Space in Urban and Regional Economics Kakuya Matsushima, William P. Anderson, 2018-04-27 This collection of 16 original research chapters by international scholars addresses the complementary roles of transportation and knowledge and their spatial manifestations in modern urban and regional economies The authors provide research from North America Europe and Asia While the studies employ sophisticated methods and theory there is a strong element of practical applications and policy implications in each chapter as well This book will be of interest to communities of research and practice in urban and regional economics and planning regional science and economic geography transportation research planning and management and the knowledge economy

Innovation Policy in the Knowledge-Based Economy M.P. Feldman, Albert N. Link, 2001-02-28 Scholars in the science and technology field have not collectively questioned much less proposed an agenda for policy makers Now is an appropriate time for such an undertaking First there is a growing belief that the U S national research and development system like that of many industrial nations is changing due to global competitive pressures and advancements in information technology and electronic commerce Second industry s R D relationship with the academic research community is changing not only because of the global competition but also because of alterations in the level of government support of fundamental research As a result policy makers will need to rethink their approaches to science and technology issues This volume is a collection of essays by scholars about innovative policy in the knowledge based economy By knowledge based economy we mean one for which economic growth is based on the creation distribution and use of technology As such innovation policy in such an economy must enhance the creation distribution and use of knowledge that leads to the creation distribution and use of technology This volume considers elements of an innovation policy innovation policy and academic research innovation policy in electronic commerce and innovation policy and globalization issues
