Novellesamling udgivet i l bet af de seneste 20 r af en r kke kvindelige persiske forfattere The Routledge Handbook of Persian Literary Translation Pouneh Shabani-Jadidi, Patricia J. Higgins, Michelle Quay, 2022-07-08 The Routledge Handbook of Persian Literary Translation offers a detailed overview of the field of Persian literature in translation discusses the development of the field gives critical expression to research on Persian literature in translation and brings together cutting edge theoretical and practical research The book is divided into the following three parts I Translation of Classical Persian Literature II Translation of Modern Persian Literature and III Persian Literary Translation in Practice The chapters of the book are authored by internationally renowned scholars in the field and the volume is an essential reference for scholars and their advanced students as well as for those researching in related areas and for independent translators of Persian literature Prozak Diaries Orkideh Behrouzan, 2016-10-26 Prozak Diaries is an analysis of emerging psychiatric discourses in post 1980s Iran It examines a cultural shift in how people interpret and express their feeling states by adopting the language of psychiatry and shows how experiences that were once articulated in the richly layered poetics of the Persian language became by the 1990s part of a clinical discourse on mood and affect In asking how psychiatric dialect becomes a language of everyday the book analyzes cultural forms created by this clinical discourse exploring individual professional and generational cultures of medicalization in various sites from clinical encounters and psychiatric training to intimate interviews works of art and media and Persian blogs Through the lens of psychiatry the book reveals how historical experiences are negotiated and how generations are formed Orkideh Behrouzan traces the historical circumstances that prompted the development of psychiatric discourses in Iran and reveals the ways in which they both reflect and actively shape Iranians cultural sensibilities A physician and an anthropologist she combines clinical and anthropological perspectives in order to investigate the gray areas between memory and everyday life between individual symptoms and generational remembering Prozak Diaries offers an exploration of language as experience In interpreting clinical and generational narratives Behrouzan writes not only a history of psychiatry in contemporary Iran but a story of how stories are told Literary Subterfuge and Contemporary Persian Fiction Mohammad Khorrami, 2014-09-25 The main focus of Literary Subterfuge and Contemporary Persian Fiction is to identify components and elements which define Persian modernist fiction placing an emphasis on literary concepts and devices which provide the dynamics of the evolutionary trajectory of this modernism The question of who writes Iran refers to a contested area which goes beyond the discipline of literary criticism Non literary discourses have made every effort to impose their committed readings on literary texts they have even managed to exert influence on the process of literary creation In this process inevitably many works or segments of them and many concepts which do not lend themselves to such readings have been ignored at the same time many of them have been appropriated by these discourses Yet components and elements of Persian literary tradition have persistently engaged in this discursive confrontation mainly by insisting on literature's relative autonomy so that at least concepts such as conformity and subterfuge essential in terms of defining modern and modernist Persian fiction could be defined in a literary manner Proffering an alternative in terms of literary historiography this book supports a methodological approach that considers literary narratives which occur in the margins of dominant discourses and indeed promote non discursivity as the main writers of Persian modernist fiction It is an essential resource for scholars and researchers interested in Persian and comparative literature as well as Middle Eastern Studies more broadly

A Space of Her Own Leela Gulati, Jasodhara Bagchi, 2005-05 Several books have been written about the position of women in India's patriarchal society This collection of twelve narratives however focuses not so much on women's subservient position vis a vis men but on women's relations with each other With the authors locating their personal struggles within those of three generations of women in their families these narratives span a period of over a 100 years and intersect both the private and public domains Each narrative in A Space of Her Own is a tale of how the author fought to establish her own personhood and create a sphere of autonomy where she is able to make decisions to nurture herself and those around her It is stories such as these the editors argue which when repeated over generations will inspire women to live with dignity and to create and defend lives for themselves their families and the women who follow them

Strange Times, My Dear Nahid Mozaffari,Ahmad Karimi-Hakkak,2012-01-13 When Arcade Publishing originally contracted this extraordinary collection of poetry and literature the Department of the Treasury was attempting to censor the publication of works from countries on America s enemies list Arcade along with the PEN American Center the Association of American Publishers Professional and Scholarly Publishing Division and the Association of American University Presses filed a lawsuit in federal court against the United States government Their landmark case forced the Office of Foreign Assets Control to change their regulations regarding editing and publishing literature in translation and Arcade is proud to reissue this anthology that showcases the developments in Iranian literature over the past quarter century Since the Iranian revolution of 1979 the United States has been virtually cut off from that country s culture Despite severe difficulties imposed by social political and economic upheavals as well as war repression and censorship a veritable cultural renewal has taken place in Iran over the past quarter century not only in literature but in music art and cinema Over forty writers from three generations contributed to this rich and varied collection or to use the Persian term golchine a bouquet one that provides a much needed window into a largely undiscovered branch of world literature In the wake of the Green Revolution and sweeping changes in the region this particular golchine is more relevant than ever and will bring literary enjoyment as well as a fuller understanding of a complex and ever shifting culture

My Bird Fariba Vafi,2009-10-20 In this powerful story of life love and the demands of marriage and motherhood Fariba Vafi gives readers a portrait of one woman s struggle to adapt to the complexity of life in modern Iran The narrator a housewife and young mother living in a low income neighborhood in Tehran dwells upon her husband Amir s desire to immigrate to Canada His peripatetic lifestyle underscores her own sense of inertia When he finally slips away the young woman is forced to raise the children alone and care for her ailing mother Vafi s brilliant minimalist style showcases the narrator s reticence and passivity Brief chapters and spare prose provide the ideal architecture for the character s densely packed unexpressed emotions to unfold on the page Haunted by the childhood memory of her father s death in the basement of her house while her mother ignored his entreaties for help the narrator believes she relinquished her responsibility and failed to challenge her mother As a single parent and head of household she must confront her paralyzing guilt and establish her independence Vafi s characters are emblematic of many women in Iran caught between tradition and modernity Demystifying contemporary Iran by taking readers beyond the stereotypes and into the lives of individuals Vafi is one of the most important voices in Iranian literature My Bird heralds her eagerly anticipated introduction
