Economic Liberalization And Integration In East Asia A Post Crisis Paradigm:

Economic Liberalization and Integration in East Asia Yung Chul Park, 2005-12-15 Several years before the 1997 98 Asian financial crisis most East Asian economies with the exception of China had engaged in the liberal reform prescriptions of the Washington Consensus The Asian financial crisis added impetus to the transformation process as the crisis countries accepted the Washington Consensus as part of their commitment to the IMF policy conditionality In this book the author argues for the continuing validity of an East Asian model of economic development that differs distinctly from the Washington Consensus He argues that while this model was undermined to some extent by the 1997 98 financial crisis it remains robust and important in explaining economic events in East Asia In doing so he covers the accomplishments and failures of the East Asian development model and the reform agenda for a new East Asian paradigm for post crisis development

Initiatives of Regional Integration in Asia in Comparative Perspective Howard Loewen, Anja

Zorob,2018-03-12 This volume offers to compare and explain variances of regionalism in Asia by disclosing the distinctive features of regional arrangements and how they evolved during the 1990s and 2000s against the background of a changing global environment Moreover it takes up a genuinely inter Asian perspective By analysing and comparing diverse manifestations of regional integration agreements across Asia and its different sub regions it sets out to track their common characteristics and sub regional facets with respect to their establishment design and consequences In addition political processes accompanying their negotiation and implementation are scrutinized The analysis encompasses nine case studies written by renowned scholars who together as a group combine an extraordinary mixture of different disciplinary backgrounds as well as expertise on shapes and processes of regional integration in different parts of Asia The case studies seize on some of the most important features and controversial issues characterizing the second regionalism Such are the emergence and impact of overlapping FTAs regional financial and sub regional economic integration and cooperation power and the politics of regional integration as well as the nexus between conflict resolution state failure and regional integration
