And so as the world of analogue listening fades Charlie Connelly takes stock of the history of radio and its place in our lives as one of the very few genuinely shared national experiences He explores its geniuses crackpots and charlatans who got us to where we are today and remembers its voices personalities and programmes that helped to form who we are as individuals and as a nation He visits the key radio locations from history and looks at its vital role over the past century on both national and local levels Part nostalgic eulogy part social history part travelogue Last Train To Hilversum is Connelly's love letter to radio exploring our relationship with the medium from its earliest days to the present in an attempt to recreate and revisit the world he entered on his childhood evenings on the dial as he set out on the radio journey of a lifetime Rewriting utterly compelling Jonathan Ross Having cut his teeth in music journalism Graham Linehan became the finest sitcom writer of his generation He captured the comedy zeitgeist not just as the co creator of Father Ted but also with The IT Crowd and Black Books winning five Baftas and a lifetime achievement award Then his life took an unexpected turn When he championed an unfashionable cause TV commissioners no longer returned his emails showbiz pals lost his number and his marriage collapsed In an emotionally charged memoir that is by turns hilarious and harrowing he lets us into the secrets of the writing room and colourfully describes the high octane atmosphere of a sitcom set But he also berates an industry where there was no one to stand by his side when he needed help Bruised but not beaten he explains why he chose the hill of women and girls rights to die on and why despite the hardship of cancellation he's not coming down from it any time soon
