Father Tom Billy Fitzgerald,1990 Portrait of Cardinal Tomas O Fiaich who died in May 1990 whilst on a pilgrimage to Lourdes Primate of All Ireland Father Tom was seen both as a peacemaker and a defender of violence This book tells the story of his life and ministry ending with an account of his funeral in Armagh The Irish Protestant Churches in the Twentieth Century Alan Megahey,2000-08-17 This book is unique in recording the history of all the Protestant churches in Ireland in the twentieth century though with particular focus on the two largest the Presbyterian and the Church of Ireland It examines the changes and chances in those churches during a turbulent period in Irish history relating their development to the wider social and political context Their structures and beliefs are examined and their influence both in Ireland and overseas is assessed The Catholic Church and the Northern Ireland Troubles, 1968-1998 Margaret M. Scull,2019-09-11 Until surprisingly recently the history of the Irish Catholic Church during the Northern Irish Troubles was written by Irish priests and bishops and was commemorative rather than analytical This study uses the Troubles as a case study to evaluate the role of the Catholic Church in mediating conflict During the Troubles these priests and bishops often worked behind the scenes acting as go betweens for the British government and republican paramilitaries to bring about a peaceful solution However this study also looks more broadly at the actions of the American Irish and English Catholic Churches as well as that of the Vatican to uncover the full impact of the Church on the conflict This critical analysis of previously neglected state Irish and English Catholic Church archival material changes our perspective on the role of a religious institution in a modern conflict Writings on Irish History ,1989 For the Cause of Liberty Terry Golway,2012-05-22 Ireland's struggle for freedom reaches back much further into the annals of history than most of us can imagine Since the eleventh century when legendary king Brian Boru united the chieftains of Ireland to resist Viking invasion countless individual leaders have fought to preserve and protect Ireland's political and cultural autonomy In a chronicle of unprecedented breadth and authority For the Cause of Liberty tells the stories of these heroes including both men and women Catholics and Protestants who enabled the Irish to free themselves from the yoke of colonial oppression Journalist Terry Golway reconstructs the entire thousand year history of Irish nationalism covering each benchmark event in Ireland's political evolution and presenting a vivid epic tale of both the famous and unsung patriots who changed the course of Ireland's history Among these are Wolfe Tone a leader of the 1798 rebellion who cut his own throat rather than submit to a hangman Kevin Barry executed at age eighteen rather than turn informer on the eve of independence in 1921 and Bobby Sands an IRA militant who died on a hunger strike in 1981 calling international attention to the conflict in Northern Ireland The engaging and admirable story of how the Irish have saved themselves For the Cause of Liberty is a peerless work of scholarship and it offers a fresh context for the ongoing discussion of Ireland's political future Mirror Hate Richard Davis,1994 This study analyzes the popular notion that the attitudes of the IRA backed by Sinn Fein and Gerry Adams mirror those of the Protestant paramilitary and the Paisleyite groups in Northern Ireland Using their periodicals and pamphlets it demonstrates that these violently antagonistic groups not only borrow each other's tactics directly but also unconsciously converge in their attitudes to violence education economic strategies and sometimes Irish language and culture From Ecumenism to Community Relations Maria Power, 2007 This volume focuses on the ways in which the Protestant and Catholic Churches have worked together to promote peace and reconciliation and improve community relations in Northern Ireland It also examines the various contacts which have taken place since Vatican II Whitaker's Book List, 1991 Early History of the Scotch-Irish Families Caldow, Caddow, Caddoo, Kildoo, Kildew, Kiddoo Donald B. Kiddoo, 2002 Twentieth-Century Ireland (New Gill History of Ireland 6) Dermot Keogh, 2005-09-27 Professor Dermot Keogh's Twentieth Century Ireland the sixth and final book in the New Gill History of Ireland series is a wide ranging informative and hugely engaging study of the long twentieth century surveying politics administrative history social and religious history culture and censorship politics literature and art It focuses on the consolidation of the new Irish state over the course of the twentieth century Professor Keogh highlights the long tragedy of emigration its effect on the Irish psyche and on the under performance of the Irish economy He emphasises the lost opportunities for reform of the 1960s and early 70s Membership of the EU had a diminished impact due to short term and sectionally motivated political thinking and an antiquated government structure Professor Keogh looks at how the despair of the 1950s revisited the country in the 1980s as almost an entire generation felt compelled to emigrate very often as undocumented workers in the United States Professor Keogh also argues that the violence in Northern Ireland from the late 1960s was an Anglo Irish failure which was turned around only when Britain acknowledged the role of the Irish government in its resolution He extends his analysis of the twentieth century to include a wide ranging survey of the most contentious events financial corruption child sexual abuse scandals in the Catholic Church between 1994 and 2005 Twentieth Century Ireland Table of Contents A War without Victors Cumann na nGaedheal and the Conservative Revolution De Valera and Fianna Fáil in Power 1932 1939 In the Time of War Neutral Ireland 1939 1945 Seán MacBride and the Rise of Clann na Poblachta The Inter Party Government 1948 1951 The Politics of Drift 1951 1959 Seán Lemass and the Rising Tide of the 1960s The Shifting Balance of Power Jack Lynch and Liam Cosgrave 1966 1977 Charles Haughey and the Poverty of Populism Ireland in the New Century The New York Times Index, 1990 The Guardian Index, 1988
