Faust Foutu A Comic Masque:

Faust Foutu Robert Duncan, 1985 Faust Foutu Faust Screwed is a satire featuring a mid 20th century Faust as a bourgeois artist suffering for his art It was first performed by poets and painters in San Francisco in 1955 The book includes drawings by the poet made to accompany the printed text In the early fifties the art of painting was at the cutting edge Clyfford Still Pollock Rothko it s not surprising that this screwed Faust is a painter or that a public reading and performance of the piece should have taken place at San Francisco s most intensely avant garde art gallery the Six Gallery It s no surprise either that the actors in the presentation seated at a long table on a little dais should be friends actors experimental film makers poets painters and playwrights Poet Jack Spicer leaned towards the audience at moments with intensity and almost boyish innocence of expression and near harshness of diction Larry Jordan the film maker had been encouraged by Duncan to just sing loudly and naturally letting his untrained voice carry Faust s songs Painter and life friend of Duncan s Jess Collins spoke his lines with immense clarity and irony The play was being tested on the ear there was no acting out as Duncan did in his solo performances this was to be heard and listen it s still sounding Michael McClure Robert Duncan s comic masque Faust Foutu was first performed in 1955 and published in a small edition in 1960 with drawings by the poet reproduced here in a trade edition Faust Foutu Robert Duncan, Ana Charvelle Legare, 1959 The Skin of Meaning Aaron

Shurin, 2016-02-17 A volume in the Poets on Poetry series which collects critical works by contemporary poets gathering together the articles interviews and book reviews by which they have articulated the poetics of a new generation In The Skin of Meaning Aaron Shurin has collected thirty years worth of his provocative essays Fueled by gender and queer studies and combined with radical traditions in poetry Shurin s essays combine a highly personal and lyrical vision with a trenchant social analysis of poetry s possibilities Whether he s examining innovations in poetic form analyzing the gestures of drag queens or dissecting the language of AIDS Shurin s writing is evocative his investigations rigorous and his point of view unabashed Shurin s poetic practice braids together many strands in contemporary innovative writing from the San Francisco Renaissance to Language Poetry and New Narrative Writing His mentorships with Robert Duncan and Denise Levertov his studies at New College of California where he was the first graduate of the epochal Poetics Program and his years of teaching writing provide a rich background for these essays San Francisco provides the color and context for formulations of prosody now propositions of textual collage and theories of radical narrativity while the heart of the book searches through the dire years of the AIDS epidemic to uncover poetic meaning and make the heroes heroes Seeking Meaning for

