Fatima De Los Naufragios:

The Return of the Moor Daniela Flesler, 2008 With the intense economic development and accelerated modernization experienced by Spain since the 1970s and especially following its entrance to the European Economic Community in 1986 the country has undergone a rapid inversion in migratory patterns After being an exporter of economic migrants for almost a century in the last 20 years Spain has seen itself on the receiving end of immigration Coinciding with a time when Spain is highlighting its belonging to Europe the growing presence of Moroccan immigrants in particular confronts Spanish society with the repressed non European African and Oriental aspects of its national identity The Return of the Moor examines the anxiety over symbolic and literal boundaries permeating the Spanish reception of these immigrants through an interdisciplinary analysis of social fictional and performative texts It argues that Moroccans constitute a problem to Spaniards not because of their cultural differences as many claim but because they are not different enough Perceived as Moors they conjure up past ghosts that continue to haunt the Spanish imaginary revealing the acute tensions inherent to Spain's tenuous position between Europe and Africa

Fátima de los naufragios Lourdes Ortiz, 1998 Toward a Multicultural Configuration of Spain Ana Corbalán, Ellen Mayock, 2014-11-20 This collection of essays explores cultural phenomena that are shaping global identities in contemporary Spain This volume is comprised of twenty essays that examine literary documentary and film representations of the multicultural configurations of Spain All of the essays treat multiculturalism in Spain focusing on reconfigured Spanish cities and neighborhoods through Latin American African and or Eastern European migrations and cultures Principal themes of the volume include urban space and access to resources responses to the economic crisis emerging family portraits public versus private spaces the local and the global marginalities migrations and public expression of human and civil rights This project examines the intercultural exchange that takes place in recent productions against an imaginary homogeneous Spanish national identity These films documentaries and narratives seek to unsettle the Spanish preconceptions of the Other's Therefore these texts construct a hybrid concept of the nation in which perceived national identities can be altered by interactions with other cultures from a broader world The originality of the work lies in its focus on contemporary Spanish literature documentaries and fictional film to foment exploration of how Spanish cities big and small are experiencing transformation in architecture popular customs and festivals economics family dynamics and social and political agency through the arrival of new residents from across the globe Some of the essays question the very legitimacy of the term multiculturalism others examine the formation of new communities and still others explore the changes in religious representations and the environmental effects of the tourist industry Together the essays offer a compelling portrait of the changing face of contemporary Spain

Liminal Fiction at the Edge of the Millennium Jessica A. Folkart, 2014-10-08 Liminal Fiction at the Edge of the Millennium The Ends of Spanish Identity investigates the predominant perception of liminality identity situated at a threshold neither one thing nor another but simultaneously both and neither caused by encounters with otherness while negotiating identity in contemporary Spain Examining how identity and alterity are parleyed through the cultural concerns of historical memory gender roles sex religion nationalism and immigration this study demonstrates how fictional representations of reality converge in a common structure wherein the end is not the end but rather an edge a liminal ground On the border between two identities the end materializes as an ephemeral limit that delineates and differentiates yet also adjoins and approximates In exploring the ends of Spanish fiction both their structure and their intentionality Liminal Fiction maps the edge as a constitutive component of narrative and identity in texts by Najat El Hachmi Cristina Fernández Cubas Javier Marías Rosa Montero and Manuel Rivas In their representation of identity on the edge these fictions enact and embody the liminal not as simply a transitional and transient mode but as the structuring principle of identification in contemporary Spain

Ex-Centric Migrations Hakim Abderrezak, 2016-06-20 Plunges the reader into a tour de force across radically divergent artistic responses to Mediterranean migration Bulletin of Francophone Postcolonial Studies Ex-Centric Migrations examines cinematic literary and musical representations of migrants and migratory trends in the western Mediterranean Focusing primarily on clandestine sea crossings Hakim Abderrezak shows that despite labor and linguistic ties with the colonizer migrants from the Maghreb Morocco Algeria and Tunisia no longer systematically target France as a destination but instead aspire toward other European countries notably Spain and Italy In addition the author investigates other migratory patterns that entail the repatriation of migrants His analysis reveals that the films novels and songs of Mediterranean artists run contrary to mass media coverage and conservative political discourse bringing a nuanced vision and expert analysis to the sensationalism and biased reportage of such events as the Mediterranean maritime tragedies Ex-Centric Migrations is crucial reading for scholars and students of contemporary Maghrebi French and Spanish literatures and cultures It breaks new ground by encompassing the literature film and music of return migration and examining the trajectories of Maghrebi migration outside France

