Levine, 2018-02-02 In his final work Donald N Levine one of the great late twentieth century sociological theorists brings together diverse social thinkers Simmel Weber Durkheim Parsons and Merton are set into a dialogue with philosophers such as Hobbes Smith Montesquieu Comte Kant and Hegel and pragmatists such as Peirce James Dewey and McKeon to describe and analyze dialogical social theory This volume is one of Levine's most important contributions to social theory and a worthy summation of his life's work Levine demonstrates that approaching social theory with a cooperative peaceful dialogue is a superior tactic in theorizing about society He illustrates the advantages of the dialogical model with case studies drawn from the French Philosophes the Russian Intelligentsia Freudian psychology Ushiba s aikido and Levine s own ethnographic work in Ethiopia Incorporating themes that run through his lifetime s work such as conflict resolution ambiguity and varying forms of social knowledge Levine suggests that while dialogue is an important basis for sociological theorizing it still vies with more combative forms of discourse that lend themselves to controversy rather than cooperation often giving theory a sense of standing still as the world moves forward The book was nearly finished when Levine died in April 2015 but it has been brought to thoughtful and thought provoking completion by his friend and colleague Howard G Schneiderman This volume will be of great interest to students and teachers of social theory and philosophy
