Fathers Who Fail Melvin R. Lansky, 2013-05-13 Despite the burgeoning literature on the role of the father in child development and on fathering as a developmental stage surprisingly little has been written about the psychiatrically impaired father In Fathers Who Fail Melvin Lansky remedies this glaring lacuna in the literature Drawing on contemporary psychoanalysis family systems theory and the sociology of conflict he delineates the spectrum of psychopathological predicaments that undermine the ability of the father to be a father Out of his sensitive integration of the intrapsychic and intrafamilial contexts of paternal failure emerges a richly textured portrait of psychiatrically impaired fathers of fathers who fail Lansky's probing discussion of narcissistic equilibrium in the family system enables him to chart the natural history common to the symptomatic impulsive actions of impaired fathers He then considers specific manifestations of paternal dysfunction within this shared framework of heightened familial conflict and the failure of intrafamilial defenses to common shame Domestic violence suicide the intensification of trauma posttraumatic nightmares catastrophic reactions in organic brain syndrome and the murder of a spouse are among the major symptoms that he explores In each instance Lansky carefully sketches the progression of vulnerability and turbulence from the father's personality to the family system and thence to the symptomatic eruption in question In his concluding chapter he comments tellingly on the unconscious obstacles on the part of both patients and therapists to treating impaired fathers The obstacles cut across different clinical modalities underscoring the need for multimodal responses to fathers who fail

Narrating Estrangement Lisa P. Z. Spinazola, David F. Purnell, 2022-05-09 The stories in Narrating Estrangement Autoethnographies of Writing Of f Family demonstrate the pain anguish and even relief felt by those who contemplate estranging or who are estranged whether by choice or circumstance Despite the social assumptions persisting about the everlasting nature of family relationships when people make the complicated and often difficult decision to disconnect from family members they experience shame stigma and isolation because of social pressures to maintain those relationships at all costs Each contributor uses the act of storytelling and the autoethnographic mode of scholarship and writing to find clarity in their individual unique and complex situations Several authors explorations restore some of what they have lost through estrangement such as a sense of identity emotional health and well being and feelings of belonging due to the breakdowns in social and family support systems meant to be unconditional and permanent The stories display the wide array of reasons why family members become estranged delving into different types of estrangement permanent and or intermittent In doing so the writers in this book demonstrate that family relationships are neither easily categorized nor neatly ended their impact on an individual s life continues and changes even in and through estrangement This book adds to the ongoing scholarly conversations about family estrangement for students and researchers interested in autoethnography and qualitative inquiry in a wide range of disciplines in the social sciences healthcare and communication studies
