Father Said Hal Sirowitz,2004 Hal Sirowitz the Poet Laureate of Queens offers a funny and tender portrait of his father in this follow up to his acclaimed Mother Said and My Therapist Said Sirowitz s mother may have dominated the household with her overly protective advice but his father had a few bon mots to impart to his son as well In Father Said he teaches Hal important lessons such as What to Do When You Burp and How to Avoid Being Idle Mr Sirowitz s cautionary tales are as idiosyncratic as his wife s When your mother tells me don t I think it s time we got a better washing machine Father said I tell her Let it decide If it breaks down we ll get a better one

Going to Meet the Man James Baldwin,2013-09-17 A major collection of short fiction including the story Sonny s Blues by one of America s most important writers exploring the wounds racism leaves in both its victims and its perpetrators In this modern classic there s no way not to suffer But you try all kinds of ways to keep from drowning in it The men and women in these eight short fictions grasp this truth on an elemental level and their stories detail the ingenious and often desperate ways in which they try to keep their head above water It may be the heroin that a down and out jazz pianist uses to face the terror of pouring his life into an inanimate instrument It may be the brittle piety of a father who can never forgive his son for his illegitimacy Or it may be the screen of bigotry that a redneck deputy has raised to blunt the awful childhood memory of the day his parents took him to watch a black man being murdered by a
