Faux Pas Maurice Blanchot, Charlotte Mandell, 2001 Published in France in 1943 Faux Pas is the first collection of essays on literature and language by Maurice Blanchot the most lucid and powerful French critic of the second half of the 20th century

Samuel Beckett's Lyric Failure Mantra Mukim, 2025-03-06 Providing one of the first book length accounts of Samuel Beckett's poetry this work illustrates how Beckett's poetry and its failures reconfigure the lyric form Reading Beckett alongside nineteenth and twentieth century European poets such as Holderlin Mallarmé Rimbaud Montale and Apollinaire the book situates failure in the triangulation of the lyric impulse subjectivity and the human voice Beckett in his poems employs lyric tactics that range from deixis parataxis and caesura to specific kinds of timbre resonances and punctuations These tactics situate the poetic voice in the liminal points between life and death event and non event beginning and ending and more broadly between expression and failure The book frames these liminalities under the rubric of lyric failure Moving beyond the usual comparisons with his prose and drama the study highlights failure as a generative force that structures Beckett's anti expressive poetics

Redemptive Hope Akiba J. Lerner, 2015-09-01 This is a book about the need for redemptive narratives to ward off despair and the dangers these same narratives create by raising expectations that are seldom fulfilled The quasi messianic expectations produced by the election of President Barack Obama in 2008 and their diminution were stark reminders of an ongoing struggle between ideals and political realities Redemptive Hope begins by tracing the tension between theistic thinkers for whom hope is transcendental and intellectuals who have striven to link hopes for redemption to our intersubjective interactions with other human beings Lerner argues that a vibrant democracy must draw on the best of both religious thought and secular liberal political philosophy By bringing Richard Rorty's pragmatism into conversation with early twentieth century Jewish thinkers including Martin Buber and Ernst Bloch Lerner begins the work of building bridges while insisting on holding crucial differences in dialectical tension Only such a dialogue he argues can prepare the foundations for modes of redemptive thought fit for the twenty first century

Enjoying What We Don't Have

Todd McGowan,2020-03-01 Although there have been many attempts to apply the ideas of psychoanalysis to political thought this book is the first to identify the political project inherent in the fundamental tenets of psychoanalysis And this political project Todd McGowan contends provides an avenue for emancipatory politics after the failure of Marxism in the twentieth century Where others seeking the political import of psychoanalysis have looked to Freud s early work on sexuality McGowan focuses on Freud s discovery of the death drive and Jacques Lacan s elaboration of this concept He argues that the self destruction occurring as a result of the death drive is the foundational act of emancipation around which we should construct our political philosophy Psychoanalysis offers the possibility for thinking about emancipation not as an act of overcoming loss but as the embrace of loss It is only through the embrace of loss McGowan suggests that we find the path to enjoyment and enjoyment is the determinative factor in all political struggles and only in a political project that embraces the centrality of loss will we find a viable alternative to global capitalism Jesus, Transcendence, and Generosity Tim Boniface,2018-03-02

Contemporary scholars aiming to articulate a middle way between fundamentalism and liberalism regularly draw upon HansFrei and Dietrich Bonhoeffer yet they are rarely brought together on this question if at all Here Tim Boniface highlights the promise of reading them together proposing especially that a discussion of Jesus transcendence derived from their responses to modernity is an effective locus for considering their combined contribution to a middle way discussion Having outlined a rationale for a theology of Christological transcendence this work describes in detail how both Frei and Bonhoeffer point towards a nuanced approach to the transcendence of Jesus especially in terms of the importance of articulating that transcendence at the level of the unsubstitutable historical particularity of Christ in the cultural linguistic setting of the Christian community Frei and the impact of a theologia crucis and a participatory cosmic Christology on such thinking Bonhoeffer Offering a unique summary of the key ways in which the two theologians works mutually critique and strengthen one another Boniface then articulates a pneumatological emphasis lacking in both Frei and Bonhoeffer stressing the supreme generosity of God at the heart of what it means to say that Jesus transcends Master the Public Safety Dispatcher/911
