

The background of the slide is a dark, textured black. It features several glowing, ethereal light trails. A prominent red trail forms a large, faint circular arc on the right side. A green trail forms a similar arc on the left side. These two trails intersect at a bright, glowing yellow-orange point located near the bottom center of the image. From this point, several thin, straight lines of red and green light radiate outwards, creating a starburst effect. The overall composition is abstract and evokes a sense of cosmic or subatomic energy.
