The Accidental Vineyard Richard A. Moran, 2025-10-07 In a story reminiscent of A Year in Provence and We Bought a Zoo a spontaneous drive from San Francisco to wine country leads a harried corporate executive and his family to a dilapidated 19th century Victorian home They set out to return the house to its former grandeur a journey that yields much more ultimately restoring their hope for a well rounded life Consulting with internationally known CEOs and participating in high stakes projects with millions of dollars and thousands of jobs on the line Rich Moran knew the rule there's no room for error no fumbling misgivings or delays While attempting to lull a crying son to sleep a wrong turn on a drive through Sonoma County sets him and his family on a life changing adventure They can't resist a promise laden 19th century home looking past its rotting wraparound porch and leaky roof When a good neighbor shows up with grapevines the transformation of the property grows to include planting a vineyard and making wine Before long the family of city slickers morphs into country mice and joins an unexpected menagerie of people and critters in the shadow of Mount Saint Helena Filled to the brim with all the eccentric follies you expect from a chance undertaking turned passion project The Accidental Vineyard is a raucous tender hearted tale of planting the seeds of your passions and cultivating the life you want

The Thing About Work

Richard A. Moran, 2016-10-14 Why does a CEO who has already made hundreds of millions of dollars continue to work Why does a rock star who has made a bundle continue to tour Why do retirees miss work as soon as they stop doing it Why do we all wrestle with our life's work and talk about it incessantly The thing about work is that we love it we hate it we need it we miss it we measure ourselves by it we judge others by it we are addicted to it Work often defines us and fulfills us Yet today's rapidly changing workplace environment is stressful and confusing to deal with In The Thing About Work Richard A Moran takes a ground level perspective on what is happening at work and how to thrive in the new professional world Through funny prescriptive vignettes and short essays Moran finds the white space in the company manual those issues that you encounter every day at work but which are not covered in employee training He uses hilarious and true stories from his own life and others to answer questions like Should you take your dog to work and How late is late and What is that foreign object growing in the refrigerator This very contemporary view of work will prove invaluable for the modern employee
