ÉCRITS AUTOBIOGRAPHIQUES

Depuis que Darwin m'a octroyé le titre d'incomparable observateur, ce qualificatif m'est revenu bien des fois, un peu de-ci, un peu de-là, sans que je comprenne encore en quoi j'ai bien mérité. C'est si naturel, ce me semble, si à la portée de chacun, si entraînant de s'intéresser à tout ce qui grouille autour de nous ! Enfin passons, admettons que le compliment soit fondé.

Ecrits Autobiographiques:

Ecrits autobiographiques Walter Benjamin, 1994 Ce volume rassemble la plupart des textes autobiographiques de Walter Benjamin Ce registre Benjamin l'ouvre l'occasion de voyages Italie d'une rencontre importante Brecht ou lorsque affluent les souvenirs d'enfance c'est alors la Chronique berlinoise d'autant plus précieuse qu'elle n'est rythmée que par l'épiphanie du souvenir On sait que Benjamin proscrivait le je de ses textes s'il semble d'écarter cette règle ici c'est au moyen de la note où celui qui critique se tait pour laisser parler les choses et fixer les idées au moment où elles surgissent Ces textes souvent fragmentaires témoignent par leur diversité de la cohérence d'une pensée et donnent à lire le parcours d'une vie où les crises personnelles font souvent entendre leur voix

The Cult of the Modern Gavin Murray-Miller, 2017 The Cult of the Modern focuses on nineteenth century France and Algeria and examines the role that ideas of modernity and modernization played in both national and colonial programs during the years of the Second Empire and the early Third Republic Gavin Murray Miller rethinks the subject by examining the idiomatic use of modernity in French cultural and political discourse The Cult of the Modern argues that the modern French republic is a product of nineteenth century colonialism rather than a creation of the Enlightenment or the French Revolution This analysis contests the predominant Parisian and metropolitan contexts that have traditionally framed French modernity studies noting the important role that colonial Algeria and the administration of Muslim subjects played in shaping understandings of modern identity and governance among nineteenth century politicians and intellectuals In synthesizing the narratives of continental France and colonial North Africa Murray Miller proposes a new framework for nineteenth century French political and cultural history bringing into sharp relief the diverse ways in which the French nation was imagined and represented throughout the country's turbulent postrevolutionary history as well as the implications for prevailing understandings of France today

Women Intellectuals in Post-68 France I. Long, 2013-10-30 Accounts of public intellectuals in France and French feminism have focused on a specific set of women thinkers overlooking some major women intellectuals This book aims to redress this balance by studying these forgotten intellectuals creating a cultural and theoretical re-evaluation of the gendered phenomenon of the public intellectual in France

L'épuisement du biographique? Vincent Broqua, Guillaume Marche, 2010-10-12 Pourquoi penser le biographique N'est-il pas possible Le silence passé semble l'avoir vidé de son contenu et de sa substance et l'a réduit à un état d'affaiblissement presque complet dans le domaine des sciences sociales comme dans celui de la critique littéraire L'enjeu de cet ouvrage est d'affirmer que le biographique déborde la

biographie et de considérer le biographique comme une condition du retour de la biographie au moyen de son dépasement

William Wordsworth and the Theology of Poverty

Heidi J. Snow, 2016-02-17 Exploring the relationship between poverty and religion in William Wordsworth's poetry Heidi J. Snow challenges the traditional view that the poet's early years were primarily irreligious She argues that this idea based on the equation of Christianity with Anglicanism discounts the richly varied theological landscape of Wordsworth's youth Reading Wordsworth's poetry in the context of the diversity of theological views represented in his milieu Snow shows that poems like The Excursion reject Anglican orthodoxy in favor of a meld of Quaker Methodist and deist theologies Rather than support a narrative of Wordsworth's life as a journey from atheism to orthodoxy or even from radicalism to conservatism therefore Wordsworth's body of work consistently makes a case for a sensitive approach to the problem of the poor that relies on a multifaceted theological perspective To reconstruct the religious context in which Wordsworth wrote in its complexity Snow makes extensive use of the materials in the record offices of the Lake District and the religious sermons and congregational records for the orthodox Anglican evangelical Anglican Methodist and Quaker congregations Snow's depiction of the multiple religious traditions in the Lake District complicates our understanding of Wordsworth's theological influences and his views on the poor

