The Fatherland ,1917 Motherland Amy Sohn,2013-07-02 In her trademark blend of social satire and sexy drama New York Times Bestselling author Sohn delivers a candid unsentimental look at modern marriage and confirms her as one of our most insightful commentators on relationships and parenting in modern America Publisher Motherland William Nicholson,2013-04-09 From an Academy Award nominated screenwriter a powerful story of a love triangle set in England France India and Jamaica against the backdrop of World War II Kitty is loved by two best friends Ed a handsome hero and Larry not so handsome not so heroic but a good man My Father's Land Josie Sturgeon,2007-08 Set during the Civil War this novel is the story of a couple who move from Pennsylvania to a plantation in North Carolina Belle a very self righteous Christian woman loves to be waited on and her faults go on and on At the lowest point in her life she drops to her knees crying out to God to change her My Father's Land Rui Batista,2025-03-23 Some journeys begin with hope Others begin with loss When war reached Angola one family had no choice but to leave everything behind Forced from the only home they had ever known they fled first to Portugal then to Brazil searching for stability in a world that seemed to reject them at every turn Crime poverty and uncertainty followed shaping their experiences as they moved between cultures continents and new realities When they finally made their way to the United States the dream of a better life came with new challenges the fear of being undocumented the struggle to gain legal status and the constant pressure of adapting to yet another country that didn't always welcome them Through it all childhood unfolded in the shadows of instability marked by moments of joy uncertainty and an unshakable connection to family My Father's Land is more than an immigrant's story it's a gripping account of survival sacrifice and the enduring pull of home From the tight knit villages of Portugal to the sprawling streets of S o Paulo and finally to the uncertain promise of America this memoir is a vivid portrait of growing up between worlds Told with honesty warmth and a touch of humor My Father's Land explores what it means to belong when home is no longer a place but a collection of memories people and the land that shaped you Viereck's the American Weekly ,1915

Viereck's ,1916 GHANA MY MOTHERLAND Georgina Mensah-Brown,2014-09-05 Old things are old Why should I be bothered with old news when I am moving forward History belongs to those who lived it We are also making ours This is what some young adults would say but from where community have reached some might not be able to tell as to how to focus on the future Do you know that people have been walking to school daily covering three or more miles to school and back in many places Can you think a child going to school barefooted as compared to our modern world When did the market become dry with the sale of no fish except one type of fish whether people liked it or not What happens when governments are overthrown only to continue facing hardships Have you come across empty shops with essential goods being hoarded and sold in private When there was no fashion of today what sort of dresses were the fashion of yesterday If you were to be in any underdeveloped country or certain parts of Africa or elsewhere would you be able to compare where you live and why others don't have what you have Ghana my mother is a simple conversation to tell the younger generation in a simple conversation form how far the country has come from the old to the new with one more step along the world to go Viereck's New World George Sylvester Viereck, David Maier, 1915 The Color of Smoke Menyhert Lakatos, 2015-08-11 FOR THE FIRST TIME IN ENGLISH a timeless tribute to one of the world's most marginalized peoples and the riveting tale of one boy's journey to manhood Sweeping us into the world of the Roma as fascism gathers force and the Holocaust looms on the horizon The Color of Smoke is a thoroughly absorbing story that abounds in unforgettable characters There is the adolescent narrator torn between his people and a society that both entices him and rejects him From his rise in school to his first sexual encounters from hunger to police harassment he treads a precarious path one marked by moments of beauty and poignancy along with bawdiness violence and high adventure And we come to know a people bound as much by a rich moral fabric as by the land and by the horses they love By an author who himself came of age in a Romani settlement during World War II The Color of Smoke is a must read for anyone seeking a stunningly new authoritative window onto the lives of the dispossessed with haunting implications for today Magisterial in scope and yet intensely personal it combines beautiful prose with profound reflections on the human condition as only great literature can From the Trade Paperback edition Printers' Ink; the ... Magazine of Advertising, Management and Sales, 1899 "My Motherland" Pamphlets, 1-12, 1929 Citizenship and Residence Sales Dimitry Vladimirovich Kochenov, Kristin Surak, 2023-04-13 Citizenship and residence by investment is a fast growing global phenomenon As of 2022 more than a third of all countries in the world offered paths to membership in exchange for a donation or investment into their economies Yet we know little about how these programmes operate and debates in academia and the wider public are often misinformed by sensationalist cases This book offers a multidisciplinary exploration of both citizenship and residence by investment on a global scale Bringing together the expertise of leading legal scholars economists sociologists political scientists and historians it provides an informative and empirically grounded assessment of the origins operation key causes and the legal bases of the investment migration programmes By so doing the volume demystifies citizenship and residence by investment and takes a critical postcolonial global perspective addressing key issues in belonging exclusion and inequality that define the world today Drug and Chemical Markets, 1914 Tales from My Motherland Moses Vincent Okai-Gyau, 2012-01-04 After so many years of waiting will the prophesy of a popular faith healer and an elder of a charismatic church Papa Kwamena for Akosua Mansa and Agya Mensa from the village of Akim Manso in Ghana be fulfilled Tales from my motherland will take the reader to the people of Ghana to their traditional settings their cultural heritage and beliefs to the unifying force and the communal spirit of the people in Akim Manso The story describes how Akosua Mansa moved to Agya Mensa's home after their wedding ceremony and their success in farming and commercial activities as cocoa farmers and as local food restaurant operators It finally concludes with how their marriage was blessed with a baby boy who grew up to become a great scholar after many years of waiting The story tries to expose the totality of the culture and tradition as well as everyday beliefs of the people in that village of Akim Manso in Ghana touching on their traditional farming activities weddings festivals the practices of a fetish priestess and a medicine man funeral celebrations etc
