through a literary lens Providing educational value and thoughtful insights readers are invited to immerse themselves in a carefully curated selection of broad ranging narratives and themes It is an invaluable resource that encourages dialogue among its varied pieces and serves as an invitation to experience the timelessness of holiday reflections within the folds of one beautifully presented volume     Piper's Stories Monty Jordan,2019-07-08 This book was a pleasure for me to write It started as a pen pal project with my nine year old granddaughter so we could stay in touch Well after a couple of letters back and forth I decided to start writing and sending her Bible stories The letters developed into a collection of eleven Bible stories that a child can understand These stories are taken from the King James Version of the Bible and written as they are stated in the Bible and true to what was given to us by God Although the stories were written so a child could understand I believe that anyone can get something out of this book I believe that it is our duty and responsibility to teach children about the word of God If this book helps in any way to do that with even one child or one adult then the purpose of this collection of Bible stories is complete     Medieval Story and the Beginnings of the Social Ideals of English-speaking People William Witherle Lawrence,1911     Parabolic Figures or Narrative Fictions? Charles W. Hedrick,2016-06-10 Hedrick contends that parables do not teach moral and religious lessons they are not in whole or part theological figures for the church Rather parables are realistic narrative fictions that like all effective fiction literature are designed to draw readers into story worlds where they make discoveries about themselves by finding their ideas challenged and subverted or affirmed The parables have endings but not final resolutions because the endings raise new complications for careful readers which require further resolution The narrative contexts and interpretations supplied by the evangelists constitute an attempt by the early church to bring the secular narratives of Jesus under the control of the church s later religious perspectives Each narrative represents a fragment of Jesus s secular vision of reality Finding himself outside the mainstream of parables scholarship both ecclesiastical and critical Hedrick explored a literary approach to the parables in a series of essays that among other things set out the basic rationale for a literary approach to the parables of Jesus These early essays form the central section of the book They are published here in edited form along with unpublished critiques of a thoroughgoing literary approach and his response     The Story of Siegfried James Baldwin,2024-11-23 WHEN the world was in its childhood men looked upon the works of Nature with a strange kind of awe They fancied that every thing upon the earth in the air or in the water had a life like their own and that every sight which they saw and every sound which they heard was caused by some intelligent being All men were poets so far as their ideas and their modes of expression were concerned although it is not likely that any of them wrote poetry This was true in regard to the Saxon in his chilly northern home as well as to the Greek in the sunny southland In the north a different story was told but the meaning was the same Sometimes men told how Odin the All Father had become angry with Brunhild the maid of spring and had wounded her with the thorn of sleep and how all the castle in which she slept was wrapped in deathlike slumber until Sigurd or Siegfried the sunbeam rode through flaming fire and awakened her with a kiss Sometimes men told how Loki had betrayed Balder the sunlight and had induced blind old Hoder the winter months to slay him and how all things living and inanimate joined in weeping for the bright god until Hela death should permit him to revisit the earth for a time So too when the sun arose and drove away the darkness and the hidden terrors of the night our ancestors thought of the story of a noble young hero slaying a hideous dragon or taking possession of the golden treasures of Mist Land And when the springtime came and the earth renewed its youth and the fields and woods were decked in beauty and there was music everywhere they loved to tell of Idun the spring and her youth giving apples and of her wise husband Bragi Nature's musician When storm clouds loomed up from the horizon and darkened the sky and thunder rolled overhead and lightning flashed on every hand they talked about the mighty Thor riding over the clouds in his goat drawn chariot and battling with the giants of the air When the mountain meadows were green with long grass and the corn was yellow for the sickles of the reapers they spoke of Sif the golden haired wife of Thor the queen of the pastures and the fields When the seasons were mild and the harvests were plentiful and peace and gladness prevailed they blessed Frey the giver of good gifts to men To them the blue sky dome which everywhere hung over them like an arched roof was but the protecting mantle which the All Father had suspended above the earth The rainbow was the shimmering bridge which stretches from earth to heaven The sun and the moon were the children of a giant whom two wolves chased forever around the earth The stars were sparks from the fire land of the south set in the heavens by the gods Night was a giantess dark and swarthy who rode in a car drawn by a steed the foam from whose bits sometimes covered the earth with dew And Day was the son of Night and the steed which he rode lighted all the sky and the earth with the beams which glistened from his mane

The Story of Radio Mind Pamela E. Klassen, 2018-04-23 At the dawn of the radio age in the 1920s a settler mystic living on northwest coast of British Columbia invented radio mind Frederick Du Vernet Anglican archbishop and self declared scientist announced a psychic channel by which minds could telepathically communicate across distance Retelling Du Vernet's imaginative experiment Pamela Klassen shows us how agents of colonialism built metaphysical traditions on land they claimed to have conquered Following Du Vernet's journey westward from Toronto to Ojibwe territory and across the young nation of Canada Pamela Klassen examines how contests over the mediation of stories via photography maps printing presses and radio lucidly reveal the spiritual work of colonial settlement A city builder who bargained away Indigenous land to make way for the railroad Du Vernet knew that he lived on the territory of Tsmsyen Nisga'a and Haida nations who had never ceded their land to the onrush of Canadian settlers He condemned the devastating effects on Indigenous families of the residential schools run by his church while still serving that church Testifying to the power of radio mind with evidence from the apostle Paul and the philosopher Henri Bergson Du Vernet found a way to explain the world that he his church and his country made Expanding approaches to religion and media studies to ask how sovereignty is made through stories Klassen shows how the spiritual invention of colonial nations takes place at the same time that Indigenous peoples including Indigenous Christians resist colonial dispossession through stories and spirits of their own
