The Flaherty Patricia R. Zimmermann, Scott MacDonald, 2017-05-15 A history of this singular institution that has indelibly shaped independent and documentary filmmaking as well as its critical reception. Film Quarterly This is the inspiring story of The Flaherty one of the oldest continuously running nonprofit media arts institutions in the world which has shaped the development of independent film video and emerging forms in the United States for more than sixty years. Combining the words of legendary independent filmmakers with a detailed history of The Flaherty Patricia R Zimmermann and Scott MacDonald showcase its history and legacy amply demonstrating how the relationships created at the annual Flaherty seminar have been instrumental in transforming American media history. Moving through the decades each chapter opens with a detailed history of the organization by Zimmermann who traces the evolution of The Flaherty from a private gathering of filmmakers to a small annual convening to today's ever growing nexus of filmmakers scholars librarians producers funders distributors and others associated with international independent cinema. MacDonald expands each chapter by giving voice to the major figures in the evolution of independent media through transcriptions of key discussions galvanized by films shown at The Flaherty. Discussions feature Frances Flaherty Robert Gardner Fred Wiseman Willard Van Dyke Jim McBride Michael Snow Hollis Frampton Erik Barnouw Barbara Kopple Ed Pincus Trinh T Minh ha Bruce Conner Peter Watkins Su Friedrich Marlon Riggs William Greaves Ken Jacobs Kazuo Hara Mani Kaul Craig Baldwin Bahman Ghobadi Eyal Sivan and many others. Daily

Graphic M. Therson-Cofie, 1957-06 Consumer Nationalism and Barr's Irn-Bru in Scotland David

Leishman, 2020-10-01 This book connects a detailed analysis of Irn Bru's brand identity over time to theories of national identity consumer studies and banal nationalism. It situates the commercial history of Barr's Irn Bru in a transnational context and shows how Irn Bru has become a symbol of Scotland through processes of rewriting reframing and institutionalized forgetting linking the consumption of what began as a transnational generic product to a specific national community. As such Leishman presents a longitudinal cross disciplinary approach to analysing branding and advertising as multi modal forms of discourse in order to underline the role of commercial non state actors and popular consumerism in the phenomenon of banal nationalism. It will be of interest to students and scholars researching nationalism consumption and Scottish studies. Movieland Jerome Charyn, 1996-08 On history of American cinema I am another Yourself Kelly

Flanagan, 2013-11-26 Selected poems written from my soul in which I am far too picky to allow the human eye to skim through. Robert J. Flaherty Paul Rotha, 2015-09-30 Producer of Nanook of the North Moana Man of Aran and other pioneering documentaries between 1920 and 1940 Robert J Flaherty was America's first independent film artist. Popular conceptions of Flaherty have led many either to worship his work and regard him in mythical terms or to debunk him as a fraud and castigate him for lack of a social consciousness. Rarely has the attempt been made to understand him in the context of his times. This captivating study presents Flaherty through the eyes of someone who knew him personally: the brilliant British filmmaker and scholar Paul Rotha. A colleague and close friend of Flaherty, Rotha gives us a powerfully written biography that is a balanced and intimate look at the life and work of an American genius. Editor Jay Ruby has restored the Rotha biography including a wealth of anecdotes, letters, and memoirs that begin to bring Robert Flaherty the man into focus. An especially valuable dimension of this work is the appraisal of Flaherty the filmmaker from the viewpoint of a major figure of the British industry. He summarizes in detail the critical response to Flaherty of his contemporaries about which only sketchy information has previously been available. Flaherty regarded himself as an explorer as well as a filmmaker. The exciting story of this biography takes us from the Arctic where Flaherty spent years filming Nanook to the South Pacific, England, the Aran Islands, and finally the United States. His courage and overarching vision resulted in an unprecedented recording of the human struggle and in documentary films that reached a wider audience than ever before.
