Exploring Gender and LGBTQ Issues in K-12 and Teacher Education Adrian D. Martin, Kathryn J. Strom, 2019-03-01 Past research on gender and LGBTQ issues in K 12 and teacher education has primarily focused on identifying ways of fostering inclusive and affirmative school communities for non cis and or queer students and enabling learning contexts to promote academic learning Much of this work has attended to theorizing pedagogies and curricula conducive towards such an aim Yet despite legal advances for gender equity and LGBTQ rights in diverse global contexts and the increased visibility of LGBTQ issues in mainstream media non cis and queer individuals especially those of color continue to experience violence face housing discrimination employment discrimination and the denial of service in public businesses In light of the numerous growing conservative movements to not only roll back legal advances for LGBTQ individuals but to also promote a culture of homophobia and transphobia scholars must attend to the myriad ways in which members of the school community can counter such efforts and how the multiple facets of the educative experience can be conceptualized beyond a paradigm that continues to marginalize gender diverse and LGBTQ individuals This volume Exploring Gender and LGBTQ Issues in K12 and Teacher Education A Rainbow Assemblage edited by Adrian D Martin and Kathryn J Strom provides examples of empirical inquiries and theorizations that explore how schools can function as more than safe academic environments for gender diverse and LGBTQ students The contributing authors attend to classrooms and educative contexts as spaces that promote the affirmative inclusion of not only LGBTQ students but other education stakeholders as well with the aim to dismantle homophobia transphobia misogyny and other hate based ideologies The volume serves as an insightful and useful resource for educators teacher educators and education researchers engaged in inquiry and pedagogy towards systems of schooling unencumbered by heteronormativity other hate based ideologies with implications for future professional practice

Understanding Diversity Through Novels and Picture Books Liz Knowles, Martha Smith, 2007-05-30 Understanding Diversity Through Novels and Picture Books goes beyond the usual multicultural lists and looks at the wide expanse of the diversity of cultures and lifestyles impacting children s lives in America today and identifies good books to have in library collections for them to read Included are annotated titles with discussion questions from all of the identified cultures and subcultures and annotated teacher librarian resources print and Web based as well as an excellent list of topical annotated journal articles Grades 4 8 Knowles and Smith examine current research on diversity and multiculturalism They move away from the traditional aspects of multicultural education food fashion folktales festivals and famous people to a focus on novels and pictures books and realistic fiction to show children with diversity issues that there are others in similar positions The issue of authenticity whether the author of the book should be of that culture or merely familiar with the culture is discussed Topics include Ethnicities Asian Latino Hispanic African Black Native American White European Bi Multiracial Exceptionalities Ageism Socioeconomic Status Sexual Orientation

Gender and Religion The authors provide this valuable resource for libraries schools and communities that wish to utilize literature to help diverse students walk in the shoes of others and to match books to children and young adults to heighten understanding and acceptance Grades 4-8 Encyclopedia of Bohemian and Czech-American Biography Miloslav Rechcigl Jr., 2016-11-10 As the Czech ambassador to the United States H E Petr Gandalovic noted in his foreword to this book that Mla Rechcigl has written a monumental work representing a culmination of his life achievement as a historian of Czech America The Encyclopedia of Bohemian and Czech American Biography is a unique and unparalleled publication The enormity of this undertaking is reflected in the fact that it covers a universe starting a few decades after the discovery of the New World through the escapades and significant contributions of Bohemian Jesuits and Moravian brethren in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries the mass migration of the Czechs after the revolutionary year of 1848 and up to the early years of the twentieth century and the influx of refugees from Nazism and communism The encyclopedia has been planned as a representative a comprehensive and authoritative reference tool encompassing over 7 500 biographies This prodigious and unparalleled encyclopedic vade mecum reflecting enduring contributions of notable Americans with Czech roots is not only an invaluable tool for all researchers and students of Czech American history but is also a carte blanche for the Czech Republic which considers Czech Americans as their own and as a part of its magnificent cultural history

Standing Still Is Not an Option Christa Boske, 2019-10-01

This book captures the experiences of children in U S public schools and how they utilize artmaking to disrupt injustices they face These first time authors who represent school children parents teachers and community leaders focus on artmaking for social change Their first tellings provide thought provoking insights regarding the impact of artmaking on their capacity to promote social justice oriented work in K 12 school communities As the U S continues to experience significant demographic shifts including increases of homeless children children identified with learning differences thousands of refugees and immigrants children living in poverty children in foster care and increasing numbers of Children of Color those who work in schools will need to know how to address disparities facing these underserved communities These U S demographic shifts and issues facing underserved populations provide opportunities for children teachers families and school leaders to deepen their understanding regarding their experiences within their communities and K 12 schools as well as ways to interrupt oppressive practices and policies they face every day through art as social action Authors call upon decision makers who serve children from disenfranchised populations to utilize artmaking to create equal access for children to explore social justice equity reflective practices and promote authentic social action and change through artmaking Authors reflect on this artmaking process as a catalyst for increasing consciousness creating imaginative possibilities and facilitating meaningful change in schools Authors urge readers to create equal access art spaces to build bridges among schools families and communities Together they contend that artmaking promotes courageous conversations and encourages the exploration of what it means to live this significant work Praise for Standing Still Is Not an Option Standing Still Is Not an Option is a non traditional leadership text not just in words but in deeds It took courage for student first authors to write perform this text and it takes courage for us as educators to read it because our youth want us to speak up more and act differently To quote one student first author It was all new to me I never did anything like this before If I could go back in time I would tell the principals that they need to care about all of the kids not just the favorites If they could actually take the time and talk to me maybe you would actually care because you would get to know me I think they would learn I have a lot on my plate and they need to know about these things It would have really helped me if they would have listened to me talked to me and actually showed me they care If a principal would have shown me they cared I wouldn t be where I am today Isn t it past time that teachers and administrators learned to become their art and let their art remake them Ira Bogotch Professor Florida Atlantic University This book dares to explore the multi faceted nature of voice and its importance in narrating the experiences that have contoured the lives of persons who are so often conditioned socialized and placed in a voiceless space by educational institutions The use of artmaking to articulate hopes and fears in a non judgmental space that calls for a socially just education shifts the focus from traditional notions of narrative to the creative power of expression through art This work breaks new ground in pushing educational power brokers to come to grips with the multiple ways asymmetric power relations are propagated through traditional structures and how the power of creativity can respond to and disrupt these structures Michael Dantley Dean Professor Miami of Ohio University Christa Boske s edited volume provides an extraordinary service to educational leaders policy makers and those who care about the education stakeholders Through the chapters in this book Boske and her authors demonstrate the power of artistic storytelling and representation to the development and empowerment of young minds For those who care about the education of children and youth this is an
