Field Trips in Environmental Education Martin Storksdieck, 2011-01-01 Hauptbeschreibung Field trips are a popular method for introducing students to concepts ideas and experiences that cannot be provided in a classroom environment This is particularly true for trans disciplinary areas of teaching and learning such as science or environmental education While field trips are generally viewed by educators as beneficial to teaching and learning and by students as a cherished alternative to classroom instruction educational research paints a more complex picture At a time when school systems demand proof of the educational value of field trips large gaps often exist. Informal Learning and Field Trips Leah M. Melber, 2015-02-03 Turn every field trip into a high quality learning experience What youngster isn't excited at the prospect of taking a field trip Enthusiastic students present teachers with the ideal scenario for creating meaningful out of the classroom encounters and giving students the building blocks to help them become active participants in their own educational process This resource helps educators take full advantage of off site educational opportunities by developing lessons that connect informal learning with content standards Based on constructivist philosophy and inquiry based learning the book provides numerous sample lesson plans and technology tips and includes Learner centered activities for language arts math science social studies and fine art Ways to support English Language Learners and special education students Guidelines for developing corresponding classroom activities Strategies for building partnerships with informal learning sites Methods for bringing museum type activities into the classroom when a trip is not possible Field trips turn the whole world into a classroom Informal Learning and Field Trips helps enrich students lives as they explore the world outside the school grounds and gives teachers a prime opportunity to revitalize the learning experience Rethinking Field Experiences in Preservice Teacher Preparation Etta R. Hollins, 2015-03-12 The focus of this book is the centrality of clinical experiences in preparing teachers to work with students from diverse cultural economic and experiential backgrounds Organized around three themes learning teaching through the approximation and representation of practice learning teaching situated in context and assessing and improving teacher preparation Rethinking Field Experiences in Preservice Teacher Preparation provides detailed descriptions of theoretically grounded research based practices in programs that prepare preservice teachers to contextualize teaching practices in ways that result in a positive impact on learning for traditionally underserved students These practices serve current demands for teacher accountability for student learning outcomes and model good practice for engaging teacher educators in meaningful productive dialogue and analysis geared to developing local programs characterized by coherence continuity and consistency Handbook of Field Experiments Esther Duflo, Abhijit Banerjee, 2017-03-21 Handbook of Field Experiments Volume Two explains how to conduct experimental research presents a catalog of research to date and describes which areas remain to be explored The new volume includes sections on field experiments in education in developing countries how to design social protection programs a section on how to combat poverty and updates on data relating to the impact and determinants of health levels in low income countries Separating itself from circumscribed debates of specialists this volume surpasses the many journal articles and narrowly defined books written by practitioners This ongoing series will be of particular interest to scholars working with experimental methods Users will find results from politics education and more Balances methodological insights with analyses of principal findings and suggestions for further research Appeals broadly to social scientists seeking to develop an expertise in field experiments Written in a language that is accessible to graduate students and non specialist economists Research in

Education ,1970 Field Experiences in Teacher Education from Student to Teacher D. John McIntyre,1983 A comprehensive analysis of literature on field experiences for the preservice teacher is divided into sections which focus on the 1 influences of field experiences on the attitudes and behavior of preservice teachers 2 roles of university student teacher supervisors and cooperating teachers 3 structure of field experience programs and models 4 evaluation of student teacher performance during field experience and 5 assessment of the success of field experiences A summary section includes the conclusion that field experience in teacher education is threatened by the lack of commitment by higher education the low status of clinical faculty the lack of objective evaluation criteria the loss of control to teacher unions and state legislatures and the lack of relationship between field and campus study In addition to 11 recommendations for improving field programs descriptions of 17 exemplary field experience programs in the United States and Canada are appended along with references JD Early Childhood Teacher Education on Cultural Competence NAECTE Urban Education Teacher Research

Network,2018-09-13 Early Childhood Teacher Education on Cultural Competence discusses how early childhood preservice teachers can use teacher research to explore and gain cultural competence enabling them to support students and families from diverse backgrounds The book opens by describing the role of the university in preparing culturally competent teachers in urban settings and then explores historical perspectives of cultural competence Chapters then move toward more practical perspectives of supporting families from racially diverse backgrounds understanding diverse families interprofessional education and collaboration teacher resiliency and social justice Although the chapters focus on cultural competence in urban settings they offer all early childhood teacher educators a challenge to address cultural competence in all settings
