Feast Of Our Lives Re Imaging Communion:

The Feast of Our Lives June Christine Goudey, 2002 June Christine Goudey presents a masterful critique of sacrificial imagery in the Eucharist. She introduces a significant new framework in which worship leaders and participants experience the Eucharist as a more celebratory event. She imagines a feast of personal and communal joy while downplaying the somber motifs of cross and death. The constructive insights of the book rest on the premise that imagination is central to human becoming since imagination relates to our openness to the new and our receptivity to embracing God's realm. Goudey envisions a realm of radical inclusivity, openness, and generosity where well-being and abundant life reside. Goudey endorses tenets and liturgies that undergird what she terms a redemptionist theology of Holy Communion honoring God's creation of women in God's own image, the diversity of women's experience, and the worthiness of every woman's life. The Feast of Our Lives also examines the links between traditional understandings of the Eucharist, the development of atonement theologies, and apocalyptic influences on Eucharist and penance.

Recovering the Love Feast Paul Fike Stutzman, 2011-01-01 What is a Love Feast? How did the early church celebrate the Love Feast? How might Christians today celebrate the Love Feast? In Recovering the Love Feast, Paul Stutzman addresses these questions, offering a unique blend of liturgical history and practical theology. Part I outlines the history of the Love Feast, noting its prevalence in early church worship, its gradual decline, and its reemergence in the practices of several Pietist groups, e.g., the Moravians, Methodists, and Brethren. Particular focus is given to five elements of the celebration: that is, eucharistic preparation, footwashing, the fellowship meal, the holy kiss, and the Eucharist proper. In Part II, Stutzman argues that the Love Feast is a valuable Christian practice and a celebration worth recovering in those traditions that may have forgotten the feast. Rather than prescribing a specific method for celebrating the Love Feast, Stutzman proposes that there are five key disciplines that today's Love Feasts should embody: submission, love, confession, reconciliation, and thanksgiving. This book encourages Christians from a range of traditions to experiment with reclaiming the Love Feast with the hope that each celebration serves as an act of worship to God and an authentic expression of Christian discipleship.

Healing the Wounds of Sexual Abuse Elaine A. Heath, 2019-03-19 This accessibly written book illuminates the good news of healing and liberation: the Bible offers survivors of sexual abuse. As an expert in pastoral ministry and a survivor of abuse herself, Elaine Heath handles this sensitive topic with compassion and grace. The book is illustrated with stories and insights from survivors, and each chapter ends with reflection questions and recommended activities. Previously published as We Were the Least of These, this repackaged edition includes a new contextualized introduction that explores how the book speaks into a vital cultural conversation. MeToo

New Feminist Christianity Mary E. Hunt, Diann L. Neu, 2012-01-01 Powerful insights from ministers, theologians, activists, leaders, artists, and liturgists who are shaping the future. Christianity has been a source of the oppression of women as well as a resource for unleashing women's full humanity. Feminist analysis and practice have recognized this. Feminist Christianity is reshaping religious institutions and religious life in more holistic inclusive and justice focused ways from the Introduction Feminism has brought many changes to Christian religious practice From inclusive language and imagery about the Divine to an increase in the number of women ministers Christian worship will never be the same Yet even now there is a lack of substantive structural change in many churches and complacency within denominations The contributors to this book are the thought leaders who are shaping and being shaped by the emerging directions of feminist Christianity They speak from across the denominational spectrum and from the many diverse groups that make up the Christian community as it finds its place in a religiously pluralistic world Taken together their voices offer a starting point for building new models of religious life and worship Topics covered include feminist Theological Visions Scriptural Insights Ethical Agendas Liturgical and Artistic Frontiers Ministerial Challenges

We Were the Least of These Elaine A. Heath, 2011-05-01 Much of what is written about abuse and the Bible focuses on the ways Scripture is used to hurt rather than heal This accessibly written book provides a much needed perspective illuminating the good news of healing and liberation that the Bible offers survivors of sexual abuse As a theologian and survivor of abuse herself Elaine Heath handles this sensitive topic with compassion and grace She offers a close reading of several biblical passages that have proven to be profoundly healing for her and for other survivors The book is illustrated with stories and insights from sexual abuse survivors who have experienced healing through the Bible in order to bring hope and encouragement to victims It will be welcome reading for those who have suffered from abuse as well as for pastors counselors therapists and others who minister to them Each chapter ends with two sets of reflection questions and recommended activities one set for survivors and another for those who journey with them In Search of God's Power in Broken Bodies the volume are based on primary fieldwork and place based case studies Others relate literature music and film to important theoretical works providing a new direction in interdisciplinary studies and highlighting the role that the arts play in community revival and broader processes of social change A truly multi disciplinary book bridging established notions of civil society and community through an authentically interdisciplinary approach to the topic      Reimagining Worship Helen

Anchoresses Anneke B. Mulder-Bakker, 2013-06-15 In cities and towns across northern Europe in the twelfth and thirteenth centuries a new type of religious woman took up authoritative positions in society all the while living as public recluses in cells attached to the sides of churches In Lives of the Anchoresses Anneke Mulder Bakker offers a new history of these women who chose to forsake the world but did not avoid it Unlike nuns anchoresses maintained their ties to society and belonged to no formal religious order From their solitary anchorholds in very public places they acted as teachers and counselors and in some cases theological innovators for parishioners who would speak to them from the street through small openings in the walls of their cells Available at all hours the anchoresses were ready to care for the community's faithful whenever needed Through careful biographical studies of five emblematic anchoresses Mulder Bakker reveals the details of these influential religious women The life of the unnamed anchoress who was mother to Guibert of Nogent shows the anchoress's role as a spiritual guide in an oral culture A study of Yvette of Huy shows the myriad possibilities open to one woman who eventually chose the life of an anchoress The accounts of Juliana of Cornillon and Eve of St Martin raise questions about the participation of religious women in theological discussions and their contributions to church liturgy And the biographical study of Margaret the Lame of Magdeburg explores the anchoress's role as day to day religious instructor to the ordinary faithful      Select Notes Mary Abby Thaxter Peloubet, 1900      The Life of the Blessed Virgin Mary abbé

Giving the Church Michael

Moynagh,2024-05-30 The nucleus of the church's vocation is to join the Spirit in giving communion in Christ to others in the form of new Christian communities for the benefit of the world But can the church be a welcome gift In Giving the Church leading ecclesialogist Michael Moynagh draws together recent thinking from the worlds of ecclesiology and missiology with significant sociological work on the idea of gift to provide a much needed theological rationale for some of the key missiological and ecclesiological movements in today's church Part 1 reworks some of the big themes in ecclesiology from this giving perspective the nature of the church the four marks the visible hidden church and inclusion exclusion Part 2 meanwhile draws on the extensive literature on gifts to offer an ethical framework for giving the church to others and uses this framework to provide fresh readings of liberationist herald and eucharistic models of the church It concludes by arguing that giving the church away can be a route to making the church a more attractive gift Wittenberg Meets the World
