Favourite Poems We Learned In School:

Favourite Poems We Learned in School Thomas F. Walsh, 1997-06-01 In today's education system there is no longer such an emphasis on learning by heart as there was in former times. Our parents could recite entire poems from beginning to end word perfect thereby enriching both their lives and their speech. This book looks at how the emphasis has now changed from learning to experiencing poetry. Favourite Poems We Learned in School As Gaeilge Thomas F. Walsh, 1994 A collection of poems in Irish that have been taught in Irish schools. The book gives readers the opportunity to savour again memories of their youth. Thomas F. Walsh is the editor of Favourite Poems We Learned in School and More Favourite Poems We Learned in School. The Illustrated Favourite Poems We Learned at School Thomas F. Walsh (Primary school headmaster), 2017

The Illustrated Favourite Poems We Learned at School Thomas F. Walsh, 1999-05-01 This illustrated edition of The Favourite Poems We Learned at School takes forty of the most popular poems from the three volumes and juxtaposes them with classic photographs of children, schoolrooms and teachers of times past. Some humorous, some quirky, some poignant.

More Favourite Poems We Learned in School, 1994 The Little Illustrated Favourite Poems We Learned at School Thomas F. Walsh, 2000-01-01 This work takes 40 of the most popular poems from the three volumes and juxtaposes them with classic photographs of children, schoolrooms and teachers of times past. Favourite Poems George W. Davidson, 2016-05-25 From verse of the past to modern classics, this anthology of poetry has words for every occasion about youth and age, nature, musings on life and death, wisdom, nonsense, romance and much besides. Each work has been specially chosen to complement the collection. Irish Children's Literature and Culture Keith O'Sullivan, Valerie Coghlan, 2011-03-17 What constitutes a national literature is rarely straightforward and it is especially complex when discussing writing for young people in an Irish context. Until recently there was only a slight body of work that could be classified as Irish children's literature whatever the parameters, in comparison with Ireland's contribution to adult literature in the twentieth century. This volume looks critically at Irish writing for children from the 1980s to the present, examining the work of many writers and illustrators and engaging with all the major forms and genres. Topics include the gothic, the speculative, picturebooks, poetry, post-colonial discourse, identity and ethnicity and globalization. Modern Irish children's literature is also contextualized in relation to Irish mythology and earlier writings, thereby demonstrating the complexity of this fascinating area. The contributors, who are leading experts in their fields, examine a range of texts in relation to contemporary literary and cultural theory and also in relation to writing for adults, thereby inviting a consideration of how well writing for a young audience can compare with writing for an adult one. This groundbreaking work is essential reading for all interested in Irish literature, childhood and children's literature.