Goethe's Faust J. M. van der Laan, 2007-02-01 Faust stories are found across the ages and the arts From its earliest to most recent expressions the Faust figure continues to capture our imagination dealing with problems and themes that are still relevant for a twenty first century audience Of the many variations on the Faust myth Goethe s remains especially provocative and laden with meaning and is the work most responsible for determining the subsequent character of the Faust archetype His Faust reflects an individual who asserts yet wrestles unrelentingly with the futility of faith the bankruptcy of knowledge and the loss of meaning One of the greatest texts of both German and world literature Faust Parts I and II confronts us with pressing questions about rebellion and suffering faith and its loss reality and simulation order and chaos weakness and power technology and human improvement This monograph offers a new interpretation of Goethe s famous play emphasising its continuing significance today     Understanding the Black Mountain Poets Edward Halsey Foster,1995 An experimental school of poetry its leading proponents     Gnostic Contagion Peter O'Leary,2002-06-24 Brings together the study of literature with the psychology and history of religions     Robert Duncan Robert Duncan,2012-12-17 A landmark in the publication of twentieth century American poetry this first volume of the long awaited collected poetry non critical prose and plays of Robert Duncan gathers all of Duncan s books and magazine publications up to and including Letters Poems 1953 1956 Deftly edited it thoroughly documents the first phase of Duncan s distinguished life in writing making it possible to trace the poet s development as he approaches the brilliant work of his middle period This volume includes the celebrated works Medieval Scenes and The Venice Poem all of Duncan s long unavailable major ventures into drama his extensive imitations of Gertrude Stein and the remarkable poems written in Majorca as responses to a series of collaged paste ups by Duncan s life long partner the painter Jess Books appear in chronological order of publication with uncollected periodical and other publications arranged chronologically following each book The introduction includes a biographical commentary on Duncan s early life and works and clears an initial path through the textual complexities of his early writing Notes offer brief commentaries on each book and on many of the poems The volume to follow The Collected Later Poetry and Plays will include The Opening of the Field 1960 Roots and Branches 1964 Bending the Bow 1968 Ground Work 1984 and Ground Work II 1987     The Cambridge History of American Poetry Alfred Bendixen,Stephen Burt,2014-10-27 The Cambridge History of American Poetry offers a comprehensive exploration of the development of American poetic traditions from their beginnings until the end of the twentieth century Bringing together the insights of fifty distinguished scholars this literary history emphasizes the complex roles that poetry has played in American cultural and intellectual life detailing the variety of ways in which both public and private forms of poetry have met the needs of different communities at different times The Cambridge History of American Poetry recognizes the existence of multiple traditions and a dramatically fluid canon providing current perspectives on both major authors and a number of representative figures whose work embodies the diversity of America s democratic traditions     About the Rose Elizabeth Ferrell,2022-02-22 A remarkable portrait of a web of artistic connections traced outward from Jay DeFeo s uniquely generative work of art Through deep archival research and nuanced analysis Elizabeth Ferrell examines the creative exchange that developed with and around The Rose a monumental painting on which the San Francisco artist Jay DeFeo 1929 1989 worked almost exclusively from 1958 to 1966 From its early state to its dramatic removal from DeFeo s studio the painting was a locus of activity among Fillmore District artists Wallace Berman Bruce Conner Wally Hedrick and Michael McClure each took up The Rose in their photographs films paintings and poetry which DeFeo then built upon in turn The resulting works established a dialogue between artists rather than seamless cooperation Illustrated with archival photographs and personal correspondence in addition to the artworks Ferrell s book traces how The Rose became a stage for experimentation with authorship and community defying traditional definitions of collaboration and creating alternatives to Cold War America s political and artistic binaries

The Fire Robin Blaser, 2006-09-29 Spanning four decades of meditation on the avant garde in poetry art and philosophy the essays collected in The Fire reveal Robin Blaser s strikingly fresh perspective on New American poets deconstructive philosophies current events and the state of humanities now The essays gathered in one volume for the first time include commentaries on Jack Spicer Charles Olson Robert Duncan Mary Butts George Bowering Louis Dudek Christos Dikeakos and J S Bach Blaser emerged from the Berkeley Renaissance of the 1940s and 1950s having studied under legendary medieval scholar Ernst Kantorowicz and having been a major participant in the burgeoning literary scene His response to the cultural and political events of his time has been to construct a poetic voice that offers a singular perspective on a shareable world and to pose that voice alongside others as a source of countermemory and potential agency Conceived as conversations these essays brilliantly reflect that ethos as they re read the cultural events of the past fifty years

The Householders Tara McDowell, 2019-09-24 How the poet Robert Duncan and the artist Jess made the household part of their separate and collaborative creative practice I m a householder the poet Robert Duncan once explained My whole idea of being able to work was to have a household In this book Tara McDowell examines the household physical and conceptual that Duncan established with the artist Jess beginning in 1951 when the two men exchanged marriage vows and ending with Duncan s death in 1988 For Duncan and Jess the household rather than the studio gallery or collective provided the support structure for their art Indeed McDowell argues convincingly their work was coextensive with their household The material surroundings of their house in San Francisco and the daily rhythms of their domestic lives became part of their creative practice Duncan wrote poetry that is romantic ornate and obscure Jess born Burgess Franklin Collins created multi imaged complex collages and assemblages McDowell explores their life and work reading Duncan and Jess with and against each other in alignment and misalignment She examines their illustrated book Caesar s Gate a collaborative effort that led them to reject collaboration considers each man s lifelong preoccupation with an unfinished project Jess s Narkissos and Duncan s The H D Book and discusses their origin myths and self made genealogies describing them as a form of witness in the face of the calamities of the twentieth century Duncan and Jess made the household a necessary precondition for their art making Doing so they reclaimed and rehabilitated the domestic from which gay couples were traditionally excluded for their own uses The household permitted them to reimagine the world McDowell s portrait of a couple expands to encompass broader issues urgent in midcentury America and still resonant today belonging and kinship alienation and catastrophe
