars and biographers from the colonial period to the twenty first century What constitutes a southern writer is always a matter for debate Editors Joseph M Flora and Amber Vogel have used a generous definition that turns on having a significant connection to the region in either a personal or literary sense New to this volume are younger writers who have emerged in the quarter century since the dictionary's original publication as well as older talents previously unknown or unacknowledged For almost every writer found in the previous edition a new biography has been commissioned Drawn from the very best minds on southern literature and covering the full spectrum of its practitioners Southern Writers is an indispensable reference book for anyone intrigued by the subject Little Boats, Unsalvaged Dave Smith, 2005-10-01 A lyrical search for wisdom and meaning in the life of a man growing up in the New South of desegregating schools rock and roll music mobile populations and volatile wars Little Boats Unsalvaged displays the profound historical sensibility that has long marked the poetry of Dave Smith Smith exhibits here a mature perspective on his childhood in a racially violent society and on his troubled search for happiness whether sexual professional or aesthetic To that he adds a chorus of elegies for poets central to his understanding of his native region including Edwin Muir Robert Penn Warren and Allen Tate and a vision of poetry as the art that unites medieval and contemporary elements Section by section changes in subject tempo and even vocabulary offer at once a sense of unity and variety to the poems Little Boats Unsalvaged poses a polyphonic inquiry into the experiences and memories of the Vietnam defined generation an inquiry whose answers can only be tentative fretted hung in the contingencies of being just as the little boat of joy waits not useless or lost but abandoned and so beyond visible redemption The Wick of Memory Dave Smith, 2000 The 30 poems in this collection show Dave Smith turning from the work of an accomplished past to new formal practices that highlight a poetry autumnal in its recognition of life's limits Hunting Men Dave Smith, 2006-12-01 In Hunting Men poet Dave Smith reasserts the validity of poetry in our times With eloquence grace and a searching intelligence Smith illuminates both poems and poets Believing that great poetry cannot be divorced from an intimate organic link to place he builds a compelling case for the importance of southern poets Like the hunters who taught Smith as a young man patience observation and willingness to rely on his senses he leads readers on an expedition through a specific poetic place with a sure sense of direction and destination Beginning with a discussion of southern poetry that seeks to define the form and its value for a global readership the first of the book's three sections also includes reflections on Edgar Allan Poe John Crowe Ransom Robert Penn Warren and James Dickey In the second part Smith focuses on contemporary poets Richard Hugo Stephen Dunn Stephen Dobyns and Larry Levis among others In the final chapters he examines how he came to be a poet and reflects on the nature and practice of poetry Smith describes himself as a poet born and raised in the South but never entirely comfortable with the neighborhood or many of the public assumptions about southernness By describing why southern poetry is important to him he reveals why poetry matters to all of us as he asserts the moral weight of regional art My success if it occurs will be to send readers to the books of the poets where the world as they knew it waits and is full of the delights of the unglimped and known International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature The International Who's Who of Authors and Writers offers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters Louisiana Poets Catharine Savage Brosman, Olivia McNeely Pass, 2019-04-10 Louisiana has long been recognized for its production of talented writers and its poets in particular have shined From the early poetry of the state to the work crafted in the present day Louisiana has nurtured and exported a rich and diverse poetic tradition In Louisiana Poets A Literary Guide authors Catharine Savage Brosman and Olivia McNeely Pass assess the achievements of Louisiana poets from the past hundred years who Brosman and Pass assert deserve both public notice and careful critical examination Louisiana Poets presents the careers and works of writers whose verse is closely connected to the peoples history and landscapes of Louisiana or whose upbringing or artistic development occurred in the state Brosman and Pass chose poets based on the scope abundance and excellence of their work their critical reception and the local and national standing of the writer and work The book treats a wide range of forty poets from national bestsellers to local celebrities detailing their histories and output Intended to be of broad interest and easy to consult Louisiana Poets showcases the corpus of Louisiana poetry alongside its current profile Brosman and Pass have created a guide that provides a way for readers to discover savor and celebrate poets who have been inspired in and by the Pelican State Hawks on Wires Dave Smith, 2011-11-07 Dave Smith s sixteenth poetry collection chronicles the arc of almost sixty years living in the American South From dusty sawmills to the ubiquitous Waffle House Hawks on Wires stages both mortal and comic dramas that speak to the poet s autumnal acceptance of himself and the South Poems of growing up engaged with the people of the coast and woodlands boatmen hunters crabbers sawyers and tough mouthed waitresses celebrate the once strong but now tenuous threads of community Traveling through the latter twentieth century Smith presents matters of family sex and race during a turbulent and historic era in southern history Assassinations withdrawal of religious prohibitions violent cultural convulsions and even the diminished meaning of the word southern shake the poet s personal identity Smith uses the language of an ordinary man seeking meaning as the memory of events carried over a lifetime now begs for explanation Despite the inevitable displacements and disappointments of identity which remain mysterious Smith finds optimism in life Floating on Solitude Dave Smith, 1996 Forging through this voluminous collection is akin to visiting at length with a charismatic if highly disturbed relative Generally the poems start out presenting facades of well mannered normalcy e g brief narratives or odes to nature and the sea but then something shifts and goes terribly right A sentence turns odd and powerful a quiet streak of insanity emerges a young girl leaves her scent upon a young boy s body Sometimes a poem pops up that is dangerous from start to finish such as The Suicide Eaters or Drunks about a reading at a V A hospital for recovering addicts and alcoholics Smith is highly conscious of word choice He tinkers with grammar and rhythm just enough to be utterly engaging leaving the reader exhausted after the visit but wiser for the effort Publishers
