Excerpt from Elephant Hunting in East Equatorial Africa Being an Account of Three Years Ivory Hunting Under Mount Kenia and Among the Ndorobo Savages of the Lorogi Mountains Including a Trip to the North End of Lake Rudolph Of course I am prepared to be denounced as cruel I admit at once that I am This trait is part and parcel of the barbaric tastes which caused me in my earliest years to be stigmatised as a cruel boy by tender hearted members of the family for my ardour in the pursuit of the harmless necessary cat in company with a couple of equally keen terriers among the farmyards of the neighbourhood though I am bound to say that the cats always escaped into trees or on the heights of inaccessible ricks One cannot complain of the censure of kind hearted people who object altogether to the taking of life on the contrary I respect them But the attacks of such superior sportsmen as while themselves giving us graphic accounts of their exploits in pursuit of the harmless eland giraffe and other defenceless creatures write in horror of the cruelty of hunting elephants having themselves not penetrated far enough into the wilderness to get the chance are harder to bear It is particularly cruel they tell us to hunt cow elephants especially to the hunter no doubt I wish one of these gentlemen would come and show us how to shoot bulls only in the dense cover in which elephants have to be sought in Equatorial Africa By all means let elephants and other wild animals be preserved as far as possible But as unfortunately their continued existence is incompatible with the advance of civilisation the only way to do so successfully is by making reserves in places where effective control can be exercised alike over natives and Europeans However for those amiable sympathisers to Whom the descriptions of how I killed elephants can have no interest my account of how one of these animals very nearly killed me may afford pleasure and if that should be tempered by disappointment because it was not altogether successful they may hope that vengeance may yet be consummated Akin to the heathenish propensity of my early youth above alluded to was an attempt I remember to have made to get out of sight of houses in a secluded part of a common and fancy myself in an uninhabited country and among the prophecies uttered at a later period by observant Kafirs who noticed the development of my unquenchable thirst for prying further and further into remote wastes was one to the effect that I should end by dying in a far wilderness inhabited only by Wild beasts where no smoke could be seen the horizon round About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