H France Hakim Abderrezak convincingly illustrates how politically committed artistic practices serve to humanize the challenges of human migration and in the process dramatically improves our understanding of the complex cultural economic political and social realities that shape 21st century existence

The Aesthetics of the Ephemeral Jennifer Duprey, 2014-07-01 In The Aesthetics of the Ephemeral Jennifer Duprey examines five contemporary plays from Barcelona Olors and Testament by Josep

Maria Benet i Jornet Ant gona by Jordi Coca Forasters by Sergi Belbel and Temptaci by Carles Batlle She argues that in both the theatrical text and its performance an aesthetics of the ephemeral materializes that is related to specific manifestations of cultural and historical memory in Spain and Catalonia These manifestations of memory include historical concerns such as the possibility of another form of justice in predicaments of violence after the Civil War and they also include contemporary issues such as the production of ruins by the processes of gentrification in Barcelona the complexity of immigration in Spain and the destruction or preservation of Catalan cultural legacies In her analysis of these topics Duprey engages and expands on theories related to questions of subjectivity and identity in late modernity This book will be of interest to those concerned with Iberian cultural studies and with how theater reflects on and contributes to contemporary political dialogue

Emigrant Dreams, Immigrant Borders Raquel Vega-Durán, 2016-09-30 Emigrant Dreams Immigrant Borders Migrants Transnational Encounters and Identity in Spain offers a new approach to the cultural history of contemporary Spain examining the ways in which Spain's own self conceptions are changing and multiplying in response to migrants from Latin America and Africa In the last twenty five years Spain has gone from being a country of net emigration to one in which immigrants make up nearly 12 percent of the population This rapid growth has made migrants increasingly visible in both mass media and in Spanish visual and literary culture This book examines the origins of media discourses on immigration and takes the analysis of contemporary Spanish culture as its primary framework while also drawing insights from sociology and history Emigrant Dreams Immigrant Borders introduces readers to a wide range of recent films journals novels photography paintings and music to reconsider contemporary Spain through its varied encounters with migrants It follows the stages of the migrant's own journey beginning outside Spanish territory continuing across the border either at the barbed wire fences of Ceuta and Melilla or the waters of the Atlantic or the Strait of Gibraltar and then considers what happens to migrants after they arrive and settle in Spain Each chapter analyzes one of these stages in order to illustrate the complexity of contemporary Spanish identity This examination of Spanish culture shows how Spain is evolving into a new space of imagination one that can no longer be defined without the migrant a space in which there is no unified identity but rather a new self understanding is being born Vega Durán both places Spain in a larger European context and draws attention to some of the features that from a comparative perspective make the Spanish case interesting and often unique She argues that Spain cannot be understood today outside the Transatlantic and Mediterranean spaces both real and imaginary where Spaniards and migrants meet Emigrant Dreams Immigrant Borders offers a timely study of present day Spain and makes an original contribution to the vibrant debates about multiculturalism and nation formation that are taking The World in Movement, 2019-04-09 This book focuses on one of the main issues of our time in the Humanities and Social Sciences as it analyzes the impact of current global migrations on new forms of living together and the formation of identities and homes Using a transdisciplinary and transcultural approach the contributions shed fresh light upon key concepts such as hybrid performative diaspora transidentities hospitality belonging emotion body and desire Those concepts are discussed in the context of Cuban US American Maghrebian Moroccan Spanish Catalan French Turkish Jewish Argentinian Indian and Italian literatures cultures and religions

Africa in the Contemporary Spanish Novel, 1990-2010 Mahan L. Ellison,2021-08-19 The time period of 1990 2010 marks a significant moment in Spanish literary publishing that emphasized a new focus on Africa and African voices and signaled the beginning of a publishing boom of Hispano African authors and themes Africa in the Contemporary Spanish Novel 1990 2010 analyzes the strategies that Spanish and Hispano African authors employ when writing about Africa in the contemporary Spanish novel Focusing on the former Spanish colonial territories of Morocco Western Sahara and Equatorial Guinea Mahan L Ellison analyzes the post colonial literary discourse about these regions at the turn of the twenty first century He examines the new ways of conceptualizing Africa that depart from an Orientalist framework as advanced by novelists such as Lorenzo Silva Concha López Saras a Ramón Mayrata and others Throughout Ellison also places the novels within their historical context specifically engaging with the theoretical ideas of Edward Said's Orientalism 1978 to determine to what extent his analysis of Orientalist discourse still holds value for a study of the Spanish novel of thirty years later

