Anyone who's ever seen or attended the PDC World Darts Championships knows that darts is no ordinary sport Where else would you find world class superstars in the midst of a championship match cultivating tomorrow's banging hangover Or two separate organisations with a bitter historical rivalry taking potshots at each other in a bid to secure players fans and an all important TV broadcast contract And then there's the fans Darts fans are unlike any other fans in world sport They drink the most they wear the silliest costumes they sing the loudest and yet they can arguably see the least live action They feel an immense pride and ownership for the game it's theirs and they couldn't care less about the sneers from the mainstream Join King ADZ as he dives headfirst into this tempestuous world meeting former legends future stars dominant Internationals the owners the referees and of course the fans Darts may be a simple game to many but to most it's absolute mayhem The Secret Olympian ANON,2012-05-10

The vast majority of us can only dream of being an Olympic level athlete but we have no real idea of what that means Here for the first time in all its shocking funny and downright bizarre glory is the truth of the Olympic experience It is an unimaginable world the kitting out ceremony with its 35kg of team clothing per athlete the pre Olympic holding camp with its practical jokes resentment and fighting and freaky physiological regimes the politicians visits with their flirty spouses the vast range of athletes with their odd body shapes and freakish genetics the release post competition in the Olympic village with all the excessive drinking eating partying and sex not necessarily in that order the hysteria of homecoming celebrations and the comedown that follows how do you adjust to life after the Games The Secret Olympian talks to scores of Olympic athletes past and present from Munich 1960 right through to London 2012 including British American Australian Dutch French Croatian German Canadian and Italian competitors They all have a tale to tell and most of those tales would make your eyes pop more than an Olympic weightlifter's A Journey Toward Living in a State of Grace Jeanne Danowski,2005-04
