Dibia, 2017-11-28 In this book Jeremiah I Dibia challenges prevailing notions of Africa's development crisis by drawing attention to the role of modernization as a way of understanding the nature and dynamics of the crisis and how to overcome the problem of underdevelopment He specifically focuses on Nigeria and its development trajectory since it exemplifies the crisis of underdevelopment in the continent He explores various theoretical and empirical issues involved in understanding the crisis including state class gender and culture often neglected in analysis from an interdisciplinary radical political economy perspective This is the first book to adopt such an approach and to develop a new framework for analyzing Nigeria's and Africa's development crisis It will influence the debate on the development dilemma of African and Third World societies and will be of interest to scholars and students of race and ethnicity modern African history class analysis gender studies and development studies The History of Chinese Presence in Nigeria (1950s-2010s) Shaonan Liu, 2022-06-29 As the first book length work on the history of Chinese presence in Nigeria this book examines how Chinese migrants and the Nigerian state workers traders and consumers interacted with and influenced one another from the mid twentieth century to the early twenty first century Based on a combination of archival sources and oral history interviews this book argues that the significant Chinese presence in Nigeria Chinese owned factories commodities and entrepreneurs is not as recent a phenomenon as it might appear As early as the 1950s an influential yet understudied group of Chinese entrepreneurs moved to Nigeria set up factories and gradually came to dominate some of the country's key manufacturing industries such as textile and enamelware over subsequent decades Such dominance remained unchallenged until the coming of mainland Chinese traders with their made in China goods in the late 1990s dramatically changing the structure and influential pattern of the Chinese in Nigeria The research also emphasizes African Nigerian agency in shaping this Chinese presence both economically and culturally This is a vital read for academics researchers and students of African History African Studies Chinese Studies and those who are interested in contemporary issues relating to Africa China relations Decolonizing Independence Lynn Schler, 2022-10-01 Even before it gained independence in 1960 the process of nation building in Nigeria was plagued by regional ethnic and class conflict Decolonizing Independence Statecraft in Nigeria's First Republic and Israeli Interventions examines how many of the leading figures of what would become Nigeria's First Republic 1963 1966 formed relations with Israel to help navigate the challenges of statecraft and development As Nigeria transitioned to independence the dealings between its political elite and Israeli diplomats helped advance the ideological aspirations economic ventures development schemes and political agendas that defined the era Moving beyond the familiar history of Nigeria's struggle with former colonizer Britain Decolonizing Independence uses Israeli Nigerian diplomatic relations to provide a novel window into the political cultures ideologies and leadership strategies that shaped statecraft in Nigeria Tracing the events and dynamics that increasingly ensnared Israel in the smoldering political landscape of the First Republic this volume sheds light on the postcolonial imaginaries of the Nigerian elite as they attempted to lead a divided nation through the process of decolonization

Routledge Handbook of Global Economic History Francesco Boldizzoni, Pat Hudson, 2015-12-22 The Routledge Handbook of Global Economic History documents and interprets the development of economic history as a global discipline from the later nineteenth century to the present day Exploring the normative and relativistic nature of different schools and traditions of thought this handbook not only examines current paradigmatic western approaches but also those conceived in less open societies and in varied economic political and cultural contexts In doing so this book clears the way for greater critical understanding and a more genuinely global approach to economic history This handbook brings together leading international contributors in order to systematically address cultural and intellectual traditions around the globe Many of these are exposed for consideration for the first time in

Duze, 2008-05-20 One of the critical concerns in Nigeria is how to alleviate poverty in the country The general prevalence of poverty in Nigeria is paradoxical because the country is one of the biggest oil producing countries in the world A 1999 World Bank report for instance showed that some 70 per cent of the population lives below the bread line usually considered as living on less than US 1.00 a day This raises a number of very important questions What are really responsible for the wide prevalence of poverty in Nigeria in the midst of plenty How is poverty manifested in the country What alleviation strategies are in place How effective are they And what are the implications of all these for the country s democracy project political stability nation building and development discourse Contributors to this volume address these questions and provide insights into some of the central issues in the discussion of poverty including how the poor themselves struggle to cope or adapt to their condition Using multidisciplinary perspectives the contributors critique the current alleviation strategies and recommend more viable and better targeted approaches that will sharply reduce the incidence of poverty in Nigeria
