 program the Federal Writers Project FWP aimed to put unemployed writers teachers and librarians to work The contributors were to collect information write essays conduct interviews and edit material with the goal of producing guidebooks in each of the then forty eight states and U S territories Project administrators hoped that these guides known as the American Guide Series would promote a national appreciation for America s history culture and diversity and preserve democracy at a time when militarism was on the rise and parts of the world were dominated by fascism Marilyn Irvin Holt focuses on the Nebraska project which was one of the most prolific branches of the national program Best remembered for its state guide and series of folklore and pioneer pamphlets the project also produced town guides published a volume on African Americans in Nebraska and created an ethnic study of Italians in Omaha In Nebraska during the New Deal Holt examines Nebraska s contribution to the project both in terms of its place within the national FWP as well as its operation in comparison to other state projects      Tall Tale America Walter Blair,2018-12-01 Johnny Appleseed Davy Crockett Pecos Bill Paul Bunyan and John Henry have all become heroes of American folklore Some of them like Crockett were real but all have become the subject of tall tales This is a folksy history of the United States told as if the characters were all real This panoramic if completely untrue history begins with Columbus En route to its end in the 1940s where traditional American heroes are enlisted to fight in World War II it covers the great and small events of our national history including the overlooked but important ones such as the invention of the prairie dog Washington Post Book World      New York Folklore Quarterly ,1965 Includes music
