A History of Christianity in Asia, Vol. II Samuel Hugh Moffett,2014-07-30 The story of Christianity in the West has often been told but the history of Christianity in the East is not as well known The seed was the same the good news of Jesus Christ for the whole world which Christians call the gospel But it was sown by different sowers it was planted in different soil it grew with a different flavor and it was gathered by different reapers It is too often forgotten that the faith moved east across Asia as early as it moved west into Europe Western church history tends to follow Paul to Philippi and to Rome and on across Europe to the conversion of Constantine and the barbarians With some outstanding exceptions only intermittently has the West looked beyond Constantinople as its center It was a Christianity that has for centuries remained unashamedly Asian A History of Christianity in Asia makes available immense amounts of research on religious pluralism of Asia and how Christianity spread long before the modern missionary movement went forth in the shelter of Western military might Invaluable for historians of Asia and scholars of mission it is stimulating for all readers interested in Christian history

Pentecost and Parousia Peter D. Hocken, 2013-10-23 As the charismatic movement penetrated the Protestant churches and then impacted the Catholic Church great hopes for Christian unity were aroused among many These hopes peaked with the great Kansas City conference of 1977 and the Pentecost over Europe gathering in Strasbourg France in 1982 After these high points the Renewal s unity dynamic weakened at the same time as the ecumenical movement was losing momentum Dr Hocken argues that the charismatic movement was always a grace for unity and that this can be seen from how it began and spread Its deep orientation to unity finds its foundation in the end times significance of baptism in the Spirit poured out on Christians from so many traditions that reinforces the one hope for the coming of the Lord Many developments of the last twenty years indicate that the time is now ripe for an ecumenism of the Spirit within which the charismatic impulses of the Holy Spirit can purify and deepen the wider movement for Christian unity Growing reconciliation between Evangelicals and Catholics suddenly seems less utopian as Pope Francis shows the