La inmigración en la literatura española contemporánea Irene Andres-Suárez,Marco Kunz,Inés d'Ors,2002-07-10 Hasta ahora la investigación sobre los fenómenos migratorios en España se ha abordado prioritariamente desde una perspectiva sociológica política o historiográfica Apenas se ha prestado atención a los textos literarios que reflejan la emigración a diferencia de lo ocurrido con los del exilio que se han estudiado de una manera pormenorizada. Nuestro proyecto se propone colmar esta laguna ocupándose de las dos etapas fundamentales de la migración española en la segunda mitad del siglo XX: la emigración de los españoles hacia Europa, especialmente en las décadas de los cincuenta y sesenta, y la actual inmigración hacia España. Este libro presenta un inicial balance de nuestra investigación y en él se estudian por primera vez las obras narrativas y teatrales contemporáneas que tratan el tema candente de la inmigración en España. Dada la dificultad de mantener la diferencia de perspectiva y de acotar cronológicamente el material, el estudio del lxico pone entre paréntesis las fronteras temporales y abarca tanto la emigración como la inmigración.

Juan Goytisolo Marco Kunz, 2003-01-01. Ensayo sobre los numerosos textos de géneros muy variados: libros de viajes, memorias, ensayos, entrevistas, etc. que Juan Goytisolo ha dedicado a la problemática migratoria a lo largo de más de cuarenta años. Ningún autor español ha escrito y reflexionado con la misma insistencia y perspicacia sobre los fenómenos migratorios en la historia de España y su importancia para las sociedades occidentales actuales.

Resisting Invisibility Diana Aramburu, 2019-05-17. Engaging with pre-feminist and male-authored crime literature, Resisting Invisibility offers a comparative reading of women's bodies as represented in Spanish crime literature from the mid-nineteenth century to the present. Utilizing the twin concepts of visibility and invisibility, the book establishes a genealogy of differing viewpoints regarding women's positions in these narratives before and after the birth of the modern Spanish female detective. This examination of the politics of female visibility expands our understanding of the aesthetic regimes that have governed the female body from the early phases of the genre's evolution. While most scholars understand the feminization of the crime genre as a response to second-wave feminism, Resisting Invisibility demonstrates that even in the earliest representations of delinquent women, the politics surrounding the female body are problematized and are more complex than previously conceptualized. Drawing on gender and queer studies, Resisting Invisibility investigates the gendering of crime fiction, forcing us to reconsider the literary history of female visibility and prompting us to establish an alternative genealogy for Spanish crime literature.

Itinerarios narrativos de la inmigración actual en España Maja Zovko, 2019. La inmigración hacia España a partir de la década de los noventa del siglo pasado ha trascendido al discurso literario con nuevos argumentos y voces. El presente volumen se propone exponer una investigación acerca de las principales tendencias en la narrativa actual sobre el fenómeno inmigratorio así como un análisis de sus rasgos más específicos. El corpus estudiado incluye tanto la producción de autores españoles como la de nacidos en otros países pero afincados en España. Los diversos ejes temáticos que componen este libro abarcan las indagaciones sobre la influencia de los medios de comunicación en los textos que retratan la inmigración, la novelización de los viajes, en particular la imagen del inmigrante, sus experiencias y percepciones de la sociedad de acogida. El universo recreado del que emprende el camino migratorio se perfila con referencias a su pluralidad cultural, lingüística, religiosa y gastronómica y con evocaciones de los mitos ancestrales que junto con los estereotipos reproducidos y las complejidades identitarias son sometidos a reflexión Paralelamente este estudio aspira a identificar las estrategias narrativas y los símbolos empleados en estas publicaciones y a destacar los enfoques originales surgidos en los últimos años

Africans in Europe Michael Ugarte, 2010 What differentiates emigration from exile This book delves theoretically and practically into this core question of population movements Tracing the shifts of Africans into and out of Equatorial Guinea it explores a small former Spanish colony in central Africa Throughout its history many inhabitants of Equatorial Guinea were forced to leave whether because of the slave trade of the early nineteenth century or the political upheavals of the twentieth century Michael Ugarte examines the writings of Equatorial Guinean exiles and migrants considering the underlying causes of such moves and arguing that the example of Equatorial Guinea is emblematic of broader dynamics of cultural exchange in a postcolonial world Based on personal stories of people forced to leave and those who left of their own accord Africans in Europe captures the nuanced realities and widespread impact of mobile populations Ugarte illustrates the global material inequalities that occur when groups and populations migrate from their native land of colonization to other countries and regions that are often the lands of the former colonizers By focusing on the geographical emotional and intellectual dynamics of Equatorial Guinea's human movements readers gain an insight to the consciousness of an age and an understanding of the global realities that will define the cultural economic and political currents of the twenty first century