Emilie du Châtelet between Leibniz and Newton Ruth Hagengruber, 2011-10-29

Emilie du Châtelet was one of the most influential woman philosophers of the Enlightenment Her writings on natural philosophy physics and mechanics had a decisive impact on important scientific debates of the 18th century Particularly she took an innovative and outstanding position in the controversy between Newton and Leibniz one of the fundamental scientific discourses of that time The contributions in this volume focus on this Leibnitian turn They analyze the nature and motivation of Emilie du Châtelet's synthesis of Newtonian and Leibnitian philosophy Apart from the Institutions Physiques they deal with Emilie du Châtelet's annotated translation of Isaac Newton's Principia The chapters presented here collectively demonstrate that her work was an essential contribution to the mediation between empiricist and rationalist positions in the history of science

The Object of Literature

Pierre Macherey, 1995-03-16 This 1995 book by Pierre Macherey was his first dealing with literature and theory since his seminal A Theory of Literary Production Continuing the project of Althusserian theory

Macherey engages in a series of close exegeses of classical texts in French literature and philosophy from the late eighteenth century down to the 1970s that explore the historically variable but thematically similar ways in which literary texts represent philosophical ideas Rejecting the simple notion that literature deploys philosophical topoi in an unmediated manner Macherey shows the conceptual sophistication and broad intellectual influence that literary art has displayed in the modern period At once a theoretical meditation of great originality and a historical work of scrupulous scholarship The Object of Literature will entrench Pierre Macherey's already considerable reputation as one of the most significant contemporary theoreticians of literature

Gramsci's Politics of Language Peter Ives, 2004-01-01 Antonio Gramsci and his concept of hegemony have permeated social and political theory cultural studies education studies literary criticism international relations and post colonial theory The centrality of language and linguistics to Gramsci's thought however has been wholly neglected In Gramsci's Politics of Language Peter Ives argues that a university education in linguistics and a preoccupation with Italian language politics were integral to the theorist's thought Ives explores how the combination of Marxism and linguistics produced a unique and intellectually powerful approach to social and political analysis To explicate Gramsci's writings on language Ives compares them with other Marxist approaches to language including those of the Bakhtin Circle Walter Benjamin and the Frankfurt School including Jürgen Habermas From these comparisons Ives elucidates the implications of Gramsci's writings which he argues retained the explanatory power of the semiotic and dialogic insights of Bakhtin and the critical perspective of the Frankfurt School while at the same time foreshadowing the key problems with both approaches that post structuralist critiques would later reveal Gramsci's Politics of Language fills a crucial gap in scholarship linking Gramsci's writings to current debates in social theory and providing a framework for a thoroughly historical materialist approach to language

Selfish Gifts Lisa McNee, 2000-06-01 Winner of the 2001 Joel Gregory Prize presented by the Canadian Association of African Studies Offering Senegalese women's autobiographical discourses as an original contribution to the critical debate about identity and self representation Lisa McNee asks how Senegalese women represent themselves rather than asking who has the right to represent them Selfish Gifts describes and analyzes the public spaces for verbal self representation that the Wolof form of panegyric taasu and written autobiographies offer to women In contrasting performances of taasu to autobiographical works written in French McNee addresses important issues in literary criticism folklore studies and anthropology and develops a theory of an African aesthetic of self representation The Rise and Fall of Modern Empires, Volume III Sarah Stockwell, 2017-03-02 Few aspects of the history of modern empires are of such significance as their economics and politics These factors are inextricably linked in many analyses have generated extensive historiographical debate and are currently the subject of some of the freshest and liveliest scholarship The articles and chapters which are brought together in this volume relate not only to the European colonial empires but also to the Napoleonic Russian and Japanese empires The collection is strongly comparative in approach with the articles arranged into thematic sections on the place of politics and economics in the rise and fall of modern empires the causal relationship between modern empires and colonial global and metropolitan economic transformations and the technologies of rule which provided the frameworks through which colonial economies were managed and rights defined The collection reflects new approaches as well as the continuing importance of issues addressed in an older historiography and the thematic arrangement produces useful juxtapositions of older and newer literatures The substantial introduction explores the themes and identifies key historiographical trends in relation to each American Ecclesiastical Review Herman Joseph Heuser, 1957
